This Thing Called Love Angela R. Camon, 2014-02 One of the most influential people in a girl's life is her father Imagine growing up as a little child with an empty void in your heart longing for the love and acceptance of your father It is unfortunate but many daughters young and old alike can identify with the pain of not having a father present in their lives The absence of fathers in the lives of their daughters has become an epidemic that has plagued our society and affects many families from all walks of life Daughters that grow up with a healthy father and daughter bond are often less likely to become a teenage mother experience depression experiment with drugs and alcohol develop body image problems and engage in criminal activity Whereas daughters who do not have a father in their lives can experience a plethora of problems This Thing Called Love is about a young girl who shares her story about her life and the various hardships that she experienced as a result of living with a father who is physically present but emotionally absent Bewildered by his rude comments and his continuous expressions of his disapproval of her she makes conscious efforts to shine in his eyes In the pursuit of trying to achieve her father's love she learns a great deal about God's love As her relationship with God matures her newfound faith ignites her determination to win her father over not just for her personal gain but for the benefit of the Kingdom of God

The Noble Savage Stelio Cro, 1990-04-30 Stelio Cro's revealing work arising from his more than half dozen previous books considers the eighteenth century Enlightenment in the context of the European experience with and reaction to the cultures of America's original inhabitants Taking into account Spanish Italian French and English sources the author describes how the building materials for Rousseau's allegory of the Noble Savage came from the early Spanish chroniclers of the discovery and conquest of America the Jesuit Relations of the Paraguay Missions a Utopia in its own right the Essais of Montaigne Italian Humanism

The Story of My Life: Hellen Keller Hellen Keller, 2024-05-10 The Story of My Life is the touching autobiography of Helen Keller, an American writer and activist who fought and overcame blindness and deafness. For this, she relied on the help of her teacher Anne Sullivan, who had also been blind and partially recovered after nine surgeries. It's an inspiring narrative written by an exceptionally intelligent and insightful young woman who has since become an American legend. The book The Story of My Life, published in 1902, was a huge public success, and the story was brought to the screen in 1962 in the movie The Miracle Worker. The Story of My Life is an inspiring and unforgettable read and is part of the famous collection 501 Books You Must Read.

Secularism, Gender and the State in the Middle East Nadje Al-Ali, 2000-07-27 A considerable literature has been devoted to the study of Islamic activism. By contrast, Nadje Al-Ali's book explores the anthropological and political significance of secular-oriented activism by focusing on the women's movement in Egypt. In so doing, it challenges stereotypical images of Arab women as passive victims and demonstrates how they fight for their rights and confront conservative forces. Al-Ali's book also takes issue with prevailing constructions of the West and its perceived dichotomous relation to the East. The argument is constructed around interviews which afford fascinating insights into the history of the women's movement in Egypt, notions about secularism, and how Islamist constituencies have impacted on women's activism generally. The balance between the empirical and conceptual material is adeptly handled. The author frames her work in the context of current theoretical debates in Middle Eastern and post-colonial scholarship, while some of the ideas are complex, her lucid style means they are always comprehensible; the book will therefore appeal to students as well as to scholars in the field.

Life in the City of Burning Dirt James Shneer, David Shneer, Gregg Drinkwater, 2011 Life in the City of Burning Dirt is the story of two 20-something gay Jewish Americans living in Boris Yeltsin's Moscow.
