

visiting the place need to be assigned sufficient security details to prevent any movement that may compromise them leading to potential loss of lives.

Where there is no help, refugees become helpless and turn to the least expected people who can such as journalists. Therefore, everyone going to war torn area should be adequately equipped not only to visit but also help in any way.

Sometimes governments help their own, not to evacuate others. This message is dangerous as it means the civilians are left behind to be killed or under the mercy of the wrong party in the war. What do you do in the face of evil? Mass saving people is necessary even when it involves dying of a few individuals.

Shaping Ethical Conflicts

People ought to speak out during genocides, morally you cannot shut up, it's your responsibility to talk. This will create shame for the need to consent by realizing that we are one people.
