The True Human Being Maria Louise Odgaard Møller,2019-06-17 The aim of Odgaard Møller s book is threefold The first main section seeks to clarify how and why Jesus is presented in the pre 1968 writings of the Danish theologian and philosopher K E L gstrup 1905 1981 Throughout his work L gstrup s main focus has been a rehabilitation of the insight that life is something definite because it is created Here Jesus primarily plays a methodological strategic role as the one confirming and giving witness to L gstrup s interpretation of created life in a given time of his authorship When faith in creation is formulated polemically against another interpretation of life Jesus serves as L gstrup s ally in this discussion In the second main section this examination is extrapolated to include a discussion with Bultmann and two of his students in order to clarify the character of his Christology not least whether or in what way this can be characterised as implicit Christology Finally in the light of Ricoeur s hermeneutic philosophy of religion the third main section considers the systematic theological validity of this picture of Jesus The overall conclusion can be summed up in this way The main line in L gstrup s work goes from created life to the human being Jesus of Nazareth Jesus incarnates created life therefore he is the true human being This close connection between created Life and true Human Being is the kernel in L gstrup s thought This makes his perception of Jesus and his Christology distinctive original and specifically L gstrupian

Estes, 2018-03-14 The study of the Bible has long included a literary aspect with great attention paid not only to what was written but also to how it was expressed The detailed analysis of biblical books and passages as written texts has benefited from the study of literature in classical philology ancient rhetoric and modern literary criticism This volume of the Lexham Methods Series introduces the various ways the study of literature has been used in biblical studies Most literary approaches emphasize the study of the text alone its structure its message and its use of literary devices rather than its social or historical background The methods described in Literary Approaches to the Bible are focused on different ways of analyzing the text within its literary context Some of the techniques have been around for centuries but the theories of literary critics from the early 20th century to today had a profound impact on biblical interpretation In this book you will learn about those literary approaches how they were adapted for biblical studies and what their strengths and weaknesses are      Prodigality,

Liberality and Meanness David Holgate, 1999-08-01 This monograph interprets the parable of the Prodigal Son Lk 15 11-32 in the light of Graeco Roman popular moral philosophy Luke's special parables are rarely studied in this way but the results of this study are very fruitful The unity of the parable is supported and it is shown to be deeply concerned with a major Lukan theme the right use of possessions The whole parable is read in terms of the moral topos on covetousness and shown to be an endorsement of the Graeco Roman virtue of liberality modified by the Christian virtue of compassion      The JAG Journal

Dance offers a progressive Christian theology that endorses contemporary ideals environmental protection economic justice racial reconciliation interreligious peace gender equality and LGBTQ celebration Just as importantly this book provides a theology of progress an interpretation of Christian faith as ever changing and ever advancing into God s imagination Faith demands change because Jesus of Nazareth started a movement not a tradition He preached about a new world the Kingdom of God and invited his followers to work toward the divine vision of universal flourishing This vision includes all and excludes none Since we have not yet achieved the world that Jesus describes we must continue to progress The energizing impulse of this progress is the Trinity Abba Jesus and Sophia three persons united by love into one perfect community God is fundamentally relational and humankind made in the image of God is relational as a result We are inextricably entwined with one another sharing a common purpose and a common destiny In this vision we find abundant life by practicing agape the universal unconditional love that Abba extends Jesus reveals and Sophia inspires      Story Theology Terrence W.
