Bakshi, Frederick T. L. Leong, A. G. Watts, 2014-02-08 This book is focused on work occupation and career development themes that are fundamental to a wide range of human activities and relevant across all cultures Yet theorizing and model building about this most ubiquitous of human activities from international perspectives have not been vigorous An examination of the literature pertaining to career development counseling and guidance that has developed over the last fifty years reveals theorizing and model building have been largely dominated by Western epistemologies some of the largest workforces in the world are in the developing world Career guidance is rapidly emerging as a strongly felt need in these contexts If more relevant models are to be developed frameworks from other cultures and economies must be recognized as providing constructs that would offer a deeper understanding of career development This does not mean that existing ideas are to be discarded Instead an integrative approach that blends universal principles with particular needs could offer a framework for theorizing research and practice that has wider relevance The central objective of this handbook is to draw the wisdom and experiences of different cultures together to consider both universal and specific principles for career guidance and counseling that are socially and economically relevant to contemporary challenges and issues This book is focused on extending existing concepts to broader contexts as well as introducing new concepts relevant to the discipline of career guidance and counseling Latinx College Students Jose? Miguel Maldonado, Adrienne L. Johnson, 2024-02-01 Counselors and educators are advocates for understanding ourselves multiculturalism and diversity in a societal climate of division Provided the recent political coup and exclusion ideology Latino Male students are marginalized because of cultural identity Machismo and cultural values Due to the controversial nature of Machismo masculinity and language with Latino Males multicultural educators are constantly silenced in universities by political correctness and censorship Specifically Latino Males are a direct target for incidences of racism microaggressions and oppression in our society Colleges universities and counseling field has been moving forward slowly in its scope of inclusion advocacy for Latino Male students There is a dearth in the empirical research on Latino Male experiences of otherness indifference and exclusion The proposed textbook will establish viable strategies to deepen cultural competence and inclusion advocacy A competent framework for engagement is desperately needed in areas of inclusion advocacy and social justice for Latino Males The convergence of sociopolitical views on diverse relationships has ignited an era of unrest exclusion ideology and remnants of mental distress and trauma in Latino communities The textbook reader will specifically address the issues of Latino Male Machismo in colleges and universities The authors will produce a variety of important readings chapters about Latino Male students Otherness and strategies for cultural inclusion of identity values and practices The potential contributions from this research will provide a foundation for implementing innovative inclusion programs for Latinx students as well To further add content critical incidences of bias discrimination otherness and exclusion will be addressed in a manner that promotes a new form of connectedness for Latino Males in colleges and universities The intended audience for this textbook reader are counselor educators student affairs professionals counselors and university counselors
