Athanasius And Constantius Theology And Politics In The Constantinian Empire:

Athanasius and Constantius Timothy David Barnes, 2001 Barnes's reconstruction of Athanasius's career analyzes the nature and extent of the Bishop's power especially as it intersected with imperial policies Untangling classic misconceptions Barnes reveals the Bishop's true role in the struggles within Christianity and in the relations between the Roman emperor and the Church at a critical juncture Athanasius and Constantius Timothy D. Barnes, 2004 Constantine and the Christian Empire Charles Odahl, 2010-07-02 Drawing on over a quarter of a century of the author's research and experience this book focuses on the man and his life for scholars students and those interested in Roman imperial early Christian and Byzantine imperial history It is illustrated with ninety two photographs and eight maps The Demonic in the Political Thought of Eusebius of Caesarea Hazel Johannessen, 2016 Through close literary analysis of the original Greek texts Hazel Johannessen explores how Eusebius of Caesarea c 260-339 used ideas about demons in his political thought Political Memory and the Constantinian Dynasty Rebecca Usherwood, 2022-03-21 This book is an exploration of political memory and disgrace in the reigns of Constantine and his sons It uses the conditions of the early to mid fourth century to argue that the deconstruction of political legitimacy should be viewed first and foremost as a collective phenomenon the result of the actions of a diverse range of people responding to political change It also challenges many positivist and teleological narratives of the Age of Constantine Shifting the focus from the emperor and his sons onto their rivals and opponents the Constantinian dynasty is placed back into the messy and ambiguous political environment from which it emerged

Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490-1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243-183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909-1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Power and Rhetoric in the Ecclesiastical Correspondence of Constantine the Great Andrew J. Pottenger, 2022-11-30 This volume closely examines patterns of rhetoric in surviving correspondence by the Roman emperor Constantine on conflicts among Christians that occurred during his reign primarily the Donatist schism and Arian controversy Commonly remembered as the first Christian emperor of the Roman Empire Constantine's rule sealed a momentous alliance between church and state for more than a millennium His well known involvement with Christianity led him to engage with two major disputes that divided his Christian subjects the Donatist schism centred from the emperor's perspective on determining the rightful bishop of Carthage and the so called Arian controversy a theological conflict about the proper understanding of the Son's divine nature in relation to that of the Father This book examines a number of letters associated with Constantine that directly address both of these disagreements exploring his point of view and motivations to better understand how and why this emperor applied his power to internal church divisions Based on a close analysis of prominent themes and their functions in the rhetoric of his correspondence Pottenger argues that three doctrines of power served to inform and direct Constantine's use of power as he engaged with these problems of schism and heresy Power and Rhetoric in the Ecclesiastical Correspondence of Constantine the Great is of interest to students and scholars of early Christianity and the history of the later Roman Empire The Church in the Age of Constantine Johannes

Roldanus,2006-09-12 The Church in the Age of Constantine provides a refined theological screening of the doctrinal and ethical thinking during the fourth century Relating biblical essentials to ancient cosmology and anthropology Roldanus uses the concept of contextualisation to appreciate this process He makes clear that however much the winning positions were dependent on the interfering of the State the theological reflection went nevertheless its proper way conditioned as it was by various understandings of salvation in Christ There was a natural concern to relate salvation to the most important elements of the existing culture Providing models for reflection on inculturation this study helps students to focus on the essentials and to form and unprejudiced opinion on this crucial period of history Arianism: Roman Heresy and Barbarian Creed

Guido M. Berndt,2016-04-15 This is the first volume to attempt a comprehensive overview of the evolution of the Arian churches in the Roman world of Late Antiquity and their political importance in the late Roman kingdoms of the 5th 6th centuries ruled by barbarian warrior elites Bringing together researchers from the disciplines of theology history and archaeology and providing an extensive bibliography it constitutes a breakthrough in a field largely neglected in historical studies A polemical term coined by the Orthodox Church the side that prevailed in the Trinitarian disputes of the 4th century C E for its opponents in theology as well as in ecclesiastical politics Arianism has often been seen as too complicated to understand outside the group of theological specialists dealing with it and has therefore sometimes been ignored in historical studies The studies here offer an introduction to the subject grounded in the historical context then examine the adoption of Arian Christianity among the Gothic contingents of the Roman army and its subsequent diffusion in the barbarian kingdoms of the late Roman world Arianism Revisited Brendan Wolfe,Mattias Gassman,Oliver Langworthy,2025-06-10 The volume gives a broad overview of ancient non Nicene theologies surveys key councils and events from before Nicaea until the final demise of institutional non Nicene Christianity in 589 and lays out both the historical background and the theological underpinnings of the thought of Arius himself and of his allies and their successors down to the repudiation of non Nicene Christianity by the Germanic kingdoms This content is organized around the contexts in which Arian thought is encountered differentiating doctrines across time and space while also demonstrating both intellectual and personal continuity The Good Christian Ruler in the First Millennium Philip Michael Forness,Alexandra Hasse-Ungeheuer,Hartmut

Leppin,2021-07-19 The late antique and early medieval Mediterranean was characterized by wide ranging cultural and linguistic diversity Yet under the influence of Christianity communities in the Mediterranean world were bound together by common concepts of good rulership which were also shaped by Greco Roman Persian Caucasian and other traditions This collection of essays examines ideas of good Christian rulership and the debates surrounding them in diverse cultures and linguistic communities It grants special attention to communities on the periphery such as the Caucasus and Nubia and some essays examine non Christian concepts of good rulership to offer a comparative perspective As a whole the studies in this volume reveal not only the entanglement and affinity of communities around the Mediterranean but also areas of conflict among Christians and between Christians and other cultural traditions By gathering various specialized studies on the overarching question of good rulership this volume highlights the possibilities of placing research on classical antiquity and early medieval Europe into conversation with the study of eastern Christianity Stasis Jonathan Stutz ,2024-07-08

Episodes of collective violence have come to us in forms of texts that were designed in such a way as to manipulate the perception and emotional response of a specific audience Jonathan Stutz shows that for this reason early Christian narratives on religious violence have to be read against the background of ancient perceptions of violence and alongside ancient texts that aimed at legitimizing or de legitimizing the use of physical coercion The Nicene Faith John Behr, N this sequel to The Way to Nicaea Fr John Behr turns his attention to the fourth century the era in which Christian theology was formulated as the Nicene faith the common heritage of most Christians to this day Engaging the best of modern scholarship Behr provides a series of original comprehensive and insightful sketches of theology of the key protagonists of the Nicene faith presenting a powerful vision of Christian theology centered upon Christ and his Passion Imperial Ideology and Provincial Loyalty in the Roman Empire Clifford Ando,2013-08-29 The Roman empire remains unique Although Rome claimed to rule the world it did not Rather its uniqueness stems from the culture it created and the loyalty it inspired across an area that stretched from the Tyne to the Euphrates Moreover the empire created this culture with a bureaucracy smaller than that of a typical late twentieth century research university In approaching this problem Clifford Ando does not ask the ever fashionable question Why did the Roman empire fall Rather he asks Why did the empire last so long Imperial Ideology and Provincial Loyalty in the Roman Empire argues that the longevity of the empire rested not on Roman military power but on a gradually realized consensus that Roman rule was justified This consensus was itself the product of a complex conversation between the central government and its far flung peripheries Ando investigates the mechanisms that sustained this conversation explores its contribution to the legitimation of Roman power and reveals as its product the provincial absorption of the forms and content of Roman political and legal discourse Throughout his sophisticated and subtle reading is informed by current thinking on social formation by theorists such as Max Weber Jürgen Habermas and Pierre Bourdieu The
