Renewal of the Federal Grant for the Trans-Alaska Pipeline System Right-of-way, 2002 Draft Environmental Impact Statement United States. Bureau of Land Management. Alaska State Office, 2002 The Australian Policy Handbook Catherine Althaus, Sarah Ball, Peter Bridgman, Glyn Davis, David Threlfall, 2022-12-21 The seventh edition of this classic handbook on the policy process is fully updated featuring new material on policy making amid local and global disruption the contestable nature of modern policy advice commissioning and contracting public engagement and policy success and failure The Australian Policy Handbook shows how public policy permeates every aspect of our lives It is the stuff of government justifying taxes driving legislation and shaping our social services Public policy gives us roads railways and airports emergency services justice education and health services defence industry development and natural resource management While politicians make the decisions public servants provide analysis and support for those choices This updated edition includes new visuals and introduces a series of case studies for the first time These cases covering family violence behavioural economics justice reinvestment child protection and more illustrate the personal and professional challenges of policymaking practice Drawing on their extensive practical and academic experience the authors outline the processes used in making public policy They systematically explain the relationships between political decision makers public service advisers community participants and those charged with implementation The Australian Policy Handbook remains the essential guide for students and practitioners of policy making in Australia How Government Experts Self-Sabotage Christiane Gerblinger, 2022-12-08 After official policy advice to governments is publicly released governments are often accused of ignoring or rejecting their experts Commonly represented as politicisation this depiction is superficial Digging deeper is there something about the official advice itself that makes it easy to ignore Instead of lamenting a demise of expertise Christiane Gerblinger asks does the expert advice of policy officials feature characteristics that invite its government audience to overlook or misread it To answer this question Gerblinger critically examines official policy advice and finds the language of the rebuffed government experts reluctant to disclose what they know so as to accommodate political circumstances She argues that this language evades stable meaning and diminishes the democratic right of citizens to scrutinise the work of government OECD Public Integrity Handbook OECD, 2020-05-20 The OECD Public Integrity Handbook provides guidance to government business and civil society on implementing the OECD Recommendation on Public Integrity The Handbook clarifies what the Recommendation's thirteen principles mean in practice and identifies challenges in implementing them Constructing the Craft of Public Administration Christine Shearer, 2021-11-11 This book draws on recent empirical research and reports unique insight into the craft of public administration of the most senior echelons of the Australian Public Service APS This work is set in the context of a comparative analysis of the significant public sector reforms by successive governments from the 1980s across Westminster polities Such reforms and the contemporary management ideas on which they were based including new managerialism and new public management NPM travelled were translated and transformed with some elements accepted and others rejected This book addresses how the most senior public servants in the APS construct their craft today amid such reforms Chapter two covers the myriad of public sector reforms across Westminster polities Chapters three and four cover the environments and contemporary management ideas which influence public administration Chapters five and six showcase the public actors and the responsibilities they execute when they construct their craft The final chapter provides a conceptual model of the craft of public administration and provides implications for theory and practice

Power Without Responsibility Anne Tiernan, 2007 A raft of recent political scandals in Australia has generated widespread media and public interest in the role and accountability of ministerial staffers and their impact on relations between ministers and their public service advisers Such scandals include the notorious Children Overboard affair and the more recent AWB imbroglio In Power Without Responsibility Anne Tiernan describes the contemporary working environment of political staffers their formal and less formal roles the challenges they face and the forces that have escalated the growth in their numbers and influence

Guide to Starting and Operating a Successful Travel Agency Laurence Stevens, 1983 The Oxford Handbook of Australian Politics Jenny M.

Lewis, Anne Tiernan, 2021 This Handbook provides a comprehensive examination of Australia's distinctive politics both ancient and modern across multidisciplinary subjects It examines the factors that make Australian politics unique and interesting while firmly placing these in the context of the nation's Indigenous and imported heritage and global engagement

Interstate Commerce Commission Reports, 1985-06 Interstate Commerce Commission Reports United States. Interstate Commerce Commission, 1985 Managing Under Austerity, Delivering Under Pressure John Wana, Hsu-Ann Lee, Sophie Yates, 2015-10-30 Contemporary public managers find themselves under pressure on many fronts Coming off a sustained period of growth in their funding and some complacency about their performance they now face an environment of ferocious competitiveness abroad and austerity at home Public managers across Australia and New Zealand are finding themselves wrestling with expenditure reduction a smaller public sector overall sustained demands for productivity improvement and the imperative to think differently about the optimal distribution of responsibilities between states markets and citizens Given ever shrinking resources in terms of staffing budgets and time how can public managers and public services become more productive more outcome driven and more agile How can we achieve better alignment between ever growing citizen expectations and the realities of constrained service provision What can we learn from the best combination of innovation and austerity already being delivered in other countries and sectors including harnessing the grounded wisdom of frontline service delivery practitioners This book focuses on practical ways public managers at home and abroad are dealing with these shared dilemmas It brings together renowned scholars in the fields of public sector productivity performance management frugal innovation and budget stringency with leading international and Australasian
