

APUSH Reform Movements

APUSH Standards: The rise of democratic and individualistic beliefs, a response to rationalism, and changes to society caused by the market revolution, along with greater social and geographical mobility, contributed to moral and social reforms and inspired utopian and other religious movements.

Learning Intentions: What were the major reform movements of the 19th century in America? What were the social and economic impacts of these movements?

Success Criteria: You will be able to identify the key reform movements of the 19th century and explain their goals, tactics, and impacts.

Directions: Read the primary sources at each station and cite specific evidence for each reform movement. In addition, please read the context for each station - there is some outstanding information included that is vital to content knowledge.

Here are the documents that correlate with the stations. Sources for all Reforms

Station 1: Temperance

Context: A number of people worked to prevent alcohol abuse. Many people believed that Americans were drinking liquor at an alarming rate in the early and mid 1800s. At the time, water was not treated or cleaned. Thus, many Americans preferred to drink alcoholic beverages instead. During the 1830s the average alcohol consumption per person was seven gallons a year, (compared to 2.4 gallons today.) Many reformers related drinking to ruined family life and believed that it led to spousal and child abuse. Factory owners believed that drinking cut down on workers output and on the job accidents.

Temperance organizations formed with the goal of stopping the consumption of liquor and limiting the amount of beer and wine an individual drank. As the movement grew in strength, the goals became to ban all alcoholic drinks. Soon many cities and even states started to pass laws outlawing alcohol within their borders. Maine became the first state to ban alcohol in 1851.
