the Late Soviet Union Barbara Martin,Nadezhda Beliakova,2023-08-18 This book presents the first large overview of late Soviet religiosity across several confessions and Soviet republics from the 1960s to the 1980s Based on a broad range of new sources on the daily life of religious communities including material from regional archives and oral history it shows that religion not only survived Soviet anti religious repression but also adapted to new conditions Going beyond traditional views about a mere returned of the repressed the book shows how new forms of religiosity and religious socialisation emerged as new generations born into atheist families turned to religion in search of new meaning long before perestroika facilitated this process In addition the book examines anew religious activism and transnational networks between Soviet believers and Western organisations during the Cold War explores the religious dimension of Soviet female activism and shifts the focus away from the non religious human rights movement and from religious institutions to ordinary believers Resources in
