Kuccps Admissions 2015:

Facing Forward Sajitha Bashir, Marlaine Lockheed, Elizabeth Ninan, Jee-Peng Tan, 2018-09-20 Facing Forward lays out a range of policy and implementation actions that are needed for countries in Sub Saharan Africa to meet the challenge of improving learning while expanding access and completion of basic education for all The book underscores the importance of aligning the education system to be relentlessly focused on learning outcomes and to ensuring that all children have access to good schools good learning materials and good teachers It is unique in characterizing countries according to the challenges they faced in the 1990s and the educational progress they have made over the past 25 years allowing countries in the region to learn from each other The authors review the global literature and add to it by their extensive new analyses of multiple datasets from more than three dozen countries in the region they integrate findings about what affects children s learning their access to schooling and progress through basic education The book draws lessons from the region and for the region about what works and what is needed to better implement what is known to have worked The book examines four areas to help countries better align their systems to improve learning 1 completing the unfinished agenda of reaching universal basic education with quality 2 ensuring effective management and support of teachers 3 targeting spending priorities and budget processes on improving quality and 4 closing the institutional capacity gap It concludes with an assessment of how future educational progress may be affected by projected fertility rates and economic growth Thus

Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style Equality in Kenya's 2010

Constitution Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25 This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality It illuminates the many ways in which diverse equality guarantees clash or are interrelated It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya Taking a comparative approach the book considers how other jurisdictions including the United States United Kingdom Canada South Africa India and Botswana have approached the conceptualisation interpretation and application of various equality concepts The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya's 2010 Constitution expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non discrimination affirmative action accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality the interrelation between socio economic rights and status based equality

Higher Education Admission Practices María Elena Oliveri, Cathy Wendler, 2020-01-30 Reveals practices and issues in higher education admissions which are critical factors for improving worldwide access and equity

Governance and Christian Higher Education in the African Context David K. Ngaruiya, Rodney L. Reed, 2019-02-14 Integrity pastoral care and authority lie at the heart of Christian leadership and indeed following Jesus in any capacity and they are also critical in state governance and Christian higher education The articles in this book the product of the 2017 conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology address these themes and other topics relating to the spheres of government and education in Africa to enhance our understanding of the challenges faced in African contexts A wide range of Christian scholar leaders provide a way forward for other church and institutional leaders who are seeking to faithfully fulfill their responsibilities of stewardship and instruction Corruption civil disobedience good governance and formation of Christian leaders are matters that are becoming increasingly relevant not only in many African countries but across the world and this book is a valuable resource for thoughtful reflection and guidance on these important subjects The Elusive African Renaissance George Klay Kieh, Jr., 2018-08-28 Africa faces several major development challenges that have adversely affected the political and material well being of the majority of the people living there This collection of new essays rigorously analyzes those frontier development issues including democracy leadership the economy poverty alleviation through microfinance schemes food security education health and political instability and offers prescriptions that differ from the dominant neoliberal solutions

Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa Facing Forward (FRENCH) Sajitha Bashir, Marlaine

Lockheed, Elizabeth Ninan, Jee-Peng Tan, 2019-04-01 This book lays out a range of policy and implementation actions that are needed for countries in sub Saharan Africa to meet the challenge of improving learning while expanding access and completion of basic education for all Routledge Handbook of Contemporary African Women Anna Chitando, Eunice

Kamaara, Ezra Chitando, 2024-12-31 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary African Women highlights the achievements and progress being made by African women across a wide range of sectors in society Without glossing over the very real challenges which women in Africa continue to face this landmark handbook demonstrates how women across the continent are deploying their agency to achieve notable progress in areas as diverse as Pandemics Climate Change Science Technology Entrepreneurship Higher Education Youth Older People Challenging prevailing narratives and stereotypes about African women this handbook provides a more positive perspective into African women s progressive actions for sustainable development It will be an essential read for readers across the fields of gender environment political science history development studies religious studies and African Studies
