Curtis realized his life's work the monumental twenty volume book series The North American Indian 1907-1930 Over the years this work has been both praised and criticized In this comprehensive and innovative study Herman Cohen Stuart corrects a number of persistent misconceptions about the way Curtis for many the most image defining and influential photographer of American Indians has represented the indigenous peoples of North America The author argues that Curtis was keenly aware of the major changes Native Americans faced in the early 20th century As is demonstrated by a thorough both quantitative and qualitative analysis of both Curtis's texts and photographic artwork Curtis was deeply conscious of the fact that by and even before the turn of the century Western influences had already made large inroads into Native American life This book provides a reappraisal of Curtis's position during this complicated and trying period for Native Americans The American Three-Party System W. D. Wright, 2012-07 W. D. Wright has identified and provided a provocative discussion of the existence of the Corporate Political Party and a national three party system comprised of the CPP and the Republican and Democratic parties Both the CPP and the three party system have existed unknown to the American people since the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries hidden in plain sight The Corporate Political Party promotes the politics of deception secrecy and corruption in short anti democratic politics The CPP has two major objectives The first is to establish a national one party system by gaining control over the Republican and Democratic parties turning them into shell institutions and functioning through them this would be done as it is presently occurring by helping to get Democrats and Republicans elected to office who would be that in name only while actually being Corporate Political Party candidates and elected officials wearing two labels The second major objective is to control the national state and local governments and their treasuries through the two shell parties in order to be able to shift large amounts of taxpayers money on a continuous basis to its constituencies rich and powerful individuals and financial industrial and commercial corporations thereby seeking to create a large discrepancy of wealth on a continuous basis between its constituencies and the American population There is an urgent need for the American people to learn about the Corporate Political Party and take action against it for the sake of their own future wealth prosperity and freedom in this country
