Capitalism and the Senses Regina Lee Blaszczyk, David Suisman, 2023-06-13 Capitalism and the Senses is the first edited volume to explore how the forces of capitalism are entangled with everyday sensory experience If the senses have a history as Karl Marx wrote then that history is inseparable from the development of capitalism which has both taken advantage of the senses and influenced how sensory experience has changed over time This pioneering collection shows how seeing hearing tasting smelling and touching have both shaped and been shaped by commercial interests from the turn of the twentieth century to our own time From the manipulation of taste and texture in the food industry to the careful engineering of the feel of artificial fabrics capitalist enterprises have worked to commodify the senses in a wide variety of ways Drawing on history anthropology geography and other fields the volume s essays analyze not only where this effort has succeeded but also where the senses have resisted control and the logic of markets The result is an innovative ensemble that demonstrates how the drive to exploit sensorial experience for profit became a defining feature of capitalist modernity and establishes the senses as an important dimension of the history of capitalism Contributors Nicholas Anderman Regina Lee Blaszczyk Jessica P Clark Ai Hisano Lisa Jacobson Sven Kube Grace Lees Maffei Ingemar Pettersson David Suisman Ana Mar a Ulloa Nicole Welk Joerger
