All English Accents Matter Pierre Wilbert Orelus, 2023-04-28 Orelus valuable study draws on the scholarly work of sociocultural and postcolonial theorists as well as testimonies collected from study participants to explore accentism the systemic form of discrimination against speakers whose accents deviate from a socially constructed norm Orelus examines the manner in which accents are acquired and the effects of such acquisition on the learning and educational experiences of linguistically and culturally diverse students He goes on to demonstrate the ways and the degree to which factors such as race class and country of origin are connected with nonstandard accent based discrimination Finally this book proposes alternative ways to challenge and counter the accentism that minority groups including linguistically and culturally diverse groups have faced in schools and in society at large It will be of interest to all of those concerned with linguistic accent based prejudice and the experience of those who face it Answers May Vary: Essays on Teaching English as a Second Language Dorothy Zemach, Twenty five essays on teaching English as a second language by renowned ELT materials writer and teacher trainer Dorothy Zemach The wide variety of topics include classroom management testing and assessment teaching reading strategies coping with cheating and plagiarism teaching visual learners culture shock the value of a non native teacher and recognizing and overcoming teacher burnout This volume contains the complete collection of her From A to Z columns originally published in TESOL's Essential Teacher magazine 2003 2009 The DISAM Journal of International Security Assistance Management, 1994 The Occupier and the "New" Occupied Pierre W. Orelus, 2010-01-01 In this book the author critically analyzes the wide ranging effects of western neo colonial and neo liberal economic and political policies on Haiti and other oppressed nations The author's overarching argument is that western colonization of these countries has taken a different form with a disguised mask Further the author contends that this form of colonization and new occupation has been made possible through the control of the economic and political apparatus of these disfranchised nations and the ideological domination of people living there often maintained through canonical texts and institutions such as schools the army the media and churches The author situates this new form of occupation of Haiti by western imperialist powers in the context of western neo liberal economic and political policies Finally critically analyzing the Haiti's school system which he argues is colonial based the author demonstrates how students living in this island have been mis educated to internalize and reproduce western values beliefs and norms at the expense of their own The Management of Security Cooperation, 2019 The Assessment of L2 Written English across the MENA Region Lee McCallum, Christine Coombe, 2020-12-19 This edited book brings together contributions from different educational contexts across the Middle East and North Africa MENA in order to explore how L2 English writing is assessed Across seven MENA countries the book covers aspects of practice including task design and curriculum alignment test re development rubric design the subjective decision making that underpins assessing students writing and feedback provision learner performance and how research methods help shed light on initiatives to improve student writing In such coverage chapter authors provide concrete evidence of how assessment practice is governed by their unique context yet also influenced by international standards trends and resources This book will be of interest to second language teachers assessors and programme developers as well as test designers and evaluators Blended Learning: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2016-08-18
