American Independent Cinema A Sight And Sound Reader:

American Independent Cinema Jim Hillier, 2001-03-01 American Independent Cinema Geoff King, 2014-09-08 The independent sector has produced many of the most distinctive films to have appeared in the US in recent decades From Sex Lies and Videotape in the 1980s to The Blair Witch Project and New Queer Cinema in the 1990s and the ultra low budget digital video features of the 2000s indie films have thrived creating a body of work that stands out from the dominant Hollywood mainstream But what exactly is independent cinema This the first book to examine the question in detail argues that independence can be defined partly in industry terms but also according to formal and aesthetic strategies and by distinctive attitudes towards social and political issues suggesting that independence is a dynamic rather than a fixed quality Chapters focus on distribution and relationships with Hollywood studios narrative Clerks and Slacker to Pulp Fiction Magnolia and Memento and other formal dimensions from Blair Witch s authenticity to expressive and stylized camerawork and editing in work from Harmony Korine to the Coen brothers approaches to genre and alternative socio political visions

Contemporary American Independent Film Chris Holmlund, Justin Wyatt, 2005 From Easy Rider to The Blair Witch Project this book is a comprehensive examination of the independent film scene Exploring the uneasy relationship between independent films and the major studios the contributors trace the changing ideas and definitions of independent cinema and the diversity of independent film practices They consider the ways in which indie films are marketed and distributed and how new technologies such as video cable and the internet offered new opportunities for filmmakers to produce and market independent films Turning to the work of key auteurs such as John Sayles and Haile Gerima contributors ask whether independent filmmakers can also be stars and consider how indie features like Boys Don t Cry and Shopping for Fangs address issues of gender sexuality and ethnicity normally avoided by Hollywood For all students of film studies and American studies this cultural journey through independent film history will be an absolute must read Directory of World Cinema: American Independent John Berra, 2010-05-01 With high profile Academy Award nominations and an increasing number of big name actors eager to sign on to promising projects independent films have been at the forefront in recent years like never before But the roots of such critical and commercial successes as The Hurt Locker and Precious can be traced to the first boom of independent cinema in the 1960s when a raft of talented filmmakers emerged to capture the attention of a rapidly growing audience of young viewers A thorough overview of a thriving area of cultural life Directory of World Cinema American Independent chronicles the rise of the independent sector as an outlet for directors who challenge the status quo yet still produce accessible feature films that not only find wide audiences but enjoy considerable box office appeal without sacrificing critical legitimacy Key directors are interviewed and profiled and a sizeable selection of films are referenced and reviewed More than a dozen sub genres including African American cinema queer cinema documentary familial dysfunction and exploitation are individually considered with an emphasis on their ability to engage with tensions inherent in American

Doing

Time Lee Carruthers,2016-06-06 Proposes that cinematic time is not a fixed idea but a dynamic exchange between film and viewer Doing Time addresses two areas of interest in recent film study film temporality and film philosophy to propose an innovative theorization of cinematic time that sees it as a dynamic process of engagement or something we do as viewers. This active relation to cinematic time which discloses a film's temporal character is called its timeliness. Here it is traced across a range of fascinating case studies from Hollywood and the global art cinema uncovering each film's characteristic way of doing time. Throughout the ambiguities of filmic time are held as powerful attractions as they modulate film viewing: such pauses, gaps, repetitions and stretches of time illuminate a living field that extends from viewing activity. Drawing on the writings of French film critic and theorist André Bazin as well as the phenomenology of Martin Heidegger and Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Lee Carruthers forwards a claim about the value of cinematic time for thinking. She also raises the tasks of film analysis and interpretation to renewed visibility. By prioritizing the viewer's experience of filmic temporality and offering a rich vocabulary for describing this exchange, Carruthers articulates a new sphere of theoretical inquiry that invites film viewers and readers to participate. Lee Carruthers makes an original and powerful argument about the importance of timeliness, providing a much needed alternative approach to that of Deleuze to thinking seriously about the temporality of cinema. Her chapters including one on The Tree of Life are masterful criticism. William Rothman, author of Must We Kill the Thing We Love: Emersonian Perfectionism and the Films of Alfred Hitchcock (Puzzle Films, Warren Buckland, 2009-02-11). Drawing upon the expertise of film scholars from around the world, Puzzle Films investigates a number of films that sport complex storytelling from Memento, Old Boy and Run Lola Run to the Infernal Affairs trilogy and In the Mood for Love. Unites American independent cinema, the European and International Art film and certain modes of avant-garde filmmaking on the basis of their shared storytelling complexity. Draws upon the expertise of film scholars from North America, Britain, China, Poland, Holland, Italy, Greece, New Zealand and Australia. Indie Cinema Online, Sarah E.S. Sinwell, 2020-08-14. Indie Cinema Online maps out a cultural history of American independent cinema online from 1999 to the present, from Netflix and its use of online streaming to the first feature film released on YouTube to Sundance's creation of digital shorts and web series intended for cell phone viewing. The Bent Lens, Lisa Daniel, Claire Jackson, 2014-05-14. The definitive international guide to gay, lesbian and queer film and video. Drunk on Capitalism. An Interdisciplinary Reflection on Market Economy, Art and Science, Robrecht Vanderbeeken, Frederik Le Roy, Christel Stalpaert, Diederik AERTS, 2011-09-28. The book presents an interdisciplinary collection of analyses that discuss the impact of market economy on our culture in the post-Berlin Wall era. It contains two parts. The first focuses on the commercialisation of science and education. The second elaborates on the multiple and diverse relation between art and capital. Performance in the Cinema of Hal Hartley, Sight and Sound, 2007. Mind the Screen, Jaap Kooijman, Patricia Pisters, Wanda Strauven, 2008. Mind the Screen pays tribute to the work of the pioneering European film scholar Thomas Elsaesser, author of several volumes on media studies and cinema culture. Covering a full scope of issues arising from the author's work from melodrama and mediated memory to avant-garde practices, media archaeology and the audiovisual archive, this collection elaborates and expands on Elsaesser's original ideas along the topical lines of cinephilia the historical imaginary the contemporary European cinematic experience YouTube and images of terrorism and double occupancy among other topics Contributions from well known artists and scholars such as Mieke Bal and Warren Buckland explore a range of media concepts and provide a mirror for the multi faceted types of screens active in Elsaesser s work including the television set video installation the digital interface the mobile phone display and of course the hallowed silver screen of our contemporary film culture

The Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar-wai Gary Bettinson,2025-03-20 The widely acclaimed films of Wong Kar wai are characterized by their sumptuous yet complex visual and sonic style Bettinson argues that Wong s films from Days of Being Wild and Chungking Express to In the Mood for Love and The Grandmaster are permeated by an aesthetic of sensuousness and disturbance achieved through techniques such as narrative disruptions jarring cuts the blocking of facial access and other complex strategies The effect is to jolt the viewer out of complete aesthetic absorption This tenth anniversary edition of The Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar wai includes a substantial new afterword bringing the story of Wong s career up to date including reflections on the mainland Chinese drama Blossoms Shanghai Bettinson revisits and extends the arguments of the first edition surveys the recent key debates on Wong s filmmaking and introduces fresh lines of critical investigation Gary Bettinson s Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar wai is a major step forward in our understanding of this director Bettinson scrutinizes Wong s unique place in world film culture his unusual production methods and his debts to several cinematic traditions both Asian and European A close examination of Wong s style shows in unprecedented depth how these lyrical apparently loosely constructed films are underpinned by a strong formal and emotional coherence The result is an unequalled study of a filmmaker whose work from As Tears Go By to The Grandmaster has redefined contemporary cinema David Bordwell University of Wisconsin Madison Seldom has the sensuous been subjected to such a scientifically rigorous and yet moving account as Gary Bettinson s analysis of Wong Kar wai Chapter by chapter the logic of specific choices underpinning Wong s cinema produces a sense of revelation perfectly complementing the intense pleasures of watching the films In this second edition Bettinson focuses on the actor s work a stroke of genius for understanding an oeuvre where body language and gesture are so crucial Chris Berry King s College London In this essential study of acclaimed filmmaker Wong Kar wai Gary Bettinson exquisitely captures the director s cinematic sensorium and digs deep below a seductive visual surface to uncover a creative roughness that disturbs narrative and generic expectations Three cheers for this updated edition Gina Marchetti author of Citing China Politics Postmodernism and World Cinema
