Approaching The End Of Life A Practical And Spiritual Guide:

Approaching the End of Life Donna Schaper, 2015 From making a will and planning a memorial service to finding peace in aging and illness Approaching the End of Life offers practical and spiritual guidance to anyone wrestling with the end of a life With sensitivity and humor Donna Schaper shares information on topics ranging from coping with illness to finding a spiritual home Approaching the End of Life Donna Schaper, 2015-05-21 In her more than forty years as a minister Rev Donna Schaper has been approached hundreds of times by people wanting to know how to prepare for the end of life in both practical and spiritual matters Countless others have turned to her for guidance on how to handle the death of a loved one From making a will and planning a memorial service to finding peace in the toughest circumstances Approaching the End of Life offers practical and spiritual guidance to anyone wrestling with the end of a life With sensitivity and humor Rev Schaper helps readers face aging and mortality with freedom rather than fear She encourages readers to find a spiritual home of some kind even if it is far from the doors of a church and offers helpful suggestions on memorials and funeral services that will be well suited to the departed while serving the loved ones in their grief and celebration The book also includes practical resources such as a service planning checklist a template for a funeral or memorial service and more Pro Ecclesia Vol 24-N2 Joseph Mangina, Associate Professor of Theology & Director of Advanced Degree Studies, Wycliffe College, Toronto, Pro Ecclesia, 2015-05-08 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Teaching for a Multifaith World Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that s who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let s take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side A Practical Guide to Palliative Care Jerry L. Old, Daniel Swagerty, 2007 Designed for easy use at the bedside this manual contains the practical information health care professionals need to provide optimal end of life care The book presents a multidimensional holistic approach to assessment and management of the physical psychological social and spiritual needs of the patient and family Topics covered include cultural diversity in end of life care communicating with patients and families predicting life expectancy terminal care non pain symptom management pain control palliative interventions pediatric palliative care record keeping and ethics The succinct user friendly presentation features bullet points and numerous quick reference tables Each chapter includes an

In a Nutshell summary of key points Pro Ecclesia Vol 24-N4 Joseph Mangina, Associate Professor of Theology & Director of Advanced Degree Studies, Wycliffe College, Toronto, Pro Ecclesia, 2015-11-19 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Pro Ecclesia Vol 24-N3 Joseph Mangina, Associate Professor of Theology & Director of Advanced Degree Studies, Wycliffe College, Toronto, Pro Ecclesia, 2015-08-21 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Palliative Care: A Practical Guide for the Health Professional Kathryn Boog, Claire Tester, 2007-10-23 This book encourages health professionals to reconceptualise their practice in the light of the fact that their patients are deteriorating and dying supporting them in their dichotomous role which involves affirming that person's life whilst acknowledging that that life is ending Professionals are encouraged to think laterally to be creative in their use of their core skills and to use their life skills and experience to change the focus of their interventions By making these changes those involved with caring for the dying will be able to address issues related to burnout and feeling de-skilled The authors share their considerable experience with the reader what works for both patient and carer professional when working in this field By providing workable solutions they empower those in disempowering situations such as when working with terminally ill children and adults The book is truly holistic and client centred in its approach upholding the philosophy of palliative care Aimed at all who interact with children and adults who have a life limiting condition or who are dying Offers practical examples of approaches to dilemmas and emotional issues commonly face by those working in palliative care Encourages professionals to think laterally to be creative in their use of core skills and to use their life skills and experience to change the focus of their interventions Moves the emphasis away from the medical model to the emotional and spiritual influences on quality of life Offers clear workable guidelines and demonstrates practical solutions based on proven theory and experience to problems encountered on a day to day basis by patients and those coming into contact with them A Cognitive-Behavioral Approach to the Beginning of the End of Life, Minding the Body Jason M. Satterfield, 2008-02-25 Individuals with serious and incurable illnesses often require care that goes beyond the body As they face the challenges of living with and eventually dying from their conditions they may need to acquire new skills to cope and increase their quality of life Even those at the beginning of the end of life can take an active role in their treatment This skill based program emphasizes flexibility and should be tailored to individual clients The first module introduces stress management techniques including cognitive restructuring relaxation and problem focused and emotion focused coping The second module targets mood management with sessions on depression anxiety and anger Social support is addressed in the third module where clients learn communication and conflict resolution skills Special attention is paid to supporting caregivers and working with medical providers The fourth module focuses on quality of life and covers symptom management goal setting positive psychology and spiritual issues An adaptation chapter details how to run the program as a group and discusses other possible formats Incorporating a wide variety of CBT techniques this program can benefit patients suffering from a range of chronic and terminal diseases The corresponding workbook helps clients personalize the content of sessions and practice new skills The facilitator guide is invaluable to any mental health professional working in a medical or other palliative care setting TreatmentsThatWork™ represents the gold standard of behavioral healthcare interventions All programs have been rigorously tested in clinical trials and are backed by years of research A prestigious scientific advisory board led by series Editor In Chief David H Barlow reviews and evaluates each intervention to ensure that it meets the highest standard of evidence so you can be confident that you are using the most effective treatment available to date Our books are reliable and effective and make it easy for you to provide your clients with the best care available Our corresponding workbooks contain psychoeducational information forms and worksheets and homework assignments to keep clients engaged and motivated A companion website www.oup.com/us/ttw offers downloadable clinical tools and helpful resources Continuing Education CE Credits are now available on select titles in collaboration with PsychoEducational Resources Inc PER
