Hamlet, Robin R. Means Coleman, 2009 Shelton Jackson Spike Lee is one of the most culturally influential and provocative film directors of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Bringing together seminal writings from classic scholarship to new research this book focuses on this revolutionary film auteur and cultural provocateur to explore contemporary questions around issues of race politics sexuality gender roles filmmaking commercialism celebrity and the role of media in public discourse Situating Lee as an important contributor to a variety of American discourses the book highlights his commitment to exploring issues of relevance to the Black community His work demands that his audiences take inventory of his and their understandings of the complexities of race relations the often deleterious influence of media messages the long term legacy of racism the liberating effects of sexual freedom the controversies that arise from colorism the separatist nature of classism and the cultural contributions and triumphs of historical figures This book seeks to stimulate continued debate by examining the complexities in Lee's various sociopolitical claims and their ideological impacts Women in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium Ya-chen Chen, 2012-01-01 Women and Gender in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium by Ya-chen Chen is an excavation of underexposed gender issues focusing mainly on contradictory and troubled feminism in the film narratives In the cinematic world of martial arts films one can easily find representations of women of Ancient China released from the constraints of patriarchal social order to revel in a dreamlike space of their own They can develop themselves protect themselves and even defeat or conquer men This world not only frees women from the convention of foot binding but it also unbinds them in terms of education critical thinking talent ambition opportunities to socialize with different men and the freedom or right to both choose their spouse and decide their own fate Chen calls this phenomenon Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The liberation is never sustaining or complete however Chen reveals the presence of a glass ceiling marking the maximal exercise of feminism and women's rights which the patriarchal order is willing to accept. As such, these films are not to be seen as celebrations of feminist liberation but as enunciations of the patriarchal authority that suffuses Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism. The film narratives under examination include Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon directed by Ang Lee, Hero, Zhang Yimou's House of the Flying Daggers, Zhang Yimou's Seven Swords, Tsui Hark's The Promise, Chen Kaige's The Banquet, Feng Xiaogang's Curse of the Golden Flower, Zhang Yimou's Chen, also touches upon the plots of two of the earliest award-winning Chinese martial arts films A Touch of Zen and Legend of the Mountain, both directed by King Hu.

From Eileen Chang to Ang Lee Peng Hsiao-yen, Whitney Crothers Dilley, 2014-01-10. In 2007, Ang Lee made an espionage thriller based on the short story Lust Caution by Eileen Chang, China's most famous female author of the twentieth century. The release of the film became a trigger for heated debates on issues of national identity and political loyalty and brought unexpectedly harsh criticism from China where Ang Lee was labelled a traitor in scathing internet critiques whilst the film's leading actress Tang Wei was banned from appearing on screen for two years. This book analyses Ang Lee's art of film adaptation through the lens of modern literary and film theory as well as featuring detailed readings and analyses of different dialogues and scenes, directorial and authorial decisions and intentions while at the same time confronting the intense political debates resulting from the film's subject matter. The theories of Freud, Lacan, Deleuze, Bataille and others are used to identify and clarify issues raised by the film related to gender, sexuality, eroticism, power, manipulation and betrayal. The themes of lust and caution are dealt with in conjunction with the controversial issues of contemporary political consciousness concerning patriotism and the Sino-Japanese War, complicated by divided historical experiences and cross-Taiwan Strait relationships. The contributors to this volume cover translation and adaptation, loyalty and betrayal, collaboration and manipulation, playing roles and performativity whilst at the same time intertwining these with issues of national identity, political loyalty, collective memory and gender. As such, the book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese and Asian cinema and literature as well as those interested in modern Chinese history and cultural studies.

In The Scene: Ang Lee Ellen Cheshire, 2021-05-04 Ang Lee came to the fore in the 1990s as one of the second wave of Taiwanese directors After studying at New York University Lee returned to Taiwan where over the next three consecutive years he directed three comedy dramas focusing on aspects of the East vs West culture and its impact on the family Pushing Hands The Wedding Banquet Eat Drink Man Woman Considering Lee's background it is surprising that he should be approached to direct the most British of novels Jane Austen's Sense And Sensibility It was a tremendous critical and commercial success Since then Lee's projects have been both eclectic and striking he took on the American suburbs of the 1970s and the war torn American South of the 1860s in The Ice Storm and Ride With The Devil But it was his triumphant return to the East with Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon which has transformed him into an internationally successful director He followed this with his somewhat flawed foray into the Marvel Universe with Hulk His heartbreaking adaptation of Annie Proulx's short story Brokeback Mountain brought him international critical and commercial success But forever the genre and language hopping director Lee's next films were much smaller in scale and reach Lust Caution a Chinese erotic espionage thriller and Taking Woodstock American comedy drama His most recent film was an adaptation of Yann Martel's The Life of Pi pushed the boundaries of CGI animation and showed how a director with great visual flair could enhance a film with 3D His continual desire for embracing new technology divided critics and audiences for Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk an adaptation of Ben Fountain's 2012 Iraq war set novel and The Gemini Man with Will Smith ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ellen Cheshire has a BA Hons in Film and English and a MA in Gothic Studies and has taught Film at Undergraduate and A Level She has published books on Bio Pics Audrey Hepburn and The Coen Brothers and contributed chapters to books on James Bond Charlie Chaplin Global Film making Film Form Fantasy Films and War Movies She is also one of a team of four writers for the new A Level WJEC Film Text Book published in 2018 For us she has written In the Scene Jane Campion and In the Scene Ang Lee and contributed to Silent Women Pioneers of Cinema eds Melody Bridges and Cheryl Robson voted best book on Silent Film 2016 and Counterculture UK a celebration eds Rebecca Gillieron and Cheryl Robson With a foreword by Professor James Wicks James Wicks Ph D writes about pop culture He is the author of two books Transnational Representations The State of Taiwan Cinema in the 1960s and 1970s Hong Kong University Press 2014 and An Annotated
