Observations Upon the Natural History of Epidemic Diarrhoea (Classic Reprint) O. H. Peters, 2018-02-06 Excerpt from Observations Upon the Natural History of Epidemic Diarrhoea The causative agencies from which springs the plentiful harvest of child mortality in large cities may be conceived as a felted mass of rootlets almost inextricably intertwined Those of poverty bad housing bad feeding and neglect may be severally recognized but the extent of their interrelations with actual respiratory and alimentary disease those to which the greater part of the mortality is referred can be traced only with difficulty It is the object Of this work to aid In the labour of cutting away the matrix and entangling fibres and to lay bare the hidden ramifications of at least one important causative agency epidemic diarrhoea This affection if we accept provisionally the more novel and generally favoured conception As to its nature is revealed as something very like an ordinary infectious disease and one which permeates all classes while the excessive mortality it gathers round itself in urban centres must be regarded as something superadded owing to the vicious circle it forms with those baneful conditions of slum life mentioned above On the other hand its peculiarly intimate association with the circumstances of domestic life from the continual faecal pollution of the interior of the household by infants and others tends to make it more so than other affections of the kind peculiarly a class disease and an especial scourge of dirty neighbourhoods Dirty towns may however be saved from excessive mortality by a high percentage of breast feeding A notable point in the interesting comparison that can be drawn between diarrhoea and typhoid fever is that in accordance with their peculiarly opposite age incidence curves the marked and habitual depositing of infectious excreta within the household in the former disease may make the question of water closet versus conservancy pan a matter of far less importance than in the latter About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

On Some Antiquities in the Neighbourhood of Dunecht House Aberdeenshire (Classic Reprint) George Forrest Browne, 2018-03-07 Excerpt from On Some Antiquities in the Neighbourhood of Dunecht House Aberdeenshire It was known to the archaeologist that there were ogam inscriptions in the district two Of them being among the most important in Caledonia and that within an easy motor drive there was a minuscule inscription of six lines Of which no satisfactory explanation had been given This inscription they had visited in a previous year Further the quick eye Of the hostess of Dunecht had caught sight of some curious sculptures on a stone by the road side on the way to the minuscule inscription and other like stones in the neighbourhood had been shewn in Stuart s two volumes of Sculptural Stones of Scotland The suggestion was then made that for the sake of visitors at Dunecht a sort Of guide book should be prepared giving some simple description of the several Objects and their meaning and uses About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A Book of Cambridge Verse (Classic Reprint)
Ernest Edward Kellett, 2018-02-02 Excerpt from A Book of Cambridge Verse Nevertheless after all deductions have been made how much true poetry is yet left He must be hard to please who cannot find intense enjoyment in the Eclogues of Phineas Fletcher in Cowley s epitaph on Harvey in the Miltonic stanzas of Gray s Installation Ode in a score of other pieces grave quaint or classical in their allusive ness of phrasing Especially grateful must we be to the number of poets of exquisite feeling and easy mastery of form who during the last fifty or sixty years have enriched the language with delicate and elegant verse from which it has been only too difficult to choose because its quantity is so great and its merit so even Of this we trust we have given a tolerably adequate selection but it would have been easy to multiply it fourfold About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Secret of Progress (Classic Reprint) W. Cunningham, 2016-10-16 Excerpt from The Secret of Progress Buckle1 regarded it as clear that militarism and high intellectual development were not compatible till recently many people were prepared to believe that warfare was alien to the interest of civilised peoples and could only occur among half civilised or backward races But this war has shown that these hopes were vain and that the last result of civilisation was not to render war impossible but to give the means of carrying it out on a vastly extended scale The increase of knowledge and of power over nature and the sense of the benefits of intercourse and inter communication have not sufficed to give us any immunity from war About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve

Prentice-Hall Tax Service for 1919 (Classic Reprint) Prentice-Hall Inc,Prentice-Hall, inc,1919 Excerpt from Prentice Hall Tax Service for 1919 This allowance is not based upon the difference between the actual war cost of such facilities and what they would have cost at pre war prices Obviously the taxpayer is not entitled to recover or extinguish through amortization more than the difference between the war cost of such property and what he can sell the property for after the war or if he continues to need and use it in his business what it would have cost him after the war As the rule is expressed in Article 183 of the Regulations The total amount to be extinguished by amortization in general is the excess of the unextinguished or unrecovered cost of the property over its maximum value either for sale or for use as part of the plant or equipment of a going business under stable post war Conditions About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Occasional and Immemorial Days (Classic Reprint) Andrew Kennedy Hutchison Boyd,2018-01-19 Excerpt from Occasional and Immemorial Days I feel quite sure that it began to press itself upon us when we were little boys not taking it in that we should ever grow old listening to our Fathers prayers in church Sunday by Sunday How singularly that imagery from the far East has caught on and naturalised itself here in what was once the far West how homely it has grown how perfectly understandable how charged with a pathos in which there live the Sundays and services of our childhood all that was dear about them and all that was wearisome or unworthy eliminated and utterly forgot Thomas a Kempis About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Victorian Cultures of Liminality Amina Alyal, Susan Anderson, 2018-07-27 This volume is unique in its focus on cross fertilisation in the arts on very specific exploration of liminal spaces and on the representation of marginal figures in writing The essays here grew out of the Borders and Margins colloquium held at Leeds Trinity University UK in April 2010 which was the fourth in a series of colloquia This collection moreover contributes to a growing area of scholarship which explores Anglo French interactions and exchanges In choosing the term liminality the editors are aware of its nuanced implications allowing suggestions both of the initial and the transitional The contributors here are academics from the fields of literature history and art history and their essays cover art history literature cultural history the arts and faith Altogether this collection evokes a sense of temporal shift in that changes in values and focus are uncovered as the nineteenth century progresses Some have an ekphrastic quality showing how pictures can have a narrative and how pictures as well as texts can be encoded with moral and social interpretations Close scrutiny is applied to different kinds of texts fiction and non fiction and the purposes for which they were produced This book will appeal to scholars and academics interested in a wide range of cross categorisational transactions in nineteenth century Britain It will be of interest to scholars of Victorian culture and English nineteenth century literature and art particularly in terms of genre as well as to academics interested in the development of social personal and national identities

Caravan Days (Classic Reprint) Bertram Smith, 2015-08-04 Excerpt from Caravan Days Shall we make a journey There s a highway that I know In a country where the heather meets the sky Where the hillsides are ablaze with the bracken s autumn glow Shall we make a journey You and I There s a little whispering burn there running peaty from the hill And the shepherd s rich in poultry and in kye So you may have poached eggs and batter pudding if you will Shall we make a journey You and I You will make the beds Dear and I shall make the tea And we ll hang our wee bit washing out to dry And we ll black our boots for Sunday though there s no one there to see Shall we make a journey You and I And though we may turn homeward when this little journey s done There s a gey long road before us Dear forbye So take my hand my Comrade and we two shall be as one Shall we make a journey You and I About the Publisher Forgotten
