Child Activist Literature at the Turn of the 2020s Niall C. Nance-Carroll, 2024-10-29 Child Activist Literature at the Turn of the 2020s From Kids You Read About to Kids You Read looks at how today's child activists are not just followers in their forekids footsteps but blazers of new pathways employing sophisticated rhetorical strategies that invert and subvert conventional thinking on the roles of children in politics These young activists situate their work within a dense web of texts the ones they read the ones they write and the ones that they expect adults to deploy to dismiss them Nance Carroll analyzes texts authored by child activists alongside narratives of youth activism in literature and media and the stories activists tell about themselves and their work exploring issues of influence inspiration and authorship in child activist literature as a growing body of work challenges not just adults assumptions about children and politics but also some fundamental disciplinary tenets of children's and young adult literature

Reassessing the Social Studies Curriculum Wayne Journell, 2016-05-03 The terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 dramatically changed many aspects of American society and the ramifications of that horrific event are still impacting the domestic and foreign policies of the United States Yet fifteen years after 9 11 an event that was predicted to change the scope of public education in the United States we find that the social studies curriculum remains virtually the same as before the attacks For a discipline charged with developing informed citizens prepared to enter a global economy such curricular stagnation makes little sense This book which contains chapters from many leading scholars within the field of social studies education both assesses the ways in which the social studies curriculum has failed to live up to the promises of progressive citizenship education made in the wake of the attacks and offers practical advice for teachers who wish to encourage a critical understanding of the post 9 11 global society in which their students live
