Missional Leadership Nelus Niemandt, 2019-12-12 The purpose and aim of this book is to develop an appropriate leadership model for missional churches This implies a positioning of this book within the broader theology of mission and a consensus on the theology of the Missio Dei originating at the 1952 conference of the International Missionary Council in Willingen Germany In this approach to the theology of mission mission is understood as the work of the Trinitarian God and the church is privileged to participate in God s mission It is against this background that the growing consensus on missional ecclesiology challenges leadership models developed for a different time and a different kind of church with less or no emphasis on the missional character of the church The aim is to reflect theologically on the role of leadership in the missional church What kind of ideas about power authority and leadership are appropriate for a missional church New missional challenges demand new ideas about missional leadership Church organisation and leadership reflects a theological position there is a strong relation between ecclesiology and church organisation The nature of the church provides the framework to understand the character of the church What the church is determines what the church does The church organises what it does and agrees on rules that regulate ministries and organisation Issues such as the way the church organises and governs what it does and thus church leadership need to be answered against this background and understanding Church polity and organisation as well as leadership must reflect the identity calling life and order of the church This book therefore addresses life in the Trinity participation in the Missio Dei and contours of the missional church as the point of entry to develop leadership insights It contributes towards the development of an appropriate model of leadership for missional churches because although recent developments in the theology of mission comprehensively addressed the area of missional ecclesiology there is a gap in the development of a leadership model based on the concept of authority in the missional church

Contemporary Mission Theology Gallagher, Rogert L., Hertig, Paul, 2017-02-16 A resource for the classroom that specifically addresses the missiological issues of the twenty-first century this collection in honor of Charles E Van Engen features contributions from practically all the leading lights of the

missiology world Scholars including Stephen Bevans Roger Schroeder van Thanh Nguyen Mary Motte Gerald Anderson Scott Sunquist and many others offer their insights and reflections focusing on the impact of cultural and demographic changes on the nature and purpose of Christian mission Publisher Youth Ministry Malan Nel, 2018-12-01 This book aims at contributing to the scientific and academic discourse as regards to the what and why of youth ministry Too often youth ministry has been approached from a mainly practical point of view almost asking how we keep young people off the streets Its methodology has often not included the theological and theoretical presuppositions that lie behind this ministry Previous scientific reflection has been determined by a one dimensional and almost exclusive point of view In comparison with existing literature this book does not focus so much on the how of youth ministry It innovates a different approach The book challenges the existing exclusive approach and develops an inclusive congregational and missional understanding of and approach to youth ministry From a particular perspective on the understanding the main objectives of Practical Theology the author endorses the so called movement of what is supposed to be going on He adds the outcome of an empirical round table discussion with some 16 leaders in this field on the descriptive and interpretive movements within the subject field what is going on and why is it going on The book will form the standard for any new research with regard to youth ministry The book s contribution lies on the level of sound theological reasoning and argumentation supported by many scholars for an inclusive congregational understanding of ministry as an integral part of every congregation being missional in being and doing Youth children adolescents and emerging adults are just as integral a part of every congregation within which they live and serve

Missional Church Daniel L. Guder, 1998-02-09 What would a theology of the Church look like that took seriously the fact that North America is now itself a mission field This question lies at the foundation of this volume written by an ecumenical team of six noted missiologists Lois Barrett Inagrace T Dietterich Darrell L Guder George R Hunsberger Alan J Roxburgh and Craig Van Gelder The result of a three year research project undertaken by The Gospel and Our Culture Network this book issues a firm challenge for the church to recover its missional call right here in North America while also offering the tools to help it do so The authors examine North America s secular culture and the church s loss of dominance in today s society They then present a biblically based theology that takes seriously the church s missional vocation and draw out the consequences of this theology for the structure and institutions of the church

The Continuing Conversion of the Church Darrell L. Guder, 2000-03-20 Western society is now a very different very difficult mission field In such a situation the mission of evangelism cannot succeed with an attitude of business as usual This volume builds a theology of evangelism that has its focus on the church itself Darrell Guder shows that the church s missionary calling requires that the theology and practice of evangelism be fundamentally rethought and redirected focused on the continuing evangelization of the church so that it can carry out its witness faithfully in today s world In Part 1 Guder explores how under the influence of reductionism and individualism the church has historically moved away from a biblical theology of evangelism Part 2 presents contemporary challenges to the church's evangelical ministry especially those challenges that illustrate the church's need for continuing conversion Part 3 discusses what a truly missional theology would mean for the church including sweeping changes in its institutional structures and practices Written for teachers church leaders and students of evangelism this volume is vital reading for everyone engaged in mission work Hope and Community Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2017-10-23 The culmination of Karkkainen's multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli-Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five-volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book Karkkainen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church's missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities The Evangelizing Church Richard H. Bliese, Craig Van Gelder, The Evangelizing Church moves from theory to practice as it relates the theology of evangelism to the life of congregations that are seeking to proclaim the gospel in the emerging postmodern context It provides congregations with perspectives on how to utilize this theology in shaping the practice of evangelism within their church life God at Work in the World Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2022-06-14 A leading scholar offers an up-to-date articulation of the theological grounding of the missionary endeavor Lalsangkima Kima Pachuau argues that theology of mission deals with God's work in and for the world which is centered on salvation in Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit Pachuau brings a global perspective to mission theology explains how theology of mission is related to theology as a discipline and recognizes recent critiques of missions offering a compelling response rooted in the very nature of God
