Government Accountability Office, 2005 Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis, 2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan's Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan's story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief

Textbook Selection Trends Harrison Stewart, AI, 2025-04-07 Textbook Selection Trends explores the complex world of law school textbook adoption a critical aspect of legal education impacting both students and faculty The book delves into how law professors choose course materials the history and importance of casebooks and the economic factors driving textbook pricing One key insight is the significant influence of publisher strategies on textbook costs often driven by market forces such as copyright law rather than purely pedagogical considerations Another intriguing aspect is the evolution of casebooks from late 19th century origins to their contemporary form shaping legal reasoning skills This book uniquely examines the legal textbook market drawing on interviews data analysis and legal scholarship It investigates the criteria driving faculty textbook adoption including case selection and publisher influence and scrutinizes the economics of legal textbook publishing including pricing strategies Exploring topics like textbook affordability and open educational resources the book progresses from describing textbook selection criteria through an examination of the publishing industry to an analysis of controversies and potential solutions Succeeding as an International Student in the United States and Canada Charles

Lipson, 2010-02-15 Each year 700 000 students from around the world come to the United States and Canada to study For many the experience is as challenging as it is exciting Far from home they must adapt to a new culture new university system and in many cases a new language The process can be overwhelming but as Charles Lipson's Succeeding as an International Student in the United States and Canada assures us it doesn't have to be Succeeding is designed to help students navigate the myriad issues they will encounter from picking a program to landing a campus job Based on Lipson's work with international students as well as extensive interviews with faculty and advisers Succeeding includes practical suggestions for learning English participating in class and meeting with instructors In addition it explains the rules of academic honesty as they are understood in U S and Canadian universities Life beyond the classroom is also covered with handy sections on living on or off campus obtaining a driver's license setting up a bank account and more The comprehensive glossary addresses both academic terms and phrases heard while shopping or visiting a doctor There is even a chapter on the academic calendar and holidays in the United States and Canada Coming to a new country to study should be an exciting venture not a baffling ordeal Now with this trustworthy resource international students have all the practical information they need to succeed in and out of the classroom A Book Sale How-To Guide Pat Ditzler, JoAnn Dumas, 2012-02-17 The authors provide a tested and successful formula for making money for local libraries in a practical and fun way a library book sale The Insiders
