Crabtree, 2017-08-31 OK so you've decided you are going to undertake an Ironman You have watched a couple a motivational videos on YouTube you have logged onto the site entered your details paid your fee told everybody you know about it on Facebook and Twitter and have undertaken a sponsorship drive for the charity of your choice Life is good and you feel good about it At some point the enormity of what you have signed up for will hit you It could be when you wake up in the middle of the night for a pee when you start to read an article on the number of hours the Pros put into training on a weekly basis or when you attempt your first swim in the pool and struggle to complete ten lengths Do not panic As daunting as it feels at this moment in time this is an achievable life changing challenge which will push you to your limits If you put the right training and preparation in you will stand or float at the start line knowing that this is going to be one of the most amazing days of your life The following Chapters will take you through planning executing and recovering in the weeks and months up to your Ironman event The Chapters are aimed to be succinct and to the point in topics which are notoriously full of differing opinions and supporting scientific proof The Chapters are based upon my findings during my journey to completing the four Ironman events that I have to date with a lot of reading picking peoples brains and trial and error Completing an Ironman is tough and should be given the respect that it deserves in the training and preparation that is made but caution should be taken in not giving the event too much respect in that it becomes crippling in your pursuit of glory Start to Finish Paul Huddle,Roch Frey,T. can finish their first half distance triathlon Project Ironman Todd Pringle, 2016-01-14 I have written this book over the course of the last 5 years leveraging the contents as I coach and train for Ironman distance races There seemed to be a gap to help assist self coached athletes to pull together the pieces helping them achieve their personal goals in endurance sports Most books I have read are excellent for helping to define training plans use of training technologies sprinkled with a few inspirational stories of how people overcame their challenges to achieve their triathlon goals The challenge for some of us myself included is that technology and the details of the workouts are only a piece of the puzzle that help us to achieve our goals They are the needed evils of training for our sport but what seemed to be missing was a method to pull the information together in a manner that wasn't completely overwhelming My approach was developed to ensure I had triathlon work life balance and not necessarily in that order in an easy to understand methodology Most of us hold down full time jobs and have kids or other family activities at the very least I have a unique background for this journey with you I am veteran of many marathons and all Triathlon length races including multiple Ironman's I am an IRONMAN CERTIFIED Coach I am also a seasoned project manager since the early 90's and have managed numerous multimillion dollar complex projects The discipline instilled by project management with budget scope schedule and quality constraints naturally lent itself to a logical and ordered approach for tackling the Ironman goals I took my simple approach that I apply to large projects and applied it for endurance sports Fast-Track Triathlete Matt Dixon, 2017-10-18 Lays out all the elements needed to succeed and excel at triathlon without compromising the other important things in your life like family friends and sleep In Fast Track Triathlete elite triathlon coach Matt Dixon offers his plan of attack for high performance in long course triathlon without sacrificing work or life Developed for busy professionals with demanding schedules the Fast Track Triathlete program makes your PR possible in Ironman Ironman 70.3 Rev3 and Challenge triathlon in about 10 hours a week Training for long course triathlons once demanded 15-20 hours each week on top of work family travel and other time commitments For many preparing for long distance triathlon is more challenging than the race itself Fast Track Triathlete opens the door to your best performance in full and half distance triathlons in half the traditional training time Dixon's laser focused effective approach to workouts recovery strength and mobility and nutrition means you can prepare for triathlon's greatest challenges in just 7-10 hours per week for half distance and 10-12 hours per week for full distance Fast Track Triathlete includes Dixon's complete guide to creating a successful sport and life performance recipe How to plan out your triathlon training Scaling workouts for time and fatigue Training and racing during travel Executing your swim bike run and transitions plan on race day 10 week off season training program with key workouts 14 week pre season training program with key workouts 14 week comprehensive race prep full and half training plans with fully integrated strength and conditioning Dixon's first book The Well Built Triathlete revealed his four tiered approach to success in all triathlon race distances Fast Track Triathlete turbocharges Dixon's well built program so even the busiest athletes can achieve their long distance triathlon dreams without sacrificing so much to achieve them What other athletes are saying about FAST TRACK TRIATHLETE I went from marathons and sprint tris straight to a full Ironman in 1 year while overcoming an injury with this plan The importance of sleep rest quality vs quantity endurance AND strength nutrition etc this book shares such a realistic and balanced approach to training and helped me train for and complete my first Ironman 140.6 race as a working mother of 3 small children and a 13:32 finish time Breath of fresh air read on triathlon training planning life balance in context of performance improvement Triathlete Magazine's Guide to Finishing Your First Triathlon T.
