Berry, 2018-01-30 Library of America inaugurates its edition of the complete fiction of one of America's most beloved living writers. For more than fifty years in eight novels and forty-two short stories Wendell Berry b. 1934 has created an indelible portrait of rural America through the lens of Port William, Kentucky, one of the most fully imagined places in American literature. Taken together, these novels and stories form a masterwork of American prose: straightforward, spare, and lyrical. Now for the first time in an edition prepared in consultation with the author, Library of America is presenting the complete story of Port William in the order of narrative chronology. This first volume, which spans from the Civil War to World War II, gathers the novels Nathan Coulter (1960, revised 1985), A Place on Earth (1967, revised 1983), A World Lost (1996), and Andy Catlett's Early Travels (2006), along with twenty-three short stories, among them such favorites as Watch With Me, Thicker than Liquor, and A Desirable Woman. It also features a newly researched chronology of Berry's life and career, a map, and a Port William Membership family tree and helpful notes. LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing. The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date, authoritative editions that average 1,000 pages in length, feature cloth covers, sewn bindings, and ribbon markers, and are printed on premium acid-free paper that will last for centuries. Wendell Berry Jason Peters, 2010-06-11 A portrait of one of America's most profound and honest thinkers, this book combines biographical sketches, personal accounts, literary criticism, and social commentary to illuminate Berry as he is: a complex man of place and community with a depth of domestic, intellectual, filial, and fraternal attributes.

Marce Catlett: The Force of a Story Wendell Berry, 2025-10-07 In the newest novel in the Port William series, Wendell Berry's beloved protagonist Andy Catlett tells the inspiring story of his grandfather Marce Catlett to his own children and grandchildren and gives them a key to their place on the questionably settled land they all love. Andy Catlett's story begins as his grandfather Marce Catlett rises in the dark to travel from his farm by horseback and train to Louisville for the auction of his 1906 tobacco crop. The price paid for each year's crop has been depressed to virtually nothing by the power of a single buyer, James B. Duke. This year is especially grim since the price offered to each grower is less than the expense of bringing the crop to market. A year's labor is lost. Marce returns to his family defeated, defiant, and determined to grow another crop. Many of his fellow farmers at first seem to lack the resiliency and resourcefulness to continue. Only with the cooperation of other growers can a way be found that protects these farmers and keeps their rural families vital and in place. The power and depth of this story and of the many stories within the history of the Port William Membership resonate with love, kindness, and the held memory of family and community. In Marce Catlett: The Force of a Story, celebrated author Wendell Berry brings to life a tale that devoted readers of the series will cherish. This moving novel is a testament to the goodwill that lives within the human heart and a stirring reminder that standing up for what we believe in is always a cause worth fighting for

Virtues of Renewal Jeffrey Bilbro, 2018-12-14 For over fifty years Wendell Berry has argued that our most pressing ecological and cultural need is a renewed formal intelligence a mode of thinking and acting that fosters the health of the earth and its beings Yet the present industrial economy prioritizes a technical self centered way of relating to the world that often demands and rewards busyness over thoughtful observation independence over relationships and replacing over repairing Such a system is both unsustainable and results in destructive far reaching consequences for our society and land In Virtues of Renewal Wendell Berry's Sustainable Forms Jeffrey Bilbro combines textual analysis and cultural criticism to explain how Berry's literary forms encourage readers to practice virtues of renewal While the written word alone cannot enact change Bilbro asserts that Berry's poetry essays and fiction can inspire people to as Berry writes practice resurrection Bilbro examines the distinct yet symbiotic features of these three genres demonstrating the importance of the humanities in supporting tenable economies He uses Berry's pieces to suggest the need for more robust language for discussing conservation ecology and the natural and regenerative process of death Bilbro additionally translates Berry's literature to a wider audience putting him in conversation with philosophers and theologians such as Ivan Illich Willie Jennings Charles Taylor and Augustine The lessons that Berry and his work have to offer are not only for those interested in cultivating the land but also for those who cultivate their communities and live mindfully In short these lessons are pertinent to all who are willing to make an effort to live the examined life Such formative work is not dramatic or quick but it can foster the deep and lasting transformation necessary to develop a more sustainable culture and economy

The Life of the Mind James V. Schall, 2023-05-02. In The Life of the Mind Georgetown University's James V. Schall takes up the task of reminding us that as human beings we naturally take a special delight and pleasure in simply knowing. Because we have not only bodies but also minds we are built to know what is. In this volume Schall, author of On the Unseriousness of Human Affairs among many other volumes of philosophical and political reflection, discusses the various ways of approaching the delight of thinking and the way that this delight begins in seeing and hearing and even in making and walking. We must be attentive to and cultivate the needs of the mind, argues Schall, for it is through our intellect that all that is not ourselves is finally returned to us, allowing us to live in the light of truth.
