DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN THE International Energy Sector: AN OVERVIEW

Alternative Dispute Resolution In The Energy Sector:

Alternative Dispute Resolution in the Energy Sector Association for International Arbitration, 2009 In a world held in the grip of economic downfall with increasing scarcity of energy supplies plummeting oil prices rising intra state energy transit protectionist natural resources policies and growing environmental concerns time and cost are not to be underestimated factors in the choice of a suiting dispute resolution method This book covers the hot topics related to the Energy Charter Treaty not only from a theoretical point of view but also from practical experiences in France the UK and Belgium Moreover this publication is original in that it addresses the issue of soft law in investment arbitration and includes a fictional case elaborating on the influence of different interest groups in energy disputes Alternative Dispute Resolution in Energy Industries Mustafa Oğuz Tuna, 2022-04-03 The disputes that arise between host states and investors in the energy sector put a high number of valuable and vital projects in the countries at risk Investment treaty arbitration mechanisms as the traditional remedy have provided a solution to these problems for decades However as the number of disputes increases the sufficiency of arbitration in responding to disputes became questionable in addition to the long lasting and costly cases Accordingly ADR mechanisms outside the arbitration cannon have triggered growing interest among practitioners Despite the attraction and the apparent benefits of ADR such as being cheaper faster and with better outcomes compared to arbitration there are also hurdles in front that hinder the application of ADR This has lead to the underuse of ADR in appropriate contexts This study has been conducted to research the gap for the applicability of the ADR methods for investment disputes in the energy sector with the doctrinal analysis of the existing literature either promoting or opposing ADR Its findings provide guidance for alternative dispute resolution practitioners on when to use ADR how to use ADR and on what disputes ADR to be used to resolve conflicts in International Energy Investment Governing Law and Dispute Resolution in the Oil and Gas Industry Pereira, Eduardo G., Timonen, Tuuli, Aleynikova, Elina, 2022-08-23 The oil and gas industry s wide international exposure and constantly changing landscape leave it particularly vulnerable to disputes As this practical book demonstrates the risks associated with disputes can be mitigated by parties utilising governing law and dispute resolution clauses in contractual agreements within the sector Examining a global range of jurisdictions the book offers clear guidance on the most appropriate choice of law and choice of dispute resolution forum for oil and gas contracts analysing the key issues and defining the legal contours involved Energy Transition of the Electricity Sectors in the European Union and Japan Maciej M. Sokołowski, 2022-07-08 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the energy policies in the European Union and Japan in terms of electricity markets and climate action including energy efficiency renewable energy sources and the reduction of emissions The book evaluates and compares the regulatory frameworks for achieving energy transitions by answering a number of questions focused on the essence and range of the regulatory models used by leading global economies which herald carbon neutrality by 2050 The book provides a useful framework that systematises Japanese and European energy policies and legislation including electricity related policies plans and programmes Discussing these issues in relation to the European and Japanese 2050 energy transition the author delves into the four pillars of the transition market reform reduction of emissions promotion of renewables and enhancing energy efficiency Each chapter demonstrates the timing of the actions undertaken both in Europe and Japan analyses the character of the conducted actions evaluates the stakeholders of the realised agenda and presents the technologies involved in the energy transition

Mediation in the Construction Industry Penny Brooker,Suzanne Wilkinson,2010-07-19 The application of construction dispute procedures has changed dramatically in the last decade. This has resulted in an increased use of Alternative Dispute Resolution in many countries and mediation in particular. Construction is one of the major industries using mediation in the UK and in many other countries such as the US, China, Australia and New Zealand. This expansion in mediation has been helped by encouragement from governments although it takes diverse forms in different legal jurisdictions for example court rules to encourage this use as in the US and UK the courts own mediation schemes or programmes or legislation backed programmes or the use of industry driven mediation clauses in standard form contracts. These developments have taken place extremely rapidly. They represent significant changes to the legal environment within which the international construction industry conducts its business but to date there has been little research on their impact. All these initiatives have inevitably led to a developing legal jurisprudence concerned with the validity of contract clauses or with providing statutory interpretation of the rules requiring or governing practice. This has important consequences for the construction industry because legal uncertainty increases the likelihood of dispute which is not only costly for the disputants but can be damaging to national and global economies. This book identifies the emerging international practices within construction mediation and seeks solutions to the many legal and commercial challenges which they pose. It presents an international collection of reviews by experts and allows a comparative commentary on the practice of construction mediation and the legal challenges facing its development.

The Return of the Home State to Investor-State Disputes

Rodrigo Polanco, Rodrigo Polanco Lazo, 2019-01-10. This book examines the role of home states to investment disputes and questions whether it represents a return to diplomatic protection.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Annual Report 2008, 2009-03-17. Each year the Commission publishes its Annual Report to Congress. The Annual Report is a separate Congressional requirement not required by the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA). It gives information on the Commission's major activities for the most recently completed fiscal year. It reports on the major program areas including accomplishments, goals and new initiatives.

International and Comparative Mediation

Nadja Marie Alexander, 2009-01-01. In a world where the borders of the global community are fluid and where disputants manifest increasingly diverse attributes and needs, mediation for decades hovering at the edge of dispute resolution practice is now emerging as the preferred approach both in its own right and as an adjunct to arbitration. Mediation processes are sufficiently flexible to accommodate a range of stakeholders not all of whom might have legal standing in ways the formality of arbitration and litigation would not normally allow. Among mediation's many advantages are time and cost efficiencies, sensitivity to cultural differences and assured privacy and confidentiality. This book meets the practice needs of lawyers confronted with cross border disputes now arising far beyond the traditional areas of international commerce such as consumer disputes, inter family conflicts and disagreements over Internet based transactions. The author takes full account of mediation's risks and limitations, primarily its lack of finality and uncertainty in relation to enforceability issues which will persist until the advent of appropriate international regulation Publisher's website Consumer Alternative Dispute Resolution in Emerging Economies Eda Sahin-Sengül, Serkan Kaya, 2025-02-25 This book provides a comprehensive guide to consumer Alternative Dispute Resolution ADRs and the unconventional challenges they pose for emerging economies aiming to advance their growth within developing nations Written in response to the increasing number of transactions between consumers and traders in the digital age and the accompanying rise in consumer disputes the book details ADR systems which have come to the fore to settle complaints Covering ADR techniques including arbitration mediation and ombudsman services it provides a guide to efficient dispute resolution and its application to emerging economies worldwide The book also examines the role of technology in shaping ADR processes given the prevalence of digital transactions in consumer markets Thoughtfully explaining the challenges faced in implementing these systems suggests how governments and businesses can encourage the use of ADR alongside providing practical case studies detailing past integrations into emerging economies Practical thorough and internationally focused this book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of dispute resolution consumer law and technology Routledge Handbook of Consumer Protection and Behaviour in Energy Markets Tina Soliman Hunter, Marcin Krasniewski, Jurgita Malinauskaite, Marzena Czarnecka, 2024-09-27 The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Protection and Behaviour in Energy Markets provides a comprehensive study of consumer protection and consumer behaviour in selected jurisdictions worldwide Each chapter is written by experts and provides a contemporary overview of national consumer protection and policy developments in the energy sector Today energy has become an essential factor in ensuring the socio economic development of any country and improving the quality of life of society and is now an essential element of life for everyone The energy market has become a competitive market based on the assumption that generation and sale of energy is not a natural monopoly and that market mechanisms in particular competition between energy companies are the best way to reduce prices and improve customer service The purchase of energy is inextricably linked with its distribution from the producer to the purchaser The book shows that well functioning energy markets need informed and well protected consumers who can benefit from competition and transparent offers They are free to choose the most competitive providers and know their rights with access to effective means of redress Given that the energy market has a specific technical nature the book analyses the energy market within the scope of free market principles with a focus on the protection of the weaker party to the contract the consumer In addition consumers can also play an active part of the clean energy transition Alternative Dispute Resolution in the Construction Industry Andrew Agapiou, 2023-11-25 Construction disputes by their very nature are often complex sometimes multi party disputes many of which are not suited to either adjudication or traditional form of litigation which are often slow expensive and divisive The sheer complexity of construction creates a compelling case for the introduction of alternative approaches within this adversarial industry This book traces the history development current status and future direction of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR in the UK construction industry It draws on the largest collection of Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors funded surveys on Scottish and English disputants perceptions and attitudes to ADR It includes an examination of the key legislative and regulatory principles relating to ADR in the Construction sphere The study also evaluates the role and functions of the Technology and Construction Court TCC in England and with reference to case law identifies its facilitative approach to ADR The coherence of the TCC s approach to issues such as refusal to resort to ADR is also examined It will be a valuable reference work for scholars and practitioners in construction and the built environment in the UK and internationally

Global Trends in Mediation Nadja Marie Alexander,2006-01-01 In its first edition Global Trends in Mediation was the first book to concentrate on mediation from a comparative perspective reaching beyond the all too familiar Anglo American view and as such has enjoyed wide practical use among alternative dispute resolution ADR practitioners worldwide This new edition has not only been updated throughout it has also added two new jurisdictions France and Quebec and a very useful comparative table summarising the salient points from each of the fourteen jurisdictional chapters Each jurisdictional chapter addresses critical structural and process issues in alternative dispute resolution such as the institutionalisation of mediation mediation case law and legislation the range and nature of disputes where mediation is utilised court related mediation mediation practice standards education training and accreditation of mediators the role of lawyers in mediation online dispute resolution and future trends All the contributors are senior dispute resolution academics or practitioners with vast knowledge and experience of dispute resolution developments in their countries and abroad

Regulation in the European Electricity Sector Maciej M Sokołowski,2016-02-22 Since the very beginning of European integration electricity has been within the legal sphere of the EU Much of this is found within the binding European acts making up the framework of the Energy Packages The established legal institutions have had a significant impact on the shape of the energy market in Europe Nevertheless the European energy market still seems to be developing as demonstrated by the current lively discussion about the state of the Energy Union Regulation in the European Electricity Sector delves into European energy law and reflects on some of the primary issues related to the public legal impact on the European energy sector The book offers a brief explanation of the background operation of the electricity sector as well as liberalisation within the area and traces the evolution of the EU s approach towards the issue of public law regulation within the electricity sector Finally the book presents an analysis of European and national laws considering their interpretation and explores the future of public law regulation Aimed at giving the reader a deep insight into a nature of the state s presence in the power sector this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of EU energy law and policy

Access to Justice for Vulnerable and Energy-Poor Consumers Naomi Creutzfeldt,Chris Gill,Marine Cornelis,Rachel McPherson,2021-07-01 How do ordinary people access justice This book offers a novel socio legal approach to access to justice alternative dispute resolution vulnerability and energy poverty It poses an access to justice challenge and rethinks it through a lens that accommodates all affected people especially those who are currently falling through the system It raises broader questions about alternative dispute resolution the need for reform to include more collective approaches a stronger recognition of the needs of vulnerable people and a stronger emphasis on delivering social justice The authors use energy poverty as a site of vulnerability and examine the barriers to justice facing this excluded group The book assembles the findings of an interdisciplinary research project studying access to justice and its barriers in the UK Italy France Bulgaria and Spain Catalonia In depth interviews with regulators ombuds energy companies third sector organisations and vulnerable people provide a rich dataset through which to understand the phenomenon The book provides theoretical and empirical insights which shed new light on these issues and sets out new directions of inquiry for research policy and practice It will be of interest to researchers students and policymakers working on access to justice consumer vulnerability energy poverty and the complex intersection between these fields The book includes contributions by Cosmo Graham UK Sarah Supino and Benedetta Voltaggio Italy Marine Cornelis France Anais Varo and Enric Bartlett Catalonia and Teodora Peneva Bulgaria
