Ambiguous Loss Learning To Live With Unresolved Grief:

Ambiguous Loss Pauline Boss, 2000-10-02 What happens when there is mourning with no closure when a family member or a friend who may be still alive is lost to us nonetheless How for example does the mother whose soldier son is missing in action or the family of an Alzheimer's patient who is suffering from severe dementia deal with the uncertainty surrounding this kind of loss Beyond Training: The Rise of Adult Education in the Military Jeffrey Zacharakis, Cheryl Polson, 2012-12-17 Widen your view of adult education by learning how it is applied by the nation's largest adult education provider the military Woven through this issue is the common thread of sound adult education practice Addressing applications specific to the military but relevant to civilian providers it highlights the importance of developing the critical thinking and problem solving skills essential for military leaders in an increasingly complex world Chapters also address the intersection of higher education and particular military populations including civilian employees active duty personnel veterans and spouses Finally the sourcebook provides a glimpse into the future of both military education and adult education highlighting the increasing bond between the two and their growing importance in the lifelong education of all Americans This is 136th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education Noted for its depth of coverage it explores issues of common interest to instructors administrators counselors and policymakers in a broad range of settings such as colleges and universities extension programs businesses libraries and museums Alive and Kicking at All Ages Ulla Kriebner, Roberta Maierhofer, Barbara Ratzenböck, 2014-06-15 The linking of age and ill health is part of a cultural narrative of decline as age is often defined as the absence of good health Research has shown that we are aged by culture but we are also culturally made ill when we age The cultural ambiguity of aging can thus deconstruct negative images of old age as physical decrepitude This volume investigates the topic of health within the matrix of time and experience by addressing issues such as how our understanding of health influences our notion of agency within a subversive deconstruction of normative age concepts and what role the notion of health plays in such an interaction Affective Communities in World Politics Emma Hutchison, 2016-03-11 A systematic examination of emotions and world politics showing how emotions underpin political agency and collective action after trauma The World of Bereavement Joanne Cacciatore, John DeFrain, 2015-04-15 This visionary work explores the sensitive balance between the personal and private aspects of grief the social and cultural variables that unite communities in bereavement and the universal experience of loss Its global journey takes readers into the processes of coping ritual and belief across established and emerging nations indigenous cultures and countries undergoing major upheavals richly detailed by native scholars and practitioners In these pages culture itself is recognized as formed through many lenses from the ancestral to the experiential The human capacity to mourn endure and make meaning is examined in papers such as Death grief and culture in Kenya experiential strengths based research Death and grief in Korea the continuum of life and death To live with death loss in Romanian culture The

Brazilian ways of living dying and grieving Death and bereavement in Israel Jewish Muslim and Christian perspectives Completing the circle of life death and grief among Native Americans It is always normal to remember death grief and culture in Australia The World of Bereavement will fascinate and inspire clinicians providers and researchers in the field of death studies as well as privately held professional training programs and the bereavement community in general

Toward a Psychology of Singlehood Katarzyna Adamczyk,2023-07-10 The rising number of single adults in many countries enhances the need to integrate the previous findings on singlehood and the recent theoretical propositions of viewing adult singlehood The present monograph is a unique theoretical elaboration on singlehood from a psychological perspective It provides a review of the past research mainly investigating the reasons and outcomes of singlehood in connection with attempts to answer the question How close are we on that way to the psychology of singlehood and indicate the potential ways of integrating various findings concerning singlehood The current book is therefore intended to be an essential step on the way to build a theoretical model for singlehood from a psychological perspective in the nearest future

Rebels with a Cause in Contemporary Spanish Women Playwriting Anthony Pasero O' Malley,2022-09-06 This book examines a selection of plays from four innovative women playwrights of the first two decades of 21st century Spain By foregrounding female characters as the subjects and protagonists of their plays Mar G mez Glez Carolina frica Luc a Miranda and Marta Buchaca reinscribe the stage as a space for the productive exploration of female autonomy and individuation This book further investigates the use the platform of the theatre and the expressive possibilities therein to portray the realities of gendered oppression and efforts to define subjectivity within a social context where confining patriarchal and dominant cultural conditions place severe strictures on women s open search and development of selfhood and identity The diversity of genres deployed in their respective approaches spanning the subversion of realist conventions the framework of historical drama the communal potentialities of forum theatre and experiential site specific production point to important innovations in contemporary stagecraft and performance

A Road Too Short for the Long Journey Quentin P. Kinnison,2019-02-04 The inevitability of death in our broken world means that grief and mourning are a normal part of the human experience Too often though this normal journey of grief is cut short by a culture intent on pretending bad things don t really happen In A Road Too Short for the Long Journey readers are invited to consider how we might travel this road of mourning with those who grieve and how we might join them as partners in a reorientation of the world experienced through loss

Transition to Parenthood Roudi Nazarinia Roy,Walter R. Schumm,Sonya L. Britt,2013-09-11 Transition to Parenthood moves beyond a one study focus and captures multidisciplinary work on all families making the transition to parenthood The book covers societal trends changes and most importantly expectations Focus is also placed on how families are impacted by their surroundings and their individual members Strengths and limitations of current theories are discussed as well as how the phenomenon of parenthood requires a combination of both macro and micro level theories

World Suffering and Quality of Life Ronald E. Anderson, 2015-02-04 This is the first book tackling the topic of world suffering. It compiles in one place the ideas, perspectives, and findings of researchers from around the world who pioneered research based understanding of human suffering. Some chapters use the paradigm of quality of life to explore ways to enhance knowledge on suffering. Other chapters show how concepts and knowledge from suffering research can benefit studies on quality of life. By bringing together in one volume ideas and research experience from the best minds and leading researchers in the fields of pain, suffering, poverty, deprivation, disability, and quality of life, including well-being and happiness, this volume advances social science solutions to a number of major threads of research, most notably suffering. As a whole, the volume advances the fields of suffering and deprivation by suggesting a working typology of suffering and by pointing out the major paradigms for relief of suffering, such as humanitarianism, human rights, caring, and healing. This volume provides a wealth of insights about the interaction between suffering and quality of life, the most up-to-date characterization of worldwide suffering, and a grasp of the implications of these data for local and global policy on health and social well-being. The Book of Ritual Baths Chanda Parkinson, 2025-10-08 Transform Your Bathing Routine into a Sacred Ritual. Cancer Diagnosis, Treatment and Care: Reflections for the Education of Survivors and Healthcare Providers Clarke, Karis L., Moffett, Noran L., 2025-04-17 Cancer affects millions of lives worldwide, not only impacting those diagnosed but also their families, caregivers, educators, and healthcare providers. Understanding the emotional, social, and systemic challenges that come with a cancer diagnosis is essential for improving care, support, and education. By giving voice to survivors, caregivers, and professionals, society can foster a more compassionate, informed approach to cancer treatment and its broader implications. Addressing disparities in healthcare, the role of stress, and the management of grief can help communities navigate the complexities of cancer care with greater awareness and resilience. Creating spaces for reflection and shared experiences strengthens our collective ability to support those affected and advance more equitable and holistic care solutions. Cancer Diagnosis, Treatment and Care: Reflections for the Education of Survivors and Healthcare Providers provides a platform for cancer patients, survivors, and those who have experienced grief to share their voices with professionals in education, healthcare, and public service. Through reflective narratives and research-informed insights, it explores cancer diagnosis, treatment, and care while fostering awareness, understanding, and potential solutions. Covering topics such as cancer imaging, immunity, cell components, and family-centered care, this book is an
