Social TV Cory Barker, 2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 SCMS Media Industries Scholarly Interest Group Outstanding Book Award sponsored by the Center for Entertainment Media Industries On March 15 2011 Donald Trump changed television forever The Comedy Central Roast of Trump was the first major live broadcast to place a hashtag in the corner of the screen to encourage real time reactions on Twitter generating more than 25 000 tweets and making the broadcast the most watched Roast in Comedy Central history The trumproast initiative personified the media and tech industries utopian vision for a multi screen and communal live TV experience In Social TV Multi Screen Content and Ephemeral Culture author Cory Barker reveals how the US television industry promised but failed to deliver a social media revolution in the 2010s to combat the imminent threat of on demand streaming video Barker examines the rise and fall of Social TV across press coverage corporate documents and an array of digital ephemera He demonstrates that despite the talk of disruption the movement merely aimed to exploit social media to reinforce the value of live TV in the modern attention economy Case studies from broadcast networks to tech start ups uncover a persistent focus on community that aimed to monetize consumer behavior in a transitional industry period To trace these unfulfilled promises and flopped ideas Barker draws upon a unique mix of personal Social TV experiences and curated archives of material that were intentionally marginalized amid pivots to the next big thing Yet in placing this now forgotten material in recent historical context Social TV shows how the era altered how the industry pursues audiences Multi screen campaigns have shifted away from a focus on live TV and toward all day content streams The legacy of Social TV then is the further embedding of media and promotional material onto every screen and into every moment of life

Transnational Zombie Cinema, 2010 to 2020 John R. Ziegler, 2023-10-02 Transnational Zombie Cinema 2010 to 2020 Readings in a Mutating Tradition examines selected films produced outside the United States in the second decade of the millennial zombie renaissance following the global effects of the Great Recession These readings analyze how the films adapt the zombie myth to localized anxieties pertaining to neoliberal capitalism globalization gender and sexuality national identity history and trauma and self definition within and without culture and social institutions In tracing these variations John R Ziegler investigates not only better known films such as South Korea's Train to Busan 2016 and Cuba's Juan of the Dead 2011 but also lesser known examples such as Malaysia's KL24 Zombies 2017 Italy's The End 2017 and India's Rise of the Zombie 2010 These films Ziegler argues demonstrate the continued significance of the zombie as a flexible powerful tool for thinking about contemporary concerns across the globe and suggest that the zombie myth still has plenty of undead life in it as it continues to mutate and circulate in transnational cinema

Requiem (Delirium Trilogy 3) Lauren Oliver, 2013-03-21 The new Hunger Games Cosmopolitan He never loved me It was all a lie The old Lena is dead I say and then push past him Each step is more difficult that the last the heaviness fills me and turns my limbs to stone You must hurt or be hurt An all out uprising has been ignited and Lena Haloway is right at its centre But things have changed The Wilds are no longer a safe haven for the rebels and pockets of resistance have opened throughout the country And when a face from her past reappears Lena is faced with a devastating choice that could tear her and the revolution apart Un put downable a truly fantastic finale Guardian

Through the Black Mirror Terence McSweeney, Stuart Joy, 2019-07-26 This edited collection charts the first four seasons of Black Mirror and beyond providing a rich social historical and political context for the show Across the diverse tapestry of its episodes Black Mirror has both dramatized and deconstructed the shifting cultural and technological coordinates of the era like no other With each of the nineteen chapters focussing on a single episode of the series this book provides an in depth analysis into how the show interrogates our contemporary desires and anxieties while simultaneously encouraging audiences to contemplate the moral issues raised by each episode What if we could record and replay our most intimate memories How far should we go to protect our children Would we choose to live forever What does it mean to be human These are just some of the questions posed by Black Mirror and in turn by this volume Written by some of the foremost scholars in the field of contemporary film and television studies Through the Black Mirror explores how Black Mirror has become a cultural barometer of the new millennial decades and questions what its embedded anxieties might tell us The New Authoritarianism Alan Waring, 2021-06-15 This volume continues the series that scrutinizes from a risk perspective the current phenomenon of authoritarianism as displayed by the new radical right also known as alternative right and whether it represents real democracy or an unacceptable hegemony potentially resulting in elected dictatorships and abuses as well as dysfunctional government and harm to many parties The book identifies and analyzes risk issues arising from the radical right phenomenon in many forms including the personal safety and security of individual citizens ethno religious minorities and other minorities and vulnerable groups as well as threats to organizations public order and national security to democratic governance and to international security As chapters reveal the cross flow of ideological organizational and dark money support emanating primarily from US corporate foundations lubricates the fusion of corporate and radical right interests nationally transnationally and globally This volume gathers contributions from eight leading academic authors and provides a detailed examination of the fusion of mutual interests between on the one hand powerful corporate leaders executives and wealthy oligarchs and on the other radical right political leaders parties and intermediary organizations promoting radical right causes The two worlds feed off enable and strengthen each other Of particular relevance to the third decade of the 21st century is an examination of the corporate radical right stance on the COVID 19 pandemic and the phenomenon of wild allegations and grand conspiracy theories disseminated by the radical right against their enemies

Quality Telefantasy Andrew Lynch, 2022-03-28 This book explores the relatively new genre of Quality Telefantasy and how it has broadened TV taste cultures by legitimating and mainstreaming fantastical content It also shows how the rising popularity of this genre marks a distinct and significant development in what kinds of TV are culturally dominant and critically regarded By expanding and building on the definition of US Quality TV this book brings together a number of popular science fiction fantasy and horror TV series including Game of Thrones The Walking Dead and Westworld as case studies which demonstrate the emergence of the Quality Telefantasy genre It looks at the role of technology including internet recap culture and subscription video on demand distribution in Quality Telefantasy s swift emergence and analyses its success internationally by considering series created outside the US like Kingdom South Korea Netflix and Dark Germany Netflix The book argues that Quality Telefantasy series should be considered a part of the larger Quality TV super genre and that the impact they are having on the global TV landscape warrants further investigation as it continues to evolve This is a valuable text for students and scholars studying or undertaking research in the areas of television studies new media and pop cultural studies ZAARD REVISTA GEEK - EU SOU A VINGANÇA ALAN BRAGA, Esta revista foi desenvolvida pela ZAARD
