Atkinson, Rowland, Mckenzie,
Lisa, Simon Winlow

Chuka September 2015 Intake:

Building Better Societies Atkinson, Rowland, McKenzie, Lisa, Simon Winlow, 2017-05-31 From environmental decline to growing economic inequality things are getting worse for the majority of the human race and will continue to worsen until determined action is taken Starting from this vantage point Building Better Societies looks to social scientists to identify what is needed to solve the problems that are leading to a collapse of civil society This is the first book to collect the ideas of those whose research on social conditions is at the forefront of our biggest societal problems Challenging fellow social scientists to cast aside their commitment to the established order and its ideological support systems Building Better Societies argues that social researchers must as objectively as possible use their skills to look ahead identify the likely outcomes of various forms of intervention and move to the forefront of informed political debate Bringing together expert contributors researching the many aspects of our social condition this book channels the energy of social scientists into a more normative and engaged voice it asks them what mechanisms interventions and evidence we might draw on as we make a better world
