Non Profit Organizations Financial Report:

A Desktop Guide for Nonprofit Directors, Officers, and Advisors Jack B. Siegel, 2006-05-11 How to keep any nonprofit out of trouble running smoothly and accomplishing its mission Jack Siegel lawyer accountant management consultant and computer whiz takes the putative director or officer of a nonprofit organization on a useful and often entertaining voyage throughout the realm of the tax exempt organizations universe pointing out its quirks foibles and legal liabilities along the way His handbook will make mandatory and arresting reading for those who are already serving as trustees directors officers and key employees of exempt organizations particularly charitable ones Siegel s goal in which he succeeds is to help directors and officers of nonprofit organizations make better decisions The book is full of large policy analyses and paragraphs on the details such as board size board committees board meeting formats the contents of minutes and the duties of officers Salted with some excellent real life examples what also sets this book apart from most in its genre is the tone the writing style the brusqueness the bluntness He complains that too many directors check their good judgment at the boardroom door He advises individuals who desire agreement and demand adulation to stay off boards he insists on commitment and institutional tension with the executive director He warns prospective directors that some organizations want in addition to time and judgment either your money or your ability to raise money To my delight he extols the virtues of some level of expenditures for qualified lawyers and accountants Please join me in adding this most helpful handbook to your nonprofit library Bruce R Hopkins Attorney at Law author of The Law of Tax Exempt Organizations Eighth Edition and Starting and Managing a Nonprofit Organization A Legal Guide Fourth Edition Understanding Nonprofit Financial Statements Steven H. Berger, 2008 This book concentrates on one major and widely recognized method of measuring value financial statements and their implications for outcomes It is organized to maximize a nonprofit board member s understanding of the most important financial elements within his or her organization At the outset the book reviews the function of the board in its goal setting role which includes financial outcomes This sets the stage for examining the differences between simple accounting and the board s function in analyzing accounting numbers to portray financial outcomes Understanding the major elements of the financial statements is the heart of the book and attention is given to the key ways in which those elements represent the real financial outcomes of the operations performed by the organization s senior management and staff over the relevant time period The remainder of the book highlights similarities and differences of interim versus audited financial statements some very specific ways to use available financial information to fulfill the board s fiduciary responsibilities and finally how to utilize financial information to measure organizational performance Included is a CD ROM that contains sample financial documents and a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation on financial practices that can be used at board meetings to improve financial skills P ix Financial and Accounting Guide for Not-for-Profit Organizations Malvern J. Like its well known predecessor Financial Management for Nonprofit Human Service Agencies this new and expanded edition with a slight title change continues to reflect the author's efforts to provide the critical knowledge needed to communicate with the experts. The central organizing theme of this book is the acquisition, distribution and reporting of agency resources within a systems framework. Divided into four sections, Section I is an overview that covers historical and sociopolitical context of nonprofit organizations and financing as well as the systems concept and unique characteristics of nonprofits. Section II covers the planning and acquisition of resources by human service organizations. Budgeting, marketing and grantwriting skills are examined. Section III details the distribution of the acquired resources through internal control, budgeting and investments. Section IV presents basic accounting techniques, fund accounting, financial reporting guidelines and financial statement analysis including the recording and reporting of organizational financial activities. New topics include fees for services, purchase of service, contracting, breakeven analysis for costing services and activities, third party payments, internet resources and a glossary.
