Powers, 2010-10-12 Evil remains a primary source of inquiry in contemporary literature of French expression even among its most secular writers In considering French speaking authors from France Belgium the United States the Maghreb and Sub Saharan Africa this collection delineates a rich international perspective on some of the most disturbing events of our time Each essay testifies to the urgency expressed in works of fiction to give an account of human catastrophes from the Shoah and the Rwandan genocide to the terrorist attacks of September 11 and the ongoing oppression of women in Islamic nations Themes underlying this volume include an investigation into the origins of evil its representations in writing and the ethical responsibilities of authors who write on human suffering Contemporary fiction on evil confronts us with fundamental questions Can evil be attributed to intentionality is evil subconscious or is it the result of impersonal forces Which styles of writing are ethically appropriate or effective for depicting evil Can we speak of a veritable poetics of evil shared by contemporary authors When does a literary text on evil become evil In providing informed and nuanced answers to these important questions the scholars engage in crucial theories of psychoanalysis post structuralism and post modernism address a number of issues raised by trauma and genocide studies and draw from critical frameworks in literary theory on testimony the limits of representing the extreme and transgressive writing The Literature of Absolute War Nil Santiáñez, Nil Santiáñez-Tió, 2020-05-28 This is the first comparative transnational approach to the language of absolute war and the literature on World War II Apocalyptic Discourse in Contemporary Culture Monica Germana, Aris Mousoutzanis, 2014-09-15 This interdisciplinary collection of essays focuses on critical and theoretical responses to the apocalypse of the late twentieth and early twenty first century cultural production Examining the ways in which apocalyptic discourses have had an impact on how we read the world s globalised space the traumatic burden of history and the mutual relationship between language and eschatological belief fifteen original essays by a group of internationally established and emerging critics reflect on the apocalypse its past tradition pervasive present and future legacy The collection seeks to offer a new reading of the apocalypse understood as a complex and frequently paradoxical paradigm of contemporary Western culture The majority of published collections on the subject have been published prior to the year 2000 and in their majority of cases locate the apocalypse in the future and envision it as something imminent This collection offers a post millennial perspective that perceives the end as immanent and simultaneously rooted in the past tradition The Kindly Ones, 1965

Our Nazis Petra Rau, 2013-05-31 Focusing particularly on the British context this study offers the first analysis of contemporary popular and literary fiction film TV and art exhibitions about Nazis and Nazism Memory and Narrative Ethics Jacob Lothe, 2025-03-26 As the last survivors of the Holocaust pass away the challenge of maintaining and extending our knowledge of this critical historical event becomes increasingly urgent Without the firsthand testimonies of survivors our understanding of the Holocaust is at risk of becoming diluted or distorted The narratives that shape our collective memory whether through testimony fiction or film are essential in preserving the true horror and lessons of the Holocaust This fading firsthand knowledge could lead to a loss of the ethical and historical gravity of Nazi Germany s mass murder of around six million Jews Memory and Narrative Ethics presents an original approach that combines narrative studies memory studies narrative ethics narrative psychology and Holocaust studies to analyze how different forms of narrative preserve Holocaust memory Through the approach of narrative hermeneutics and taking into account his own perspective as a European born after the Second World War Jakob Lothe offers insightful analysis of testimonies non fiction films novels and film adaptations and demonstrates how these narratives constructively respond to the ethical challenge of remembering the Holocaust By understanding and utilizing these diverse narrative forms we can maintain a vivid ethical and comprehensive collective memory of the Holocaust This ensures that future generations grasp the historical significance and moral lessons of this atrocity even as direct survivor testimonies soon become scarce

The Holocaust and Historical Methodology Dan Stone,2012 This book is timely and necessary and often extremely challenging It brings together an impressive cast of scholars spanning several academic generations Anyone interested in writing about the Holocaust should read this book and consider the implications of what is written here for their own work There seems to me little doubt that Holocaust history writing stands at something of a cross roads and the ways forward that this volume points to are extremely thought provoking Tom Lawson University of Winchester

French XX Bibliography, Issue #62 Sheri Dion,2011-09 First As Tragedy, Then As Farce Slavoj Žižek,2009-10-05 From the tragedy of 9 11 to the farce of the financial meltdown Dreams and atrocity Emily-Rose Baker,Diane Otosaka,2023-03-07 This volume explores the relationship between oneiric and historical episodes of atrocity as depicted in transnational twentieth and twenty first century art film literature and theatre Examining the political and aesthetic power harnessed by dreams in increasingly dark times it takes as its starting point the overlooked significance granted to the oneiric beyond Freudian psychoanalysis By reading the oneiric within variously known cultural texts including Holocaust fiction world cinema Bronx theatre surrealist art and two collections of wartime dream transcriptions the volume also offers a renewed perspective on modern and contemporary trauma In so doing it demonstrates the relevance of the oneiric beyond the interpretative framework of psychoanalysis as an aesthetic and political tool with which to alert us and respond to the violence of our contemporary world

Terrorizing Images Charles Ivan Armstrong,Unni Langas,2020-09-07 It is broadly accepted that terrorizing images are often instrumentalized in periods of conflict to serve political interests This volume proposes that paying attention to how images of trauma and conflict are described in literary texts i e to the rhetorical practice known as ekphrasis is crucial to our understanding of how such images work The volume s contributors discuss verbal images of trauma and terror in literary texts both from a contemporary perspective and as historical artefacts in order to illuminate the many different functions of ekphrasis in literature The articles in this volume reflect the vast developments in the field of trauma studies since the 1990s a field that has recently broadened to include genres beyond the memoir and testimony and that lends itself well to new postcolonial feminist and multimedia approaches By expanding the scholarly understanding of how images of trauma are described interpreted and acted out in literary texts this collected volume makes a significant contribution to both trauma and memory studies as well as more broadly to cultural studies capacities and conditions for being moral Bert Musschenga, Anton van Harskamp, 2013-06-13 This book addresses the question of what it means to be moral and which capacities one needs to be moral It questions whether empathy is a cognitive or an affective capacity or perhaps both As most moral beings behave immorally from time to time the authors ask which factors cause or motivate people to translate their moral beliefs into action Specially addressed is the question of what is the role of internal factors such as willpower commitment character and what is the role of external situational and structural factors The questions are considered from various disciplinary perspectives The Ethics of Storytelling Hanna Meretoja, 2018 Against the backdrop of the polarized debate on the ethical significance of storytelling Hanna Meretoja's The Ethics of Storytelling Narrative Hermeneutics History and the Possible develops a nuanced framework for exploring the ethical complexity of the roles narratives play in our lives Focusing on how narratives enlarge and diminish the spaces of possibilities in which we act think and re imagine the world together with others this book proposes a theoretical analytical framework for engaging with both the ethical potential and risks of storytelling Further it elaborates a narrative hermeneutics that treats narratives as culturally mediated practices of re interpreting experiences and articulates how narratives can be oppressive empowering or both It also argues that the relationship between narrative unconscious and narrative imagination shapes our sense of the possible In her book Meretoja develops a hermeneutic narrative ethics that differentiates between six dimensions of the ethical potential of storytelling the power of narratives to cultivate our sense of the possible to contribute to individual and cultural self understanding to enable understanding other lives non subsumptively in their singularity to transform the narrative in between that bind people together to develop our perspective awareness and capacity for perspective taking and to function as a form of ethical inquiry This book addresses our implication in violent histories and argues that it is as dialogic storytellers fundamentally vulnerable and dependent on one another that we become who we are both as individuals and communities The Ethics of Storytelling seamlessly incorporates narrative ethics literary narrative studies narrative psychology narrative philosophy and cultural memory studies It contributes to contemporary interdisciplinary narrative studies by developing narrative hermeneutics as a philosophically rigorous historically sensitive and analytically subtle approach to the ethical stakes of the debate on the narrative dimension of human existence Memory and Complicity Debarati Sanyal, 2015-03-02 A sophisticated nuanced and beautifully written account of the intersecting legacies of genocide and colonialism in postwar France Michael Rothberg author of Multidirectional Memory Remembering the Holocaust in the Age of Decolonization Since World War II French and Francophone literature and film have repeatedly sought not to singularize the Holocaust as the paradigm of historical trauma but rather to connect its memory with other memories of violence namely that of colonialism These works produced what Debarati Sanyal calls a memory in complicity attuned to the gray zones that implicate different regimes of violence across history as well as those of different subject positions such as victim perpetrator witness and reader spectator Examining a range of works from Albert Camus Primo Levi Alain Resnais and Jean Paul Sartre to Jonathan Littell Assia Djebar Giorgio Agamben and Boualem Sansal Memory and Complicity develops an inquiry into the political force and ethical dangers of such implications contrasting them with contemporary models for thinking about trauma and violence and offering an extended meditation on the role of aesthetic form especially allegory within acts of transhistorical remembrance What are the political benefits and ethical risks of invoking the memory of one history in order to address another What is the role of complicity in making these connections How does complicity rather than affect based discourses of trauma shame and melancholy open a critical engagement with the violence of history What is it about literature and film that have made them such powerful vehicles for this kind of connective memory work As it offers new readings of some of the most celebrated and controversial novelists filmmakers and playwrights from the French speaking world Memory and Complicity addresses these questions in order to reframe the way we think about historical memory and its political uses today The Routledge Handbook to Auschwitz-Birkenau Sarah M. Cushman, Joanne Pettitt, Dominic Williams, 2025-08-12 This handbook examines Auschwitz Birkenau as both a site and a symbol of Nazi genocide Scholars from a range of disciplinary perspectives consider Auschwitz's history by engaging with Holocaust historiography and its place in Holocaust memory and representation illustrating their mutual influence The chapters bring new insights to topics that other studies of Auschwitz have explored before such as the Sonderkommando the Czech family camp and literary representations of Auschwitz Other chapters cover recent developments and more neglected areas such as the experience and memory of Romani prisoners the fate of Soviet prisoners of war and Auschwitz's presence on social media The handbook also responds to a number of recent trends and new paradigms in Holocaust Studies including contributions from the fields of Environmental Studies Spatial Studies and Gender Studies As a crucial overview of the topic of Auschwitz Birkenau and an introduction to its most recent and fruitful scholarly approaches this handbook will be a valuable resource for undergraduates from second year and up as well as for graduate students and researchers seeking a survey of the field
