Project based and industry linked learning are increasingly pursued in undergraduate studies at the university as well as at the polytechnics A levels and the international baccalaureate programmes. These courses are usually structured as part of the Final Year Projects. Their applied nature is also motivated by the increasing emphasis on collaborations between the academia and the industry. This book shall serve as a text and a practical reference for students, lecturers and industry supervisors to design structure and supervise their projects so that they will serve the desired curricular objectives as well as the needs of the industry collaborators. In essence it will guide students to write their final year dissertations. A key feature of this book is its practical orientation. It contains a lot of examples. It is structured in a series of questions and answers which mimics the thought process of a student working on his/her final year project dissertation. Specifically the book has also included some contemporary topics such as design thinking and pecha kucha presentations which would be of particular interest to instructors and students. Innovative Solutions for Building Community in Academic Libraries Bonnand, Sheila, Hansen, Mary Anne, 2015-05-31. The library has always been an essential part of the collegiate experience providing students with access to knowledge and literature. However as virtual services and online learning become more prominent within collegiate environments the ways students conduct research and access resources has been altered. Innovative Solutions for Building Community in Academic Libraries examines new methods librarians use to engage both on campus and online users in library services taking into account the significant impacts of online learning on students' interaction with library resources. Focusing on various outreach practices, techniques of literacy instruction and the utilization of library spaces, this research supported book is a pivotal reference source for distance educators, program planners, academics and library professionals interested in new ways to attract users to library services. Finding Funding Ernest W.
