Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing and Urban Affairs, 1988 A Right to Housing Rachel G. Bratt, Michael E. Stone, Chester W. Hartman, 2006 An examination of America s housing crisis by the leading progressive housing activists in the country The Affordable Housing Reader J. Rosie Tighe, Elizabeth J. Mueller, 2013 The Affordable Housing Reader brings together classic works and contemporary writing on the themes and debates that have animated the field of affordable housing policy as well as the challenges in achieving the goals of policy on the ground The Reader aimed at professors students and researchers provides an overview of the literature on housing policy and planning that is both comprehensive and interdisciplinary It is particularly suited for graduate and undergraduate courses on housing policy offered to students of public policy and city planning The Reader is structured around the key debates in affordable housing ranging from the conflicting motivations for housing policy through analysis of the causes of and solutions to housing problems to concerns about gentrification and housing and race Each debate is contextualized in an introductory essay by the editors and illustrated with a range of texts and articles Elizabeth Mueller and Rosie Tighe have brought together for the first time into a single volume the best and most influential writings on housing and its importance for planners and policy makers Introduction to Housing Katrin B. Anacker, Andrew T. Carswell, Sarah D. Kirby, 2025-06-11 This foundational text on housing tenure housing policy homelessness and housing in a global context has been thoroughly updated to reflect changes in the United States during and after the COVID 19 pandemic This third edition delves into the complexities of housing and related issues to provide a deep understanding of housing s relationship to national economic factors and housing policies It features individual chapters authored by experts in the field offering insights into the physical social psychological economic and policy dimensions affecting the current housing landscape both in the United States and internationally while proposing solutions to the challenges presented This book will appeal to faculty and students in a variety of housing related courses and is an essential resource for housing researchers policymakers and practitioners

Meeting Our Nation's Housing Challenges United States. Millennial Housing Commission, 2002 CD ROM includes description of methods by which the Commission sought public input list of Commission sponsored meetings and hearings including names of participants text of letter the Commission distributed seeking input on key issues as well as a list of the people and organizations to which it was sent hearing testimony and statements submitted during other Commission sponsored meetings

Reclaiming Public Housing Lawrence J. Vale, 2002 Lawrence Vale explores the rise fall and redevelopment of three public housing projects in Boston Vale looks at these projects from the perspectives of their low income residents and assesses the contributions of the design professionals who helped to transform these once devastated places during the 1980s and 1990s

Unfair Housing Mara S. Sidney, 2003 It is difficult to ignore the fact that even as the United States becomes much more racially and ethnically diverse our neighborhoods remain largely segregated The 1968 Fair Housing Act and 1977 Community Reinvestment Act promised to end discrimination yet for millions of Americans housing options remain far removed from the American Dream Why do most neighborhoods in American cities continue to be racially divided The problem suggests Mara Sidney lies with the policies themselves She contends that to understand why discrimination persists we need to understand the political challenges faced by advocacy groups who implement them In Unfair Housing she offers a new explanation for the persistent color lines in our cities by showing how weak national policy has silenced and splintered grassroots activists Sidney explains how political compromise among national lawmakers with divergent interests resulted in housing legislation that influenced how community activists defined discrimination what actions they took and which political relationships they cultivated As a result local governments became less likely to include housing discrimination on their agendas existing laws went unenforced and racial segregation continued A former undercover investigator for a fair housing advocacy group Sidney takes readers into the neighborhoods of Minneapolis and Denver to show how federal housing policy actually works She examines how these laws played out in these cities and reveals how they eroded activists capability to force more sweeping reform in housing policy Sidney also shows how activist groups can cultivate community resources to overcome these difficulties looking across levels of government to analyze how national policies interact with local politics In the first book to apply policy design theories of Anne Schneider and Helen Ingram to an empirical case Sidney illuminates overlooked impacts of fair housing and community reinvestment policies and extends their theories to the study of local politics and nonprofit organizations Sidney argues forcefully that understanding the link between national policy and local groups sheds light on our failure to reduce discrimination and segregation As battles over fair housing continue her book helps us understand the shape of the battlefield and the prospects for victory

A History of American State and Local Economic Development Ronald W. Coan, 2017-04-28 A History of American State and Local Economic Development relates the history of American local and state economic development from 1790 to 2000 This multi variable multi disciplinary history employs a bottom up policy making systems approach while exploring the three eras of economic development Public Law 100-198--the Veterans' Home Loan Program Improvements and Property Rehabilitation Act of 1988 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Veterans' Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing and Memorial Affairs,1988 To Live Peaceably Together Tracy E. K'Meyer,2022-04-14 To Live Peaceably Together is a lively examination of the methods and accomplishments of the American Friends Service Committee AFSC a primarily Quaker group that took a unique and influential approach to cultivating cultural acceptance of residential integration in America after World War II K Meyer offers a close study of how a social movement develops and wields influence and how social activists do their work and why Driven by detailed stories of activists and the obstacles they encountered the book studies how a mostly white faith based activist group worked to ally itself to a cause that demanded constant learning and reassessment K Meyer details the AFSC members spiritual and humanist motivations their understandings of segregation their visions of integrated neighborhoods as well as how their strategies changed as they came to better understand structural inequality and how they were eventually adopted by other groups Compendium of Research Reports ,1981 Affordable Housing and Public Policy Chicago Assembly,1993 A New national housing policy ,1987 Law & Inequality ,1990 Housing America in the 1980s John S. Adams,1988-05-16 Housing provides shelter in a variety of forms but it is also resonant with meaning on many other levels as a financial asset a status symbol an expression of private aspirations and identities a means of inclusion or exclusion and finally as a battleground for social change John Adams impressive new study explores this complex topic in all its dimensions Using census data and other housing surveys Adams describes the recent history of housing in America the nature of housing supply and demand patterns of housing use and selected housing policy questions Adams supplements this national and regional analysis with a remarkable set of small area analyses revealing how neighborhood settings affect housing use and how market forces and other trends interact to shape a neighborhood These analyses focus on a sample of over fifty urbanized areas including the nation s three largest cities New York Los Angeles and Chicago Special two color maps illustrate the dynamics of housing use in each of these communities Clearly and insightfully this volume paints a unique picture of the American housing landscape a landscape that reflects and regulates significant aspects of our national life A Volume in the Russell Sage Foundation Census Series The President's National Urban Policy Report United States.
