It includes stories by Charles Dickens, Wilkie Collins, M. R. James, W. W. Jacobs, and L. P. Hartley among other masters of the fine art of making the flesh creep, all accompanied by Gorey's inimitable illustrations. ALGERNON BLACKWOOD The Empty House W. F. Illustrations now collected in this volume along with marvelously playful selections from the correspondence all never before seen by the public until now. From Ted to Tom will be published in the centenary year of Edward Gorey's birth. When Tom Fitzharris met Edward Ted Gorey in 1974, the two quickly struck up a friendship. Over the next year, Gorey sent a total of fifty letters to Fitzharris. Every envelope Fitzharris received was illustrated by Gorey and filled with surprises: typewritten letters with news and opinions from Gorey's life, handwritten note cards with unexpected quotes, sketches, inside jokes, and a host of other joyous miscellany. Assembled here for the first time, these envelopes and their contents deliver all the humor, imagination, gossip, and wonder that came with being Edward Gorey's pen pal. COUNTESS KATE CHARLOTTE M. Focusing on the sources of narrative content, how the content is produced, and what makes something weird, Michael Cisco engages with theories from Deleuze and Guattari to explain how genres work and to understand the relationship between identity and the ordinary. Cisco also uses these theories to examine the supernatural not merely as a horde of tropes but as a recognition of the infinity of experience in defiance of limiting norms. The book also traces the sociopolitical implications of weird fiction, studying the differentiation of major and minor literatures. Through an articulated theoretical model and close textual analysis, readers will learn not only what weird fiction is but how and why it is produced. Phantasmagorey Clifford Ross, Edward Gorey, 1974 My Face for the World to See

Alfred Hayes, 2013-07-23 Alfred Hayes is one of the secret masters of the twentieth century novel a journalist and scriptwriter and poet who possessed an immaculate ear and who wrote with razorsharp intelligence about passion and its payoff My Face for the World to See is set in Hollywood where the tonic for anonymity is fame and you're only as real as your image At a party the narrator a screenwriter rescues a young woman who staggers with drunken determination into the Pacific He is living far from his wife in New York and long ago shed any illusions about the value of his work He just wants to be left alone And yet without really meaning to he gets involved with the young woman who has it seems no illusions about love especially with married men She's a survivor even if her beauty is a little battered from years of not quite making it in the pictures She's just like him he thinks and as their casual relationship takes on an increasingly troubled and destructive intensity it seems that might just be true only not in the way he supposes
