Character description

To write a description of a story character.

Choose a book with a distinctive main character. Read and discuss the book with the children in the usual way, asking them about the character, how he is, the world and what he or she was like.

Tell the children that they are going to write a description of the chosen character.

Ask the children to think for a few minutes about their description and what they are going to write. The children should not share their ideas with others at this point. Help to structure their thinking by asking the example questions, or similar questions.

- What sort of person/animal/character is ...?
- What does he/she look like?
- How does he/she behave?
- Is he/she nice or nasty?
- Would you like him/her as a friend?

Ask them to start by writing the name of the character (which may be written on a board or flip chart for them) and then go on to write their description. You may also wish to provide a picture.

Ask the children to do their writing independently. They should make a best guess at spellings they do not know. You should give them a general reminder about the need to use punctuation. Ask the children to check through their work when they finish.

Most children can complete this piece of writing in 30 minutes, and this time should not normally be exceeded. Children may add illustration and decoration to their work here, if you wish.
