Resources in Education ,1998 Teaching Ethnic Diversity with Film Carole Gerster,Laura W. Zlogar,2006-01-16

From the beginning of the 20th century Hollywood filmmakers have shaped public beliefs about and attitudes toward African Americans Asian Americans Native Americans and Latinos Challenging and updating the historical record ethnic minority filmmakers have been re presenting their histories cultures and literature from the perspectives of their own experience The resulting films offer teachers an effective means for teaching ethnic diversity in today s media saturated culture This work details rationales and methods for incorporating readily available films into the high school and college undergraduate curriculum particularly in history social studies literature and film studies courses It includes definitions of race and ethnicity and essays on the film history of African American Asian American American Indian and Latino representation Subsequent chapters organized by disciplines describe specific ways to teach visual and multicultural literacy with films including suggestions for topics methods and films and ending with four discipline specific curriculum units for high school students Film terminology and a list of resources to help teachers create their own curriculum units complete the work The Themes That Bind Us Gretchen Oltman,Johnna L. Graff,Cynthia Wood Maddux,2018-07-15 Teaching U S Supreme Court cases can be a daunting task for any social studies teacher but this book can ease that process Carefully aligned with the NCSS Ten Themes this teacher s guide provides thirty two high interest U S Supreme Court cases edited to a more reader friendly format while retaining the original verbiage Features of each chapter include pre reading during reading and post reading questions as well as teaching extensions to help students better understand the stories behind the cases the intricacies of the laws involved and the effects of the Court s decisions on American life This book provides any teacher with viable useable case law to fit any historical timeframe or unit of study Law at the Movies Stanley Fish,2024-01-30 This book asks How can legal doctrine be turned into filmic art By legal doctrine Stanley Fish does not mean the sonorous abstractions that usually accompany the self presentation of law Justice Equity Equality Liberty Autonomy and the like Rather he has in mind the specific rules and procedures invoked and analyzed by courts on the way to declaring a decision lawyer client confidentiality the distinction between interdicted violence and the violence performed by the legal system the interplay of positive law and laws rooted in morality the difference between civilian law and military law the death penalty the admissibility of different forms of evidence In the movies he discusses these and other points of doctrine and procedure do not serve as a background occasionally visited to the substantive issues that drive the plot and provide the characters with choices they declare the plot and character is formed and tested in relationship to their demands Apparently technical matters are pressed until they occupy both foreground and background and become the movie s true subject If large abstract concepts emerge they emerge at the back end of doctrine and are in effect produced by doctrine These are not law themed movies they are movies about the unfolding of legal process Thinking Through the Test A Study Guide for the

Friedman, 2019-08-01 More than four decades after the premiere of his first film Steven Spielberg b 1946 continues to be a household name whose influence on popular culture extends far beyond the movie screen Now in his seventies Spielberg shows no intention of retiring from directing or even slowing down Since the publication of Steven Spielberg Interviews in 2000 the filmmaker has crafted some of the most complex movies of his extensive career His new movies consistently reinvigorate entrenched genres adding density and depth Many of the defining characters motifs tropes and themes that emerge in Spielberg s earliest movies shape these later works as well but often in new configurations that probe deeper into more complicated subjects dangerous technology rather than man eating sharks homicidal rather than cuddly aliens lethal terrorism instead of rampaging dinosaurs Spielberg s movies continue to display a remarkably sophisticated level of artistry that matches and sometimes exceeds the memorable visual hallmarks of his prior work His latest series of films continue to demonstrate an ongoing intellectual restlessness and a willingness to challenge himself as a creative artist With this new collection of interviews which includes eleven original interviews from the 2000 edition and nine new interviews readers will recognize the themes that motivate Spielberg the cinematic techniques he employs to create his feature films and the emotional connection he has to his movies The result is a nuanced and engaging portrait of the most popular director in American cinema history
