

About the SATs

- This is the fourth year of tests on the 2014 NC
- The children won't get a level but a scaled score where 100 is average
- If the children's scaled score is above one hundred, then they have met the expected standard for Year 6
- If the children's scaled score is below one hundred, then they are working below the level of the new Year 6 standard
- We have used previous year's thresholds to help us to make predictions – no guarantee they will stay the same.
