Nikolaj Bichel, Adam Hart

Kenya Polytechnic May 2015 Intake:

Health Communication in the Changing Media Landscape Ravindra Kumar Vemula, Subba Rao M

Gavaravarapu, 2017-02-07 This book advances new understandings of how technologies have been harnessed to improve the health of populations whether the technologies really empower those who use information by providing them with a choice of information how they shape health policy discourses how the health information relates to traditional belief systems and local philosophies the implications for health communicators how certain forms of silence are produced when media articulates and problematizes only a few health issues and sidelines others and much more The book brings together current research and discussions on the three areas of policy practices and theoretical perspectives related to health communication approaches in developing countries presenting well researched and documented essays that will prove helpful for academic and scholarly inquiry in this area

Trophy Hunting Nikolaj Bichel, Adam Hart, 2023-04-11 This book gets to the heart of trophy hunting unpacking and explaining its multiple facets and controversies and exploring why it divides environmentalists the hunting community and the public Bichel and Hart provide the first interdisciplinary and comprehensive approach to the study of trophy hunting investigating the history of trophy hunting and delving into the background identity and motivation of trophy hunters They also explore the role of social media and anthropomorphism in shaping trophy hunting discourse as well as the viability of trophy hunting as a wildlife management tool the ideals of fair chase and sportsmanship and what hunting trophies are both literally and in terms of their symbolic value to hunters and non hunters The analyses and discussions are underpinned by a consideration of the complex moral and practical conflicts between animal rights and conservation paradigms This book appeals to scholars in environmental philosophy conservation and environmental studies as well as hunters hunting opponents wildlife management practitioners and policymakers and anyone with a broad interest in human wildlife relations

The Handbook of International Trends in Environmental Communication Bruno Takahashi, Julia Metag, Jagadish Thaker, Suzannah Evans Comfort, 2021-12-27 This handbook provides a comprehensive review of communication around rising global environmental challenges and public action to manage them now and into the future Bringing together theoretical methodological and practical chapters this book presents a unique opportunity for environmental communication scholars to critically reflect on the past examine present trends and start envisioning exciting new methodologies theories and areas of research Chapters feature authors from a wide range of countries to critically review the genesis and evolution of environmental communication research and thus analyze current issues in the field from a truly international perspective incorporating diverse epistemological perspectives exciting new methodologies and interdisciplinary theoretical frameworks The handbook seeks to challenge existing dominant perspectives of environmental communication from and about populations in the Global South and disenfranchised populations in the Global North The Handbook of International Trends in Environmental Communication is ideal for scholars and advanced students of
