Balancing Structural Power Samuel Schlichting, 2025-07-16 Great power politics has returned to the global stage It leads to complex balancing games among the leading countries of the world not only in terms of military power but also with regard to resources productive capacities infrastructure and narratives For Eurasia China s phenomenal rise is a political game changer Against the background of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI and China s ever increasing presence in the former post Soviet region of Central Asia this book develops the concept of Structural Power to adopt International Relations theory to the empirical reality of great power politics in the early 21st century Det. 25 Michael L. Haley MSG (Ret.)

USAR, 2023-01-18 When Sergeant First Class Haley and 35 other Soldiers in Detachment 25 deployed to Afghanistan on a mission to mentor the training and development of the Afghanistan National Army they did not know how chewed up the situation was Selected from volunteers within the Ninety Fifth Division the Army Reserve Drill Sergeants of Det 25 discovered that training the ANA was a joke Afghanistan was a toilet that needed to be flushed of its Taliban turds but that was never going to happen What did happen was that the entire world took a crap all over that country and left it more of a mess than it was before Operation Enduring Freedom began Nation building is a failure and the United States must never again attempt it anywhere else in the world Whenever someone tells the truth about military or political incompetence in the United States the government feigns plausible deniability or tries to suppress the truth This story tells the truth about a group of American heroes and legends who did not deserve a loss for their sacrifices Thanks to the worst president in American history the loss of American lives has become a joke Americans can only laugh about OEF because there is nothing else anyone can do now except to have faith hope and love Transnational Data and Communications Report ,1991 The international information economy monthly Military Review ,2019 Norfolk and Western Magazine ,1978

Afghan National Army Vince Bywaters, The origins of the Afghan National Army ANA are deeply rooted in Afghanistan s long and complex history of warfare tribal loyalties and external interventions While the modern ANA officially emerged in the early 2000s its conceptual and cultural roots stretch back through centuries of conflict and evolving governance structures in the region Historically Afghanistan s military forces were shaped by local warlords and tribal leaders who provided security and fought in various internal and external conflicts The concept of a centralized national army gained traction during the reign of King Amanullah Khan in the early 20th century when efforts were made to modernize and professionalize Afghanistan s armed forces However these early attempts were limited in scope and largely symbolic as loyalty to tribe ethnicity and local power brokers often took precedence over national allegiance The collapse of the Soviet backed Afghan army following the withdrawal of Soviet troops in 1989 and the subsequent civil war left the country without a functioning central military During the 1990s various militia groups and warlord factions operated with near complete autonomy eroding the notion of a unified national army When the Taliban emerged in 1996 they created their own military forces but these were more ideological and less structured as a national institution Afghan National Security Forces Anthony H.
