Architecture And Beauty Conversations With Architects About A Troubled Relationship:

Architecture and Beauty Yael Reisner, Fleur Watson, 2010 Beauty provides the dynamic catalyst for sixteen very charged and individual discussions about architecture and design Based on a series of interviews by Yael Reisner Architecture and Beauty has been developed into sixteen individual chapter portraits written up by Fleur Watson that eloquently recount the thoughts of some of the world's most creative designers Each interviewee candidly expresses their beliefs and experiences and espouses their own distinctive position on aesthetics Offering up rare and often highly personal insights into the minds of today's most progressive and high profile architects the book is lusciously illustrated with the works that the architects discuss Featured architects Will Alsop Hernan Diaz Alonso Peter Cook Odile Decq Frank Gehry Zaha Hadid Zvi Hecker Mark Goulthorpe Kolatan MacDonald Studio Greg Lynn Tom Mayne Juhani Pallasmaa Gaetano Pesce Eric Owen Moss Wolf Prix and Lebbeus Woods The Handbook of Interior Design Jo Ann Asher Thompson, Nancy Blossom, 2015-04-20 THE HANDBOOK OF INTERIOR DESIGN The Handbook of Interior Design offers a compilation of current works that inform the discipline of interior design These examples of design scholarship present a detailed overview of current research and critical thinking The volume brings together a broad range of essays from an international group of scholars who represent the diversity of work in the field Intended to engage those involved in the study and practice of interior design the Handbook considers the connections between theory research and practice that shape the field of interior design as well as the theoretical perspectives that inform the field It contains over thirty essays which together demonstrate the wide range of opinions and knowledge in the discipline grouped in sections to reflect key components of their content A close reading of the essays will uncover contradictory as well as supporting positions on aspects of interior design challenging the reader to think critically and develop a personal stance toward the subject Beauty Matters Yael Reisner, 2019-10-21 Beauty in architecture matters again This issue of AD posits that after 80 years of aggressive suppression of engagement with aesthetics the temporarily dormant preoccupation with beauty is back This is evidenced by a current cultural shift from the supposedly objective to an emerging trust in the subjective a renewed fascination for aesthetics supported by new knowledge emanating simultaneously from disparate disciplines Digital design continues to influence architectural discourse not only due to changes in manufacturing but also through establishing meaning The very term post digital was introduced by computational designers and artists who accept that digital gains in architectural design are augmented by human judgement and cognitive intuition The issue takes an interdisciplinary approach to this re-emerging interest in beauty across neuroscience neuroaesthetics mathematics philosophy and architecture while discussing the work of the international architects in both practice and academe who are generating new aesthetics Contributors Alisa Andrasek Izaskun Chinchilla Marjan Colletti Peter Cook Robbert Dijkgraaf Winka Dubbeldam David Garcia Graham Harman Claudia Pasquero and Marco Poletto Alan Powers Gilles Retsin Kristina Schinegger and Stefan Rutzinger Fleur Watson and Martyn

Architecture in Dialogue with an Activated Ground Urs Bette, 2020-03-30 Architecture in Dialogue with an Activated Ground sets out to validate the role of the unreasonable in the design process Using case study projects architect Urs Bette gives an insight into the epistemological processes of his creative practice and unveils the strategies he deploys in order to facilitate the poetic aspects of architecture within a discourse whose evaluation parameters predominantly involve reason Themes discussed include the emergence of space from the staged opposition between the architectural object and the site and the relationship between emotive cognition and analytic synthesis in the design act In both cases there is a necessary engagement with forms of unreasonable thought action or behaviours By arguing for the usefulness and validity of the unreasonable in architecture and by investigating the performative relationship between object and ground Bette contributes to the discourse on extensions growth and urban densification that tap into local histories and voices including those of the seemingly inanimate the architecture itself and the ground it sits upon to inform the site related production of architectural character and space In doing so he raises debates about the values pursued in design approval processes and the ways in which site relatedness is both produced and judged

When Brains Meet Buildings Michael A. Arbib, 2021 Michael Arbib presents When Brains Meet Buildings as an invitation to the science behind architecture richly illustrated with buildings both famous and domestic As he converses with the reader he presents action oriented perception memory and imagination as well as atmosphere aesthetics and emotion as keys to analyzing the experience and design of architecture

Design Build with The Scarcity and Creativity Studio Christian Hermansen Cordua, Solveig Sandness, 2023-01-31 From its creation in January 2012 The Scarcity and Creativity Studio has developed a teaching method which reaffirms a commitment to architecture as a service to society questions the idea of the individual creator in favour of collaborative design and challenges the traditional master student relationship This book documents the projects and in so doing explains the practices and pedagogic methods which the studio has developed in relation to architecture education in general and design build education in particular Aimed at students teachers and professionals who are exploring the possibilities of design build the 16 built projects are fully documented in text drawings and photos and can be used as both inspiration and references Projects are based in Norway Finland Chile Ecuador Gal pagos Kenya South Africa China Argentina and Lebanon

Pavilions, Pop Ups and Parasols Leon van Schaik, Fleur Watson, 2015-06-02 Around the world a new architectural form is emerging In public places a progressive architecture is being commissioned to promote open ended undetermined lightly programmed or unprogrammed interactions between people This new phenomenon of architectural form Pavilions Pop Ups and Parasols is presaged by rapidly changing social relationships flowing from social media such as Facebook Twitter and Instagram The nexus between real and virtual meeting is effectively being reinvented by innovative and creative architectural practices People meet in new and responsive ways architects meet their clients in new forums knowledge is met and achieved in new and interactive frameworks It contrasts bluntly with the commercially structured interactions of shopping malls and the increasingly deliberate interactions available in cultural institutions These experiences imbue a new type of client casually engaged flocking hacking crowd funding and self helping Contributors include Rob Bevan Pia Ednie Brown Roan Ching Yueh Dan Hill Martyn Hook Minsuk Cho Andrea Kahn Felicity Scott Akira Suzuki Contributing architects include Alisa Andrasek Biothing Peter Cook CRAB studio CJ Lim Studio 8 Tom Holbrook 5th Studio Matthias Hollwich HWKN Mamou Mani Architects Benedetta Tagliabue EMBT

Lives in Architecture Peter Cook, 2021-08-31 Peter Cook has been a pivotal figure within the architecture world for over half a century He first came to international renown in the 1960s as a founder of the radical experimental group Archigram winners of the 2002 RIBA Royal Gold Medal He is also former Director of the Institute of Contemporary Arts ICA London and Emeritus Professor and former Chair of the Bartlett School of Architecture University College London Suffused with Peter's infectious energy enthusiasm and charm this intriguing memoir explores major themes in architecture through the lens of his life and work Taking the reader on a journey through his colourful and wide ranging career it touches on his early years and architectural education his relationships with key figures within the architecture community and his work teaching and lecturing internationally It also provides an inside account of his leadership of the Bartlett for which he is frequently credited as a central figure in rescuing the reputation of a once ailing now world famous school of architecture Featuring full colour images of his most famous drawings including Archigram's Plug in City and built works such as the Kunsthaus Graz in Austria and the Vienna Economics and Business University's Department of Law and Central Administration Buildings this book is a window into the life of one of architecture's most celebrated rebels

exlibris Giovanni Corbellini, 2022-05-18 Architects write a lot especially now when conceptual aspects have become central in the advanced reflections and narrative forms increasingly intersect the quest of design practices for an ultimate legitimization In the growing mass of the publishing offer these keywords try to highlight recurrent issues tracking synthetic paths of orientation between different critical positions with particular attention to what happens in the neighbouring fields of the arts and sciences

Why Old Places Matter Thompson M. Mayes, 2018-09-01 Why Old Places Matter is the only book that explores the reasons that old places matter to people Although people often feel very deeply about the old places of their lives they don't have the words to express why This book brings these ideas together in evocative language and with illustrative images for a broad audience The book reveals the fundamentally important yet under recognized role old places play in our lives While many people feel a deep seated connection to old places from those who love old houses to the millions of tourists who are drawn to historic cities to the pilgrims who flock to ancient sites throughout the world few can articulate why The book explores these deep attachments people have with old places the feelings of belonging continuity stability identity and memory as well as the more traditional reasons that old places have been deemed by society to be important such as history national identity and architecture This book will be appealing to anyone who has ever loved an old place But more importantly it will be an useful resource to articulate why old places are meaningful to people and their communities This book will help people understand that the feeling many have for old places is supported by a wide variety of fields and that the continued existence of these old places is good It will give people the words and phrases to understand and express why old places matter

Exuberance Marjan Colletti, 2010-05-03 Exuberance not only celebrates new Baroque theatricality formal sophistication and digital virtuosity it also debates a plethora of joyful and intelligent ways in which experimental architecture manages to cope with the contemporary turmoil in global politics economics and ecology The title includes the work of seminal figures such as Ron Arad Peter Cook and Wolf D Prix of Coop Himmelblau It features Hernan Diaz Alonso Evan Douglas CJ Lim Ali Rahim Neil Spiller Kjetil Thorsen of Snohetta and Tom Wiscombe

Cultures of Glass Architecture Hisham Elkadi, 2016-05-13 When designing architects are responding to and creating a relationship between identity culture and architectural style This book discusses whether the extent of the use of glass facades has increased or indeed enhanced the creation of meaningful place making thereby creating a cultural identity of place Looking at the development of perceptions of glass facades in different cultures it shows how modernist glass buildings are perceived as an expression of technical achievement as symbols of global economic success and as setting a neutral platform for multi cultural societies all of which are difficult for urban developers and policy makers to resist in our era of globalization Drawing on a number of modern and heritage design projects from Europe the USA the Middle East and South East Asia the book reviews efforts of some regional towns and local places to move up the economic ladder by adopting a more global aesthetic

Anthropology and Beauty Stephanie Bunn, 2018-01-17 Organised around the theme of beauty this innovative collection offers insight into the development of anthropological thinking on art aesthetics and creativity in recent years The volume incorporates current work on perception and generative processes and seeks to move beyond a purely aesthetic and relativist stance The chapters invite readers to consider how people sense and seek out beauty whether through acts of human creativity and production through sensory experience of sound light or touch or experiencing architecture visiting heritage sites or ancient buildings experiencing the environment through places of outstanding natural beauty or through cooperative action machine engineering or designing for the future

Design through Dialogue Karen A. Franck, Teresa von Sommaruga Howard, 2010-02-15 Completed projects receive more public attention than the process of their creation and so the myth that architects design buildings alone lives on In fact architects work with a great many others and the relationships that develop particularly with clients have a significant impact on design Design through Dialogue explores the relationship between client and architect through the lens of four overlapping activities that occur during any project relating talking exploring and transforming Cases of design and collaboration range from smaller scale retail residential and educational projects in the US Sweden the UK and the Pacific Rim to large institutions including Seattle's Central Library the National Museum of the American Indian in Washington DC the Supreme Court in Jerusalem and the Museum of New Zealand Material is taken from interviews with clients and architects and research in psychotherapy group dynamics and design studies Throughout the book aspects of process are linked to design outcomes to illustrate how architects and clients collaborate creatively
