A Concise History of American Architecture Leland M. Roth, 1979 Explores the factors and influences that have enriched American architecture throughout its development from colonial times to the present covering houses apartments factories and office buildings and the architects who designed them Toronto Architect Edmund Burke Angela Carr,1995-05-30 Burke s career spanned a key period in Canadian architecture as the profession transcended its colonial beginnings to reach maturity with Canadian born practitioners who converted both American architectural developments and European traditions into forms appropriate to the new Canadian federation Burke s contributions to Canadian architecture include introducing the technology of the Chicago men to Canada and helping to establish a formal professional organization for architects in Ontario Carr documents a comprehensive selection of Burke s works including his firm s famous Robert Simpson store in Toronto the first curtain wall construction in Canada She places Burke s life and career within the larger social context addressing the influence of American architects and architecture the sociology of professions the organization of architectural offices and the history of particular building forms Toronto Architect Edmund Burke is not only a study of Burke s life and work it is also an insightful look into the history of Canadian architecture The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Cultural and Intellectual History ,2013 Over 600 A Z articles on a wide range of topics in American cultural and intellectual History Explores American cultural and intellectual history from the colonial period to the present day Annotated bibliographies to highlight the major works in the field Expands and updates The Oxford Companion to United States History America's Religious Architecture Marilyn J. Chiat,1997-10-07 From the Moorish synagogue in small Texas town to the New England meetinghouse nestled in the palm trees of Hawaii this comprehensive historical survey of America s religious architecture celebrates the country s ethnic and spiritual diversity through the magnificent breadth of these community landmarks The first comprehensive architectural and cultural history of its kind the book features 500 places of worship nationwide many listed on the National Register of Historic Places Includes over 300 black and white photographs and foreword by Bill Moyers creator of the PBS Genesis series Church and Estate Thomas F. Rzeznik,2013-06-20 In Church and Estate Thomas Rzeznik examines the lives and religious commitments of the Philadelphia elite during the period of industrial prosperity that extended from the late nineteenth century through the 1920s The book demonstrates how their religious beliefs informed their actions and shaped their class identity while simultaneously revealing the ways in which financial influences shaped the character of American religious life In tracing those connections it shows how religion and wealth shared a fruitful yet ultimately tenuous relationship Architecture in the United States, 1800-1850 William Barksdale Maynard,2002-01-01 This study traces the development of American architecture from the age of Jefferson to the antebellum era providing a survey of this important period W Barksdale Maynard overturns the long accepted notions that the chief theme of early 19th century American architecture was a patriotic desire to escape from European influence and that competing styles chiefly reflected the American struggle for cultural uniqueness Instead deep and consistent aesthetic ties especially with England shaped American architecture and house designs Maynard shows that the Greek Revival in particular was an international phenomenon with American achievements inspired by British example and with taste taking precedence over patriotism Frederick Kiesler Shirley Haines-Cooke,2009-03-26 The material for this book has been taken from the 2006 thesis Frederick Kiesler's Art of This Century in New York 1942-1947 in the Context of the Twentieth Century Art Museum The prime objective was to establish why so few people remember Art of This Century which Kiesler designed for Peggy Guggenheim in 1942 and she ruthlessly closed in 1947 A second aim was to investigate why there has been so much research carried out on the Gallery when it was acknowledged as a work of art in its own right at the time of opening Indeed in 2004 Thomas Krens the Guggenheim Foundation's director expressed concern that due to the lack of research it might slip into oblivion Such a statement raises questions as to why it has taken the Guggenheim Foundation over half a century to resurrect Art of This Century in the form of two exhibitions held in Frankfurt and Venice or instigate its own research The book opens with an historical account of the development of the modern art museum as well as an overview of Kiesler's life and multidisciplinary oeuvre His association with selected contemporary architectural theorists and architects is looked at to establish whether they had any influence on his eclectic thinking This is followed by a summary of Kiesler's manifesto On Correalism and Biotechnique A Definition of a New Approach to Building Design 1937-1939 The main body of the work is a detailed description of Art of This Century The notion that Kiesler's innovative theories and designs might be better understood in a twenty first century architectural context is finally explored This book finally restores Frederick Kiesler to his rightful place in the history of twentieth century art and architecture By a careful analysis of his sometimes fraught collaboration with the mercurial Peggy Guggenheim Haines Cooke uncovers the fascinating story of Kiesler's ground breaking new vision for the display of abstract art rendered all the more poignant by its significant yet largely subliminal influence on much of the best in recent museum and gallery architecture Dr Jonathan Hale University of Nottingham Foundations of Justice David Mittelstadt,2005 Based on original research this exhaustive volume provides a rich background to Alberta's historic courthouses Covering in detail all of Alberta's historic courthouses built between 1874 and 1950 this book considers many facets of these unique and significant structures Making and metaphor Gloria A. Hickey,1994-01-01 This multidisciplinary collection of eighteen essays was presented at the conference of the same name It explores the complex and significant role of contemporary craft in society The authors show how linguistic and feminist studies are tools for understanding craft Historical analysis highlights how education architecture and industrial design have influenced craft products and our perceptions of them Social and cultural anthropology show how craft expresses backgrounds of its makers And ethnology and museum studies reveal the assumptions used in collecting identifying and exhibiting craft Published in English Jacob Riis Bathhouse Exterior, Jacob Riis Park Historic District, Gateway National Recreation Area, New Jersey/New York John B.
