American Cinema American Culture 4th Edition:

American Cinema/American Culture John Belton, 2021 This book introduces the reader to basic issues related to the phenomenon of American cinema It looks at American film history from the 1890s through the spring of 2020 but it does not always explore this history in a purely chronological way In fact it is not strictly speaking a history Rather it is a cultural history which focuses more on topics and issues than on what happened when It begins with a profile of classical Hollywood cinema as a unique economic industrial aesthetic and cultural institution It considers the experience of moviegoing the nature of Hollywood storytelling and the roles played by the studio system the star system and film genres in the creation of a body of work that functions not only as entertainment but as a portrait of the relationship between an American national identity and an industrialized mass culture that has slowly evolved over the past century This book assumes that the reader has little or no formal training in film history theory or aesthetics It presents fairly basic concepts in such a way as to encourage discussion not so much of individual films but of films in general For this reason the book concentrates on large groupings of films on genres topics and periods of film history This textbook differs from the more traditional histories of the cinema for certain specific and important reasons Over the past fifty years the field of film study has undergone a tremendous transformation This change has been spearheaded by the work of a new generation of scholars who challenge the traditional way in which film history has been written and taught Introduction to Film courses that fifty years ago taught film as art drew heavily upon the approaches of New Criticism Contemporary film courses now teach film not only as art but also as film and they attempt to situate film as an art form within a larger industrial economic social and cultural context They rely heavily on cultural studies new historicism psychoanalysis and other contemporary critical disciplines Film history texts have changed over the years as well In the past histories consisted of simple chronological accounts of who did what and what happened when and of the stories of great men and their achievements and of straightforward accounts of the influence of technology and economics on the course of a history that unfolds in a linear fashion up to the present More recently film scholars have begun to rewrite these traditional histories creating what Thomas Elsaesser refers to as the New Film History At its best this history is driven by a sophisticated theoretically informed revisionism It simply refuses to accept the easy answers to basic historical questions that had been offered up by past historians With the initial publication of American Cinema American Culture in 1994 the methods and discoveries of the New Film History were applied to an introductory level text surveying the history of the American cinema

American Cinema and Cultural Diplomacy Thomas J. Cobb, 2020-07-25 This book contends that Hollywood films help illuminate the incongruities of various periods in American diplomacy From the war film Bataan to the Revisionist Western The Wild Bunch cinema has long reflected US foreign policy s divisiveness both directly and allegorically Beginning with the 1990s presidential drama The American President and concluding with Joker s allegorical treatment of the Trump era this book posits that the paradigms for political reflection are shifting in American film from explicit subtexts surrounding US statecraft to covert representations of diplomatic disarray It further argues that the International Relations theorist Walter Mead s concept of a US polity dominated by contesting beliefs or a kaleidoscope permeates these changing paradigms This synergy reveals a cultural milieu where foreign policy fissures are increasingly encoded by cinematic representation The interdisciplinarity of this focus renders this book pertinent reading for scholars and students of American Studies Film Studies and International Relations along with those generally interested in Hollywood filmmakers and foreign policy

Chicano-Chicana Americana Anthony Macías,2023-02-07 Chicano Chicana Americana is a cultural history of Mexican Americans in film television and theater Through biographical sketches of performers such as Anthony Quinn Katy Jurado Robert Beltran and Lupe Ontiveros this work asserts Mexican Americans proper place in the national narratives of our collective imaginary Conveying a multicentered polycultural America this book shows us intriguing performers in bit parts who steal the scene and redefine what it means to be American Each biographical chapter analyzes an underappreciated actor revealing their artistic contributions to U S common culture Their long shot careers tell a tale of players taking action with agency and fighting for screen time and equal opportunity despite disadvantages and differential treatment in Hollywood These dynamic and complex individuals altered cinematic representations and audience expectations by surpassing stereotypes The book explores American national character by showing how ethnic Mexicans attained social and cultural status through fair open competition without a radical realignment of political or economic structures Their creative achievements demanded dignity and earned respect Anthony Mac as argues that these performances demonstrated a pop culture pluralism that subtly changed mainstream America transforming it from the mythological past of the Wild West to the speculative future of science fiction American Cinema/American Culture McGraw-Hill Companies, The, Reframing Rhetorical History Kathleen J. Turner, Jason Edward Black, 2022-05-17 Collection of essays that reassesses history as rhetoric and rhetorical history as practice Reimagining the Promised Land Rodney Wallis, 2020-09-17 While Israel has seemingly been a minor presence in Hollywood cinema Reimagining the Promised Land argues that there is a long history of Hollywood deploying images of Israel as a means of articulating an idealized notion of American national identity This argument is developed through readings of The Ten Commandments Cecil B DeMille 1956 Ben Hur A Tale of the Christ William Wyler 1959 Exodus Otto Preminger 1960 Cast a Giant Shadow Melville Shavelson 1966 Black Sunday John Frankenheimer 1977 The Delta Force Menahem Golan 1986 and Munich Steven Spielberg 2005 The mobilization of Israel that pervades this eclectic group of films effectively demonstrates one of the more surreptitious ways in which Hollywood has historically constructed and circulated dominant notions of American national identity Moreover in examining the most notable Hollywood representations of the Jewish state the book offers an informed historical overview of the cultural forces that have contributed to popular understandings within the United States of the state of Israel Israel s Arab neighbours and also the Arab Israeli conflict British Film Institute Film Classics Rob White, Edward Buscombe, 2003 Becoming Carole Lombard Olympia Kiriakou, 2020-02-20 Becoming Carole Lombard Stardom Comedy and Legacy is a historical critique of the development and reception of Carole Lombard s stardom from the classical Hollywood period to present day Based on original archival research Olympia Kiriakou combines theoretically informed textual analyses of Lombard s performances and star image across different media biographies publicity materials photography and film with a critical engagement of the cultural economic social and industrial conditions that shaped her stardom Sitting at the intersection of feminist film theory star studies and comedy theory this work presents Lombard as a case study to challenge the screwball canon and existent academic discourse about female physical comedy and the alleged delicate female body In doing so it formulates a new historical approach to understanding gender femininity and identity in Hollywood comedies of the 1930s Moreover this is the first research of its kind to offer a comprehensive understanding of Lombard s stardom beyond her associations with the screwball comedy genre Masculinity in the Interracial Buddy Film Melvin Donalson, 2005-12-20 Feature films function as a keeper of America s collective conscience a repository of fears guilt and hopes Buddy films about men of different races depict a world where a peaceful balance is possible and conflicts can be resolved Since the 1930s these films have presented various forms of masculinity reflecting dominant mainstream social traditions images of men and manhood within the culture Interracial buddy films include such examples as Silver Streak 48 Hrs Beverly Hills Cop Lethal Weapon and The Shawshank Redemption Many of these films have been made into franchises furthering their cultural importance as filmic versions of interracial equality This critical study analyzes the idealized interracial relationships the heterosexual masculine roles within the films and the appearances of this kind of film in various genres The book is arranged in six major chapters each focusing upon a particular era in the development of the interracial buddy film The book also examines the film sequel as a validation of the enduring significance of interracial interaction The scope of the work is not limited to Caucasian African American pairings Films with a myriad of racial and ethnic combinations are also analyzed such as Tin Cup Rush Hour Shanghai Noon and Ocean's Eleven
