American Dreams Peter Carey:

Reflections on Peter Carey's American Dreams Christoph Burger, 2014-01-24 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 1 University of Vienna language English abstract This paper consists of two main parts 1 a short description of the writing style setting and main characters of the short story titled American Dreams by Peter Carey and 2 a brief interpretation of the short story Peter Carey Bruce Woodcock, 2013-07-19 This is a revised and expanded edition of Woodcock's accessible study now including detailed readings of Carey's latest novels Jack Maggs and True History of the Kelly Gang Peter Carey Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2010-03-10 Peter Carey writer of such celebrated works as Oscar and Lucinda True History of the Kelly Gang and His Illegal Self is one of Australia's most critically acclaimed novelists Deeply concerned with South Pacific culture especially the lives of its most downtrodden citizens Carey uses popular art as a tool for raising the consciousness of readers This book provides an introduction to the author's life as well as a guided overview of his body of work Designed for the fan and scholar alike this text features an alphabetized fully annotated listing of major terms in the Carey canon including fictional characters motifs historical events and themes Additional features include a listing of headwords a Carey history 44 reading and writing topics and bibliographies of primary and secondary sources A comprehensive index is included International Management Sheila M. Puffer, 2015-04-15 Exploring topics covered in international management courses this book pairs business articles and fictional short stories to provide practical guidelines and concrete examples and convey cultural subtleties and shades of meaning Antipodean America Paul Giles, 2013 A sweeping study that spans two continents and over three hundred years of literary history Antipodean America identifies the surprising affinities between Australian and American literature

Fabulating Beauty Andreas Gaile, 2005 Peter Carey is one of Australia's finest creative writers much admired by both literary critics and a worldwide reading public While academia has been quick to see his fictions as exemplars of postcolonial and postmodern writing strategies his general readership has been captivated by his deadpan sense of humour his quirky characters the outlandish settings and the grotesqueries of his intricate plots After three decades of prolific writing and multiple award winning Carey stands out in the world of Australian letters as designated heir to Patrick White Fabulating Beauty pays tribute to Carey's literary achievement It brings together the voices of many of the most renowned Carey critics in twenty essays sixteen commissioned especially for this volume an interview with the author as well as the most extensive bibliography of Carey criticism to date The studies represent a wide range of current perspectives on the writer's fictions

Dancing on Hot Macadam Anthony J. Hassall, 1998 This is the first comprehensive study of one of the world's most gifted and exciting writers It follows Peter Carey's career from the nightmare haunted stories of The Fat Man in History and War Crimes to the madcap satire of Bliss from Illywhacker's picaresque landscapes to Oscar and Lucinda's glittering achievement and the powerfully confronting vision of The Tax Inspector Dancing on Hot Macadam is a lucid account of Peter

Carey's fiction and its intriguing critical reception It explores his preoccupation with imprisonment and metamorphosis and the desire of his characters to escape from bewildering roles relationships and societies Dancing on Hot Macadam is another volume in the excellent Studies in Australian Literature series It is a sound and persuasive critique that gets much better as it goes along Times Literary Supplement The book contains a lot of ideas and will be the base from which to draw the map of Carey's fiction as it develops further Julian Croft Weekend Australian

Cultural Sustainability in Rural Communities Catherine Driscoll, Kate Darian-Smith, David Nichols, 2017-07-06 There has been a recent expansion of interest in cultural approaches to rural communities and to the economic and social situation of rurality more broadly This interest has been particularly prominent in Australia in recent years spurring the emergence of an interdisciplinary field called rural cultural studies This collection is framed by a large interdisciplinary research project that is part of that emergence particularly focused on what the idea of cultural sustainability might mean for understanding experiences of growth decline change and heritage in small Australian country towns However it extends beyond the initial parameters of that research bringing together a range of senior and emerging Australian researchers who offer diverse approaches to rural culture The essays collected here explore the diverse forms that rural cultural studies might take and how these intersect with other disciplinary approaches offering a uniquely diverse but also careful account of life in country Australia Yet in its emphasis on the simultaneous specificity and cross cultural recognisability of rural communities this book also outlines a field of inquiry and a set of critical strategies that are more broadly applicable to thinking about the rural in the early twenty first century This book will be valuable reading for students and academics of Geography History Literary Studies Cultural Studies Anthropology and Sociology introducing rural cultural studies as a new dynamic and integrative discipline

Caring Cultures, 2006 Contributed articles presented at the International Seminar on Caring Cultures Sharing Imaginations Australia and India during January 20-21 2004 Dept of English Dayanand College Ajmer in collaboration with Australia India Council

Alienation and Resistance Laura Findlay, Gordon Spark, 2020-05-22 This collection draws together recent work by new and emerging scholars which examines the representation of alienation and resistance in texts and images both modern and traditional The essays collected here incorporate both high and low culture covering a wide range of disciplines from traditional literary sources to the more modern mediums of film and comic Informing each of the contributions is one overriding question what are the roles forms and conditions of alienation and resistance in our culture and its diverse media The contributors to this collection find examples of both alienation and resistance everywhere from sixteenth century drama to contemporary fiction from American comics to Eastern European cinema from representations of the body to the site of the body itself In seeking out these representations of alienation and resistance the essays begin also to probe the limits and limitations of such terms As such the collection as a whole offers both a broad overview of the field of play as it stands today and makes tentative suggestions as to potential paths of future inquiry

Peter Carey Keyvan Allahyari, 2023-04-11 Peter

Carey The Making of a Global Novelist recounts Peter Carey's literary career from his emergence in the Australian literary scene as a contributor to local literary magazines to when he published his fiction exclusively with large conglomerate publishers As Australia's most decorated author for a period nearing half a century Carey's career gives unparalleled insights into the global contemporary publishing and the making of global literary prestige from the periphery and significant cultural currency for Australian literature and culture worldwide Carey's fiction is not only a product of the global dynamic in literary publishing of the last quarter of the twentieth century but also it holds something of its productive tension for Australian writing and writers Allahyari retraces the fraught synthesis of an individual literary proclivity with a growing commercial cultural appetite the coincidence of Carey's career with the conglomeration of global publishing pushed further towards anti elitist popular aesthetics Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 , A Talent(ed) Digger ,2022-05-20 Anna Rutherford has been the most dynamic ambassador of Australian culture in Europe More than any other single person she has been instrumental in spreading interest in Commonwealth and post colonial studies Wherever she has been in the world she has brought people together in friendship and intellectual endeavour This volume ranges widely over the areas Anna has promoted as teacher editor and publisher The Pain of Unbelonging Sheila Collingwood-Whittick,2007 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors

Contemporary Australian Literature Nicholas Birns,2015-12-01 Australia has been seen as a land of both punishment and refuge Australian literature has explored these controlling alternatives and vividly rendered the landscape on which they transpire Twentieth century writers left Australia to see the world now Australia's distance no longer provides sanctuary But today the global perspective has arrived with a vengeance In Contemporary Australian Literature A World Not Yet Dead Nicholas Birns tells the story of how novelists poets and critics from Patrick White to Hannah Kent from Alexis Wright to

Christos Tsiolkas responded to this condition With rancour concern and idealism modern Australian literature conveys a tragic sense of the past yet an abiding vision of the way forward Birns paints a vivid picture of a rich Australian literary voice one not lost to the churning of global markets but in fact given new life by it Contrary to the despairing of the critics Australian literary identity continues to flourish And as Birns finds it is not one thing but many In this remarkable bold and fearless book Nicholas Birns contests how literary cultures are read how they are constituted and what they stand for In examining the nature of the barriers between public and private utterance and looking outside the absurdity of the rules of genre Birns has produced a redemptive analysis that leaves hope for revivifying a world not yet dead John Kinsella

Reading Across the Pacific Robert Dixon, Nicholas Birns, 2010 Reading Across the Pacific is a study of literary and cultural engagement between the United States and Australia from a contemporary interdisciplinary perspective The book examines the relations of the two countries shifting the emphasis from the broad cultural patterns that are often compared to the specific networks interactions and crossings that have characterised Australian literature in the United States and American literature in Australia In the 21st century both American and Australian literatures are experiencing new challenges to the very different paradigms of literary history and criticism each inherited from the 20th century In response to these challenges scholars of both literatures are seizing the opportunity to reassess and reconfigure the conceptual geography of national literary spaces as they are reformed by vectors that evade or exceed them including the transnational the local and the global The essays in Reading Across the Pacific are divided into five sections National literatures and transnationalism Poetry and poetics Literature and popular culture The Cold War and Publishing history and transpacific print cultures

Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda, Jennie Germann Molz, 2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism Attuning to affect and emotion this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words For this reason as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes self love and travelling mittens and across socio spatial theories of emotions decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism Along with the contributors to this volume the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Philosophical Issues in Tourism John Tribe, 2009-03-19 Despite the geometric expansion of tourism knowledge some areas have remained stubbornly underdeveloped and a full or comprehensive consideration of the philosophical issues of tourism represents one such significant knowledge gap A key aim of this book therefore is to provide an initial mapping of and fresh insights into this territory In doing so it discusses key philosophical questions in the field such as What is tourism Who is a tourist What is wisdom What is it to know something What is the nature of reality Why are some destinations considered beautiful Why is tourism desirable What is good and bad tourism What are desirable ends These and similar topics are addressed this book under the headings of truth beauty and virtue Five Sides of the Fence Terry Cantwell, 2005-12-01 softcover Five Sides of the Fence is a 32 piece non fiction collection The stories include a working journalist s experiences of the media a study of the anti globalisation movement in Australia some literary journalism the author s personal reflections and a touch of satire humour and political verse This eclectic mix of creative non fiction pieces questions the political social and personal fences that both motivate us and restrain us Fives Sides of the Fence includes 18 previously unpublished pieces It will appeal to anybody interested in contemporary culture Text, Theory, Space Kate Darian-Smith, Liz Gunner, Sarah Nuttall, 2005-08-04 Text Theory Space is a landmark in post colonial criticism and theory Focusing on two white settler societies South Africa and Australia the contributors investigate the meaning of the South as an aesthetic political geographical and cultural space Drawing upon a wide range of disciplines which include literature history urban and cultural geography politics and anthropology the contributors examine crucial issues including defining what the South encompasses investigating ideas of space history land and landscape claiming naming and possessing land national and personal boundaries questions of race gender and nationalism
