American Goddess Rape Nanking Courage:

American Goddess at the Rape of Nanking Hualing Hu,2000-10 The Japanese army's brutal occupation of the city of Nanking during the 1937 Sino Japanese War is known for good reason as the rape of Nanking As they slaughtered an estimated 300 000 people the invading soldiers raped more than 20 000 women some estimates run as high as 80 000 Hualing Hu presents here the amazing untold story of the American missionary Minnie Vautrin whose unswerving defiance of the Japanese protected the lives of 10 000 Chinese women and children at the eventual cost of her own and made her a legend among the Chinese people she served The Nanking Atrocity, 1937-38 Bob Tadashi Wakabayashi,2007 Events in Nanking during 1937 38 are the subject of a ferocious historiographical debate between Chinese Japanese points of view This volume seeks to debunk the myths promoted by scholars on both sides of the argument present a revisionist view of the atrocity that complicates the picture The Nanking Atrocity, 1937-1938 Bob Tadashi Wakabayashi,2007-12-15 Events in Nanking during 1937 38 are the subject of a ferocious historiographical debate between Chinese Japanese points of view This volume seeks to debunk the myths promoted by scholars on both sides of the argument present a revisionist view of the atrocity that complicates the picture Handbook of Christianity in China Gary Tiedemann,2009-12-02 This second volume on Christianity in China covers the period from 1800 onwards up to the present divided into three main periods and dealing with the complexities of both Catholic and Protestant aspects Also in this volume the reader will be guided to and through the Chinese and Western primary and secondary sources by carefully selected major scholars in the field Produced with financial support from the Ricci Institute at the University of San Francisco Center for the Pacific Rim Daughter of Drum Mountain Gail Pilley Harris,2023-11-08 This is the story of a brilliant woman who struggled to understand Christianity in the midst of war loss and depression Empires of Ideas William C. Kirby,2022-07-05 The United States is the global leader in higher education but this was not always the case and may not remain so William Kirby examines sources of and threats to US higher education supremacy and charts the rise of Chinese competitors Yet Chinese institutions also face problems including a state that challenges the commitment to free inquiry The Jacquinet Safe Zone Marcia R. Ristaino,2008 The Jacquinet Zone in Shanghai is the first example in history of a successful safe zone that provided protection and security to half a million Chinese refugees living in a battle zone during wartime "Useless to the State" Zwia Lipkin,2020-03-17 In 1911 Joseph Bailie a professor at Nanjing University often took his Chinese students to tour Nanjing's shantytowns One student the son of a district magistrate followed Bailie from hut to hut one rainy day and was grateful that Bailie opened his eyes to the poverty in his own city However twenty years later when M R Schafer another Nanjing University professor showed his students a film that included his own photographs of the poor quarters of Nanjing his students were so upset that they demanded his expulsion from China Zwia Lipkin explores the reasons for these starkly different reactions Nanjing in the 1910s was a quiet city compared to 1930s Nanjing which was by that time the national capital Nanjing had become a symbol of national authority aiming not only to become a model of modernization for the rest of China but also to surpass Paris London and Washington Underlying all of Nanjing's policies was a concern for the capital's image and looks offensive people were allowed to exist as long as they remained invisible Lipkin exposes both the process of social engineering and the ways in which the suppressed reacted to their abuse Like Professor Schafer's movie this book puts the poor at the center of the picture defying efforts to make them invisible

Tears of the Yangtze Corih Kim, 2016-04-26 The Tears of Yangtze explores the theme of human suffering the cost of war and its lasting impact The story follows the life of Sel Lin Chao an ordinary teenage girl living in Zhenjiang with her two older brothers a sickly father and her younger sister As the Japanese Imperial Army closes in and changes everything about her life she must learn to adapt and survive in an unpredictable world

Women and Wars Carol Cohn, 2013-09-04 Where are the women In traditional historical and scholarly accounts of the making and fighting of wars women are often nowhere to be seen With few exceptions war stories are told as if men were the only ones who plan fight are injured by and negotiate ends to wars As the pages of this book tell though those accounts are far from complete Women can be found at every turn in the gendered phenomena of war Women have participated in the making fighting and concluding of wars throughout history and their participation is only increasing at the turn of the 21st century Women experience war in multiple ways as soldiers as fighters as civilians as caregivers as sex workers as sexual slaves refugees and internally displaced persons as anti war activists as community peace builders and more This book at once provides a glimpse into where women are in war and gives readers the tools to understand women's told and untold war experiences in the greater context of the gendered nature of global social and political life

China's War Reporters Parks M. Coble, 2015-03-09 When Japan invaded China in 1937 Chinese journalists greeted the news with euphoria convinced their countrymen led by Chiang Kai shek would triumph Parks Coble shows that correspondents underplayed China's defeats for fear of undercutting morale and then saw their writings disappear and themselves denounced after the Communists came to power

Why the West is Best Ibn Warraq, 2011-12-13 We in the West in general and the United States in particular have witnessed over the last twenty years a slow erosion of our civilizational self confidence Under the influence of intellectuals and academics in Western universities intellectuals such as Gore Vidal Susan Sontag Edward Said and Noam Chomsky and destructive intellectual fashions such as post modernism moral relativism and multiculturalism the West has lost all self confidence in its own values and seems incapable and unwilling to defend those values By contrast resurgent Islam in all its forms is supremely confident and is able to exploit the West s moral weakness and cultural confusion to demand ever more concessions from her The growing political and demographic power of Muslim communities in the West aided and abetted by Western apologists of Islam not to mention a compliant pro Islamic US Administration has resulted in an ever increasing demand for the implementation of Islamic law the Sharia into the fabric of Western law and Western constitutions There is an urgent need to examine why the Sharia is totally incompatible with Human Rights and the US Constitution This book the first of its kind proposes to examine the Sharia and its potential and actual threat to democratic principles This book defines and defends Western values strengths and freedoms often taken for granted This book also tackles the taboo subjects of racism in Asian culture Arab slavery and Islamic Imperialism It begins with a homage to New York City as a metaphor for all we hold dear in Western culture pluralism individualism freedom of expression and thought the complete freedom to pursue life liberty and happiness unhampered by totalitarian regimes and theocratic doctrines China's Christian Colleges Daniel Bays, Ellen Widmer, 2009-02-27 A new generation of China scholars offers a fresh look at the unusual cross cultural territory constituted by China s missionary established Christian colleges before 1950 in this fascinating work Performing Adaptations Michelle MacArthur, Lydia Wilkinson, Keren Zaiontz, 2009-03-26 Performing Adaptations Conversations and Essays on the Theory and Practice of Adaptation brings together scholars and artists from across North America and the United Kingdom to contribute to the growing discourse on adaptation in the arts An ideal text for students of theatre drama and performance studies this volume offers a ground breaking set of essays interviews and artistic reflections that assess adaptation from the perspective of live performance an aspect of the field that has been under explored until now The diverse authors and interview subjects in this anthology take a variety of approaches to both creating and analyzing adaptations demonstrating the form s suitability for testing and speaking back to dominant models of creation production and analysis Featuring articles by pioneering adaptation scholar Linda Hutcheon and critically acclaimed writer and critic George Elliott Clarke Performing Adaptations advances the field of adaptation studies in new and exciting ways The authors in Performing Adaptations do not comprise a comprehensive view of adaptation studies but represent a collection of gutsy voices that use adaptation to test and speak back to dominant models of creation production and analysis Some of these perspectives include a group of artists from the African Diaspora Europe and Canada the AfriCan Theatre Ensemble the voice of Chinese Canadian playwright Marjorie Chan the innovative storytelling of Beth Watkins and her adaptation of letters written by transgendered student activist Jesse Carr the views of vanguard Canadian queer filmmaker John Greyson and African Canadian poet novelist and critic George Elliott Clarke Their adaptation of sources to other genres mediums and cultural contexts represent the act of a radical dialogical reading writ large

Han Heroes and Yamato Warriors Amanda Weiss, 2023-08-21 Taking the tidal wave of memory in the late twentieth and early twenty first century as its starting point this monograph explores collective memory of World War II in East Asia 1937 1945 through film Weiss argues that Chinese Japanese and American remembrance of World War II is intertwined in what she terms a memory loop the transnational mediation and remediation of war narratives Gender is central to this process as the changing representation of male soldiers political leaders and patriarchal father figures within these narratives reveals Japanese and Chinese challenges to each other and to the perceived foundational American narrative of the war This process continues to intensify due to the globally visible nature of the memory loop which drives this cycle of transmission translation and reassessment This volume is the first to bring together a collection of Chinese and Japanese war films that have received little attention in English language literature It also produces new readings of popular war memory in East Asia by revealing the gendered dimensions of collective remembrance in these films This awesome book shows how Chinese and Japanese films about the Second World War both reflect and shape memories of that conflict Moreover by analyzing movies about the war and the ensuing competing masculinities Amanda Weiss skillfully discloses their impact on subsequent conceptions of race gender and identity Highly recommended Kam Louie University of Hong Kong

Amanda Weiss who views film as a significant mode of popular memory traveling beyond national border discovers a loop of mutual interaction in the representation of Chinese and Japanese war films deeply intertwined with the nationalism of both countries Her skill in capturing the intersection of cross border memories in visual images such as the Tokyo Trials warrior rape and reconciliation is remarkable This is a transcendent achievement that could only be accomplished by Weiss who fully understands both Japanese and Chinese languages and deeply understands the movements of consciousness among the people of these countries during her long stay in Japan and China Shunya Yoshimi University of Tokyo 1980
