American Creation Triumphs And Tragedies In The Founding Of The Republic:

American Creation Joseph J. Ellis, 2007-10-30 From the first shots fired at Lexington to the signing of the Declaration of Independence to the negotiations for the Louisiana Purchase Joseph J Ellis guides us through the decisive issues of the nation's founding and illuminates the emerging philosophies shifting alliances and personal and political foibles of our now iconic leaders Washington Jefferson Madison Hamilton and Adams He casts an incisive eye on the founders achievements arguing that the American Revolution was paradoxically an evolution and that part of what made it so extraordinary was the gradual pace at which it occurred He explains how the idea of a strong federal government was eventually embraced by the American people and details the emergence of the two party system which stands as the founders most enduring legacy Ellis is equally incisive about their failures and he makes clear how their inability to abolish slavery and to reach a just settlement with the Native Americans has played an equally important role in shaping our national character With eloquence and insight Ellis strips the mythic veneer of the revolutionary generation to reveal men both human and inspired possessed of both brilliance and blindness American Creation is an audiobook that delineates an era of flawed greatness at a time when understanding our origins is more important than ever

Peninsula Campaign and the Necessity of Emancipation Glenn David Brasher, 2012 The Peninsula Campaign and the Necessity of Emancipation Dislocating Race and Nation Robert S. Levine, 2009-06-01 American literary nationalism is traditionally understood as a cohesive literary tradition developed in the newly independent United States that emphasized the unique features of America and consciously differentiated American literature from British literature Robert S Levine challenges this assessment by exploring the conflicted multiracial and contingent dimensions present in the works of late eighteenth and nineteenth century American and African American writers Conflict and uncertainty not consensus Levine argues helped define American literary nationalism during this period Levine emphasizes the centrality of both inter and intra American conflict in his analysis of four illuminating episodes of literary responses to questions of U S racial nationalism and imperialism He examines Charles Brockden Brown and the Louisiana Purchase David Walker and the debates on the Missouri

Compromise Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville and Hannah Crafts and the blood based literary nationalism and expansionism of the mid nineteenth century and Frederick Douglass and his approximately forty year interest in Haiti Levine offers critiques of recent developments in whiteness and imperialism studies arguing that a renewed attention to the place of contingency in American literary history helps us to better understand and learn from writers trying to make sense of their own historical moments The Encyclopedia of Diplomacy, 4 Volume Set Gordon Martel, 2018-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Diplomacy is a complete and authoritative 4 volume compendium of the most important events people and terms associated with diplomacy and international relations from ancient times to the present from a global perspective An invaluable resource for anyone interested in diplomacy its history and the relations between states Includes newer areas of scholarship such as the role of non state organizations including the UN and M decins Sans Fronti res and the exercise of soft power as well as issues of globalization and climate change Provides clear concise information on the most important events people and terms associated with diplomacy and international relations in an A Z format All entries are rigorously peer reviewed to ensure the highest quality of scholarship Provides a platform to introduce unfamiliar terms and concepts to students engaging with the literature of the field for the first time American Creation Joseph J.
