Post-Orientalism and Contemporary American Novels Mousa Abu Haserah, 2023-08-09 This book provides a scientific and academic contribution to the scholarly exploration of the complex relationship between the East and the West in American literature The study focuses on four novels Mornings in Jenin Falling Man The Reluctant Fundamentalist and Riyah Al Janna The Wind of Paradise to discuss how the literature reflects on Middle Eastern themes in relation to the situations and conditions of the New East It treats the Orient as a moving body and takes Edward Said's Orientalism into account also showing Post Orientalism or the New East as a literary phenomenon in the 21st century specializing in politics militarism and post colonial ideology The book explains and divides the Middle East into two parts the Arab Islamic Middle East and the non Arab Islamic Middle East It highlights the similarities and differences between these two parts as depicted in various novels presenting the East as a land of desolation and destruction due to the political regional and religious changes that have shaken it

Recognitions Enrico Botta, Gianna Fusco, Pilar Martínez Benedí, Anna Scannavini, 2024-11-04 This volume offers a critical exploration of the many ways in which transcodification acts at the intersection of literature art history and social and cultural artifacts to foster instances of recognition in the US Recognition covers a wealth of meanings from the mere acknowledgement of existence validity or legality or appreciation of something as valuable to the identification of something as known or familiar Accordingly this volume deals with different struggles for recognition One focus of the volume is the assessment of artistic achievement in relation to a so called original with essays concerned with cultural codes and with the role that translation adaptation and cross cultural encounters have played in US artistic and literary productions A second parallel strand focuses on the fight for political and social inclusion or on the dynamics beneath the recognition of group and gender identities to explore how activism and artistic literary productions challenge received identity boundaries and accepted social and cultural hierarchies Bringing together recognition and transcodification transculturality the book deconstructs crystalized and codified categories and celebrates the crossing of boundaries

Authenticity and the Public Literary Self Sreedhevi Iyer, 2024-02-29 This is the first book length study on how authors of color present themselves in public literary discourse The study utilizes data obtained from and around exemplary empirical case study participants Junot Diaz Madeleine Thien and Mohsin Hamid Relevant data includes the case study authors Twitter usage and the impact of the digital sphere in author self presentation Dr Iyer employs a combined theoretical framework of discourse analysis and interactional sociolinguistics with an awareness of literary and creative writing studies The theoretical approach uses four metapragmatic stereotypes regarding what constitutes an authentic author The theoretical approach and metapragmatic stereotype form an evaluative framework that can be applied on diverse data to replicate findings The study originated from the author's own exposure to prevailing literary discourse through public engagements as a writer She became aware of the problematic nature of an author's public self presentation with a requirement to be yourself Each celebrity author of color faces a paradoxical positioning within literary discourse as a result of that requirement Through her study Dr Iyer sought to discover how authors of color negotiate themselves in public spheres including digital social media platforms in order to accomplish authenticity discursively This book is ideal for learners and practitioners in creative writing who are seeking strategies for self presentation as published authors It is also valuable for researchers in discourse analysis including literary discourse and social media discourse providing an empirical means of evaluating authenticity as understood in contemporary times Profiles and Plotlines

Flat-World Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2021-12-15 Flat World Fiction analyzes representations of digital technology and the social and ethical concerns it creates in mainstream literary American fiction and fiction written about the United States in the first two decades of the twenty first century In this period authors such as Don DeLillo Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers Joshua Ferris Jonathan Safran Foer Mohsin Hamid Thomas Pynchon Kristen Roupenian Gary Shteyngart and Zadie Smith found themselves not only implicated in the developing digital world of flat screens but also threatened by it while simultaneously attempting to critique it As a result their texts explore how human relationships with digital devices and media transform human identity and human relationships with one another history divinity capitalism and nationality Liliana M Naydan walks us through these complex relationships revealing how authors show through their fiction that technology is political In the process these authors complement and expand on work by historians philosophers and social scientists creating accessible literary road maps to our digital future

The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context Laura Savu Walker, 2015-11-19 The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context offers a timely contribution to the debates about the good life that surround us every day in the media politics the humanities and social sciences The authors examine the relationship between the good life and the greater good as represented across different genres media cultures and disciplines This enables them to develop a framework of values that transcends the overly rational and individualistic model of the good life advanced by neoliberalism and the happiness industry Thus over and against normative conceptualizations of the good life that reduce meaning to money creativity to consumption and compassion to self help the contributors propose an ethically charged philosophy of living that views the care for the self for the other and for the planet as the catalysts of true human flourishing In addition to recovering the original usage of the good life from classical thought especially the Aristotelian understanding of eudaimonia as living well and doing well the essays gathered here highlight its entanglement with distinctly modern ideas of happiness wellbeing flourishing progress revolution democracy the American Dream utopia and sustainability As such the essays capture the breadth and depth of the conversation about the good life that is of central importance to how we relate to the past engage the present and envision the future

The State of Race Sze Wei Ang, 2019-01-01 An innovative comparative study of the role racial stereotypes play in expressing state power under globalization Contemporary ideas about race are often assumed to be products of specific locales and histories yet we find versions of the same ideas about race across countries and cultures How can we account for this paradox In The State of Race Sze Wei Ang argues that globalization has led to new ways of using racial stereotypes as shorthand for complex social relations in disparate national contexts Literature then provides a key to understanding these labels and the role that race has played in shoring up state power since World War II Ang contends that in an era marked by global economic dependence the nation state has only become more rather than less central to organizing social life via tropes of race that cast human and cultural differences in morally charged terms Focusing on a series of Asian American and Malaysian texts Ang tracks the significance of two figures in particular the model minority and the communist spy Appearing in novels politics and popular culture these stereotypes anchor powerful narratives about race global capital and state sovereignty In exploring the United States and Malaysia two countries that seem to not have much in common Ang reveals how they share very similar ways of conceptualizing race and sheds light on an emerging global story of value This book is an innovative and transnational study that demonstrates a rigorous and revelatory comprehension of Malaysian racial formation in a global context The literary readings and their framing as well as the incisive movement through key racial projects in Malaysia's postcolonial history are all exceptional
