If Not Now, When? Primo Levi, 1986 In the final days of World War II a courageous band of Jewish partisans makes its way from Russia to Italy moving toward the ultimate goal of Palestine Based on a true story If Not Now When chronicles their adventures as they wage a personal war of revenge against the Nazis blowing up trains rescuing the last victims of concentration camps scoring victories in the face of unspeakable devastation Primo Levi captures the landscape and the people of Eastern Europe in vivid detail depicting as well the terrible bleakness of war ridden Europe But finally what he gives us is a tribute to the strength and ingenuity of the human spirit

Primo Levi Joseph Farrell, 2004 Primo Levi has been identified in the public mind as the supreme witness to the barbarism that was the Nazi Holocaust but he was ambivalent about having that role thrust upon him He also wished to be judged as a writer who in addition to the autobiographical works on his experiences in the death camps wrote poetry produced volumes of sci fi stories authored novels and contributed critical essays to newspapers on a range of topics and writers No one has the right to ignore or downplay the testimony Primo Levi offered but it is time to examine the wider vision inherent in his work and to explore the tradition in which he operated Levi was one of the great wisdom writers of his age whose ethical authority somewhat to his own embarrassment was accepted in many fields Several contributors to this collection of essays see him as a proponent of Enlightenment values or as heir to a longer Humanist tradition Even after enduring Auschwitz he held fast to a notion of the dignity of the human person and no man did more to re establish however quizzically the secular basis for such beliefs His overall standing as writer is the subject of this book

Primo Levi Berel Lang, Ariella Lang, 2013-11-26 Presents the life of the Italian Jewish author examining his dual intellectual role as a scientist and writer and the legacy of his works in which he details his life as a survivor of Auschwitz

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Primo Levi Nicholas Patruno, Roberta Ricci, 2014-11-01 Primo Levi Holocaust survivor and renowned memoirist is one of the most widely read writers of post World War II Italy His works are characterized by the lean dispassionate eloquence with which he approaches his experience of incarceration in Auschwitz His memoirs as well as his poetry and fiction and his many interviews are often taught in several fields including Jewish studies and Holocaust studies comparative literature and Italian language and literature and can enrich the study of history psychology and philosophy The first part of this volume provides instructors with an overview of the available editions anthologies and translations of Levi's work and identifies other useful classroom aids such as films

music and online resources In the second part contributors describe different approaches to teaching Levi's work Some in presenting Survival in Auschwitz The Reawakening and The Drowned and the Saved look at the place of style in Holocaust testimony and the reliability of memory in autobiography Others focus on questions of translation complicated by the untranslatable in the language and experiences of the concentration camps or on how Levi incorporates his background as a chemist into his writing most clearly in The Periodic Table Inscribing the Other Sander L. Gilman, 1991-01-01 Inscribing the Other focuses on great authors who have by birth or choice or both found themselves outside the mainstream of their culture but who have still wished to address it Goethe Freud Wilde Heine Nietzsche and Isaac Bashevis Singer among others In thirteen probing provocative essays Sander L Gilman reinterprets their writing as it reveals their efforts to come to terms with their real or imagined sense of difference The chapters treat many themes and problems ranging widely from the romantic notion of the transcendent artist to the twentieth century artists in exile and employing the perspectives of psychiatry aesthetics photography politics and the history of mentalities The fate of Jewish writers in modern Germany or of Yiddish writers whose language is devalued in European culture is explored The theme of difference and its artistic and intellectual manifestations runs throughout the book which includes discussions of Goethe's and Wilde's homosexuality Nietzsche's madness Heine's refusal to be photographed and Primo Levi's internment at Auschwitz as well as an interview with Singer In a frank autobiographical introduction Gilman attempts to understand his own writing as an exercise in inscribing the Other in dealing with his own sense of difference through artistic creation The Holocaust Novel Efraim Sicher, 2013-10-31 The first comprehensive study of Holocaust literature as a major postwar literary genre The Holocaust Novel provides an ideal student guide to the powerful and moving works written in response to this historical tragedy This student friendly volume answers a dire need for readers to understand a genre in which boundaries and often blurred between history fiction autobiography and memoir Other essential features for students here include an annotated bibliography chronology and further reading list Major texts discussed include such widely taught works as Night Maus The Shawl Schindler's List Sophie's Choice White Noise and Time's Arrow The Jews in Italy Yaron Harel, Mauro Perani, 2019-10-01 All twenty two original articles in the current volume are based on lectures given at the conference The Jews in Italy Their Contribution to the Development and Diffusion of Jewish Heritage which was convened in September 2011 at the University of Bologna Department of Cultural Heritage Geographically the articles range from Italy to the Ottoman Empire the Balkans and Aleppo from France and Germany to the Middle East including Israel North and East Africa Morocco Tunisia Libya and Ethiopia Chronologically articles begin with the Roman period through the Middle Ages and Renaissance until modern times In this collection the reader will find a wide range of subjects reflecting various scholarly perspectives such as history Christian Jewish relations Kabbalah commentary on the Bible and Talmud language grammar and translation literature philosophy gastronomy art culture folklore and education Poetics of Disturbances , 2024-10-28 This volume calls for a Narratology of Diversity by investigating narratives of non normative bodies and minds It explores mental health representations in literature including neurodiversity the body mind nexus and embodied non normativities therein emphasizing the importance of understanding diverse psychological conditions as represented in narratives The contributions include perspectives from a wide variety of scholars of European North American and comparative literature and culture While post classical narratology has evolved through phases of diversification and consolidation this volume represents innovation in understanding narrative development to embrace new areas of social awareness including gendered narratologies specifically feminist and queer narratologies and post colonial criticism paving the way for a more inclusive narratology

Hope and Memory Tzvetan Todorov, Cvetan Todorov, 2016-05-31 Both a political history and a moral critique of the twentieth century this is a personal and impassioned book from one of Europe s most outstanding intellectuals Identifying totalitarianism as the major innovation of the twentieth century Tzvetan Todorov examines the struggle between this system and democracy and its effects on human life and consciousness Totalitarianism managed to impose itself because more than any other political system it played on people s need for the absolute it fed their hope to endow life with meaning by taking part in the construction of a paradise on earth As a result millions of people lost their lives in the name of a higher good While democracy eventually won the struggle against totalitarianism in much of the world democracy itself is not immune to the pitfall of do goodery moral correctness at home and atomic or humanitarian bombs abroad Todorov explores the history of the past century not only by analyzing its spectacular political conflicts but also by offering moving profiles of several individuals who at great personal cost resisted the strictures of the communist and Nazi regimes Some Margarete Buber Neumann David Rousset Primo Levi and Germaine Tillion were deported to concentration camps Others Vasily Grossman and Romain Gary fought courageously in World War II All became exemplary witnesses who described with great lucidity and humanity what they had endured This book preserves the memory of the past as we move into the twenty first century arguing eloquently that we must place the past at the service of a just future

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading

Motherhood, Fatherland, and Primo Levi Robert Pirro, 2017-09-05 Motherhood Fatherland and Primo Levi The Hidden

Groundwork of Agency in his Auschwitz Writings offers major new insights into the political dimensions of Levi's thought by using those texts conventionally thought to be marginal to his oeuvre i.e. his short works of science fiction and fantasy and his World War Two partisan novel to deepen our understanding of the lessons he offered in his more well known and celebrated texts Survival in Auschwitz and The Drowned and the Saved. Typically cast as one of the most profound theorists of what human beings at their worst can do to one another, Levi appears in this book as in addition a theorist who affirms a politics of active and broad participation in republican institutions as an important means of achieving a fulfilled human life. This book reinterprets Levi's political significance by bringing to bear two literatures that have been previously missing from scholarly considerations of Levi's legacy: psychologically informed analyses of how infantile and toddler experience of and relationship to a primary caretaker shape later perceptions of self and relationship; and studies of Machiavelli's variant of republican thought in which major emphasis is placed on founding institutions of civic participation that develop responsible political leaders and foster good citizenship. In the aftermath of the so-called Arab Spring, which has given rise to people acting on their worst impulses (ethnic cleansing, genocide) as well as on their best (revolution, democratic constitutionalism), Levi's legacy considered more comprehensively can be a valuable touchstone for understanding the democratic possibilities of a world undergoing rapid political change. Avoiding academic jargon and entanglement in hyper-specialized academic debates, Motherhood, Fatherland and Primo Levi offers that comprehensive understanding to scholars across many fields (Italian studies, political theory, cultural studies, women's studies, Holocaust studies, history) as well as to general interest readers of a humanistic bent and citizens concerned to make sense of this revolutionary age. Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length. The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities, various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons, aphorisms, individual major works, notable writers, and periodicals that created a market for essays, and particularly famous or significant essays. The preface details the historical development of the essay, and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch, nationality, era, selected writings, list of additional readings, and anthologies. Primo Levi Ian Thomson, 2003 Italian writer Primo Levi's account of Auschwitz, If This Is A Man, is recognised as one of the essential books of mankind. No other work interrogates our moral history so incisively or conveys more profoundly the horror of the Nazi genocide. On 11 April 1987 Levi fell to his death in the house where he was born. This book presents his biography. In Praise of Antiheroes Victor Brombert, 1999-04-15 A book tracing the rise of the antihero in modern literature. The author defines him as someone whose courage displays our own needs and deficiencies. For example, he achieves dignity through humiliation or suffers a reversal through his honesty. Makers of Jewish Modernity Jacques Picard, Jacques M. Revel, Michael P. Steinberg, Idith Zertal, 2016-08-09 A unique reference to leading Jewish figures who helped shape the modern world. This superb collection presents more than forty incisive portraits of leading Jewish thinkers artists scientists and other public figures of the last hundred years who in their own unique ways engaged with and helped shape the modern world Makers of Jewish Modernity features entries on political figures such as Walther Rathenau Rosa Luxemburg and David Ben Gurion philosophers and critics such as Walter Benjamin Hannah Arendt Isaiah Berlin Jacques Derrida and Judith Butler and artists such as Mark Rothko The book provides fresh insights into the lives and careers of novelists like Franz Kafka Saul Bellow and Philip Roth the filmmakers Joel and Ethan Coen social scientists such as Sigmund Freud religious leaders and thinkers such as Avraham Kook and Martin Buber and many others Written by a diverse group of leading contemporary scholars from around the world these vibrant and frequently surprising portraits offer a global perspective that highlights the multiplicity of Jewish experience and thought A reference book like no other Makers of Jewish Modernity includes an informative general introduction that situates its subjects within the broader context of Jewish modernity as well as a rich selection of photos Italian Literature since

1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English

Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story About Face Elena

Bellina, Lindsay Eufusia, Paola Ugolini, 2009-10-02 How do we represent ourselves and the cultures we live in Is it possible to trace any boundaries between reality and self representation Because the self represented is the product of a process of selection and choice in many ways to represent the self is often simultaneously to create the self and negate the self What then becomes of the self once it is represented Because the process of self representation cumulates in a tangible result and given that any representation of the self is necessarily a construct which aims to render visible or knowable in concrete form the unseen and unknown self representation is vulnerable to assessments of its naturalness or artificiality its honesty or deceit Many issues affect the author or artist s self representation both as process and form the medium through which the self will be represented the motivation for representing oneself and the role of the audience to name only a few relevant factors This book explores the multifaceted nature of self representation in relation to culture from the Middle Ages through the Renaissance up to contemporary Italian American and Australian culture with reference to concepts and questions connected to literature poetry philosophy theology history ethnicity studies gender studies and visual arts
