

The background of the top half of the poster is a dark, atmospheric landscape. In the distance, a suspension bridge, resembling the Golden Gate Bridge, is visible against a heavy, greenish-grey sky filled with clouds. The foreground shows dark, silhouetted hills and a body of water with some rocks. The overall color palette is dominated by dark greens, greys, and blacks, creating a somber and mysterious mood.

Crowther, 2011-12-31 With the advent of the Second World War a new mood was discernible in film drama an atmosphere of disillusion and a sense of foreboding a dark quality that derived as much from the characters depicted as from the cinematographer's art These films among them such classics as Double Indemnity The Woman in the Window Touch of Evil and Sunset Boulevard emerged retrospectively as a genre in themselves when a French film critic referred to them collectively as film noir Bruce Crowther looks into noir's literary origins often in the novels of the so-called hard-boiled school typified by Raymond Chandler Dashiell Hammett and Cornell Woolrich and at how the material translated to the screen noting in particular influences from German expressionist films and the almost indispensable techniques of flashback and voice-over narration He also assesses the contribution made by the players by actors such as Robert Mitchum Dick Powell Alan Ladd and John Garfield and actresses such as Barbara Stanwyck Elizabeth Scott Joan Crawford and Gloria Grahame together with a roll call of supporting players whose screen presence could lend almost any film the noir imprimatur Noir was in its heyday from 1945 to 1955 a time when paranoia and disillusion anxiety and violence could be said to have been part of the fabric of American and particularly Hollywood society yet its impact and its influence are with us still in films as diverse as The French Connection Chinatown and Body Heat This Book commemorates a special period in film making and a unique combination of talent resulting in a spectrum of films that are as welcome today on their small screen airings as they were when first shown in cinema Fast Lane Dave Zeltserman, 2004-05-31 Denver private eye Johnny Lane is so busy he has to contract out his overflow cases When a young woman approaches him to find her birth parents he's willing to take the case for almost nothing Almost It would be a breath of fresh air after all the lowlife cases he's now stuck with and there is something about the woman the last thing Johnny expects is the path the case leads him down As the chasm between words and reality grows wider past and present deeds start unraveling with deadly force For those of us who believed Jim Thompson would never be equaled great tidings he's back in the form of Dave Zeltserman Hilarious in the darkest fashion violent bitter psychotic and unputdownable FAST LANE left me bruised battered and exhilarated KEN BRUEN The Rough Guide to South Africa, Lesotho & Swaziland Rough Guides, 2015-02-02 The Rough Guide to South Africa is the definitive guide to one of the world's most fascinating and varied countries Now available in PDF format With
