Thrive Online Shannon Riggs,2023-07-03 Research shows that online education when designed and facilitated well is as effective as traditional campus based instruction Despite the evidence many faculty perceive online education as inferior to traditional instruction and are often quite vocal in their skepticism Simultaneously however more and more students are seeking online courses and degree programs Thrive Online A New Approach to Building Expertise and Confidence as an Online Educator is an invitation for the rising tide of online educators who are relatively new to teaching online and also for those more experienced instructors who are increasingly frustrated by the dominant bias against online education Readers will find An approach that empowers online educators to thrive professionally using a set of specific agentic behaviors Strategies for approaching conversations about online learning in new ways that inform the skeptics and critics Strategies that celebrate the additional skills and proficiencies developed by successful online educators Guidance for educators who want to feel natural and fluent in the online learning environment Guidance for enhancing the user centered nature of online spaces to create student centered learning environments Encouragement for online educators to pursue leadership opportunitiesThe internet is changing how people communicate and learn Thrive Online A New Approach to Building Expertise and Confidence as an Online Educator offers guidance inspiration and strategies required to adapt and lead higher education through this change This book is for higher education instructors who are seeking community a sense of belonging and the professional respect they deserve Thriving is not a reaction to our environment but rather a state of being we can create intentionally for ourselves The time has come to change the conversation about online education Add your voice join the community and ThriveOnline Applied Degree Education and the Future of Learning Christina Hong,Will W. K. Ma,2022-06-03 This book draws on the responses to learning and teaching and applied education futures thinking that provide insights into the future of learning It brings together more than 30 novel and important applied research and scholarly contributions from around the world including Australia Canada Finland Germany Hong Kong Japan Macau Mainland China Malaysia Morocco Pakistan and the UK The chapters including reflective essays and practice based case examples are divided into five major themes Future ready values and competencies for the future of work Innovative pedagogies in applied degree learning and training Driving student access engagement and success through digital technologies Intelligent technologies Embedding the new world of work into applied degrees Lifelong learning partnering and the future of work This book is important for readers interested in international perspectives on the future of work and professional education How to Enhance Learning Efficiency When Online Learning is Popular and Indispensable: Theory, Research and Practice Rong Lian,Chang Liu ,Juzhe Xi,2024-07-17 Online learning has become more and more common globally whether for comfort adapting to work hours or just having the freedom to study from anywhere And now under the coronavirus pandemic as people are having to stay at home it has become more important than ever Although the popularity of wireless network and portable smart device makes it possible for people to acquire and learn knowledge anytime and anywhere it does not necessarily mean an increased learning performance Relevant research in cognitive science has revealed possible limitations in online learning For example the knowledge acquired through online learning tends to be fragmented and lacks guidance for integrated thinking among different subjects which makes it difficult for learners to form a systematic knowledge structure Learners may experience cognitive overload metacognitive illusion and low learning efficiency in self regulated learning It follows that in the post COVID 19 era online learning puts forward new requirements and challenges to the contemporary students not only to their learning strategies but positive character traits in learning Most of the current learning theories were developed in the early 20th century and may not fit in well with the current situation then possibly leading to inefficient learning and increased learning burden Therefore it is necessary and important to reexplore the influencing factors and mechanisms that affect the learning efficiency of students at all levels nowadays based on which we could construct a theoretical model of efficient learning model Essentials of Youth Fitness Avery D.
