The Parnas Silvano Arieti, 2000 The psychiatrist s insight and the storyteller s skill offer an absorbing tale Elie Wiesel A book to read again and again with the same piety with which it has been written A rare event in publishing at once an accurate and documented historical study and in the interpretation made by one of today s greatest psychologists of a strange and symbolic disease Primo Levi The Parnas recreates the final days of Giuseppe Pardo Roques the lay leader or parnas of the Sephardic Jewish community of Pisa Italy who was killed in his home by the Nazis in August 1944 Pardo was a mentor to the author and indeed he was a figure adored and celebrated not only by the Jews of Pisa but by the Christians as well He was learned and generous but he was also profoundly phobic Animals terrified him so much so that he almost never left his house except to go to the synagogue for fear of encountering stray dogs or cats At the outbreak of World War II Arieti fled to America where he became a renown psychiatrist But the parnas despite a wealth of connections that could have helped him escape was too phobic to flee Pisa On the morning of August 1 1944 Nazi soldiers searching for Pardo s fabled riches entered his home The soldiers found neither gold nor silver but they did find the parnas along with six fellow Jews whom he was sheltering and five Christian neighbors All were murdered In The Parnas Arieti imagines what took place in the home and in the mind of this devout kindly and tormented man in the last days of his life providing in the process an overview of Italian Jewry Arieti hopes to show that tragic times have a perfume of their own and smiles of hope and traces of charm and offer olive branches and late warnings that may not be too late This is one of the most extraordinary stories yet to reach us from the bitter ashes of Nazism Dr Arieti weaves his story so beautifully that to unravel it would mean losing its dramatic effect Suffice it to say that God Jews Christians fascism cowardice and bravery are discussed throughout the story in such a way that the reader is at once shaken and enlightened as the plot unfolds It is like a parable suffused with the dignity of both the parnas and the author a work of art New York Times Book Review From the Foreword by Rabbi Harold S Kushner In this brief deceptively simple narrative Arieti has told the story of Giuseppe Pardo parnas lay leader of his native community of Pisa and of his death at the hands of the Nazis Pardo was the leading citizen of a small Jewish community that produced more than its share of distinguished Jews He was a learned man familiar with Bible Talmud and secular subjects He was a wealthy man and charitable to Jew and non Jew alike He ultimately met his death together with six fellow Jews and five gentiles who had sought the protection of his home And he was a profoundly neurotic man who had an irrational fear of animals especially dogs When he walked in the streets of Pisa which was not often because of his fears he would swing a cane from side to side behind him to drive away the imaginary animals The distinguished psychiatrist tells of his strange life and equally strange death

(Re)Interpretations Lisa Dresdner,Laurel S. Peterson,2009-01-14 Patriarchal institutions govern all aspects of women s lives their minds their bodies and their souls Additionally they govern the ways in which women are perceived by others and the ways in which women perceive themselves Re Interpretations The Shapes of Justice in Women s Experience is a collection of essays on language religion war sex trafficking and medicine the patriarchal structures that form the basis of western society and thus are in many ways inherently unjust The essays illustrate the multitude of ways that women have found to work within and without these structures to create justice Traditional theories of justice cast it as a cardinal virtue unbiased and impartial The essays in this book however remove justice from the abstract and return it to the specific most of the essays use personal narratives to highlight the connections all people share The women discussed here are challenging the authority of existing patriarchal narratives by telling their versions and thus calling attention to and challenging their own political and social realities Reflecting a focus on global connectedness and interdisciplinarity the writers of these essays aim not only to raise questions but also to show ways in which women are creating new pathways for themselves Only by exploring solutions will women reclaim justice From L A to Zimbabwe women have stories to tell about their experiences of justice in the inherently patriarchal institutions of Language Religion War Sex Trafficking and Medicine This relevant and thought provoking collection captures the trials that women across the world face and the hope they create through their courageous actions Through both personal narrative and factual overview these essays emphasize that as people committed to justice women must not simply raise the questions but they must also explore solutions in order to reclaim justice for themselves their daughters their sisters and their mothers Contributors Yifat Bitton Stephany Ryan Cate Jo Scott Coe Susan Dewey Carmela Epright Carmen Faymonville Adam Gaynor Pauline Greenhill Denise Handlarski Alison Jobe Marc J W de did the unthinkable and boldly seized a Confederate steamer With his wife and two young children hidden on board Smalls and a small crew ran a gauntlet of heavily armed fortifications in Charleston Harbor and delivered the valuable vessel and the massive guns it carried to nearby Union forces To be unsuccessful was a death sentence for all Smalls courageous and ingenious act freed him and his family from slavery and immediately made him a Union hero while simultaneously challenging much of the country s view of what African Americans were willing to do to gain their freedom After his escape Smalls served in numerous naval campaigns off Charleston as a civilian boat pilot and eventually became the first black captain of an Army ship In a particularly poignant moment Smalls even bought the home that he and his mother had once served in as house slaves Cate Lineberry s Be Free or Die is a compelling narrative that illuminates Robert Smalls amazing journey from slave to Union hero and ultimately United States Congressman This captivating tale of a valuable figure in American history gives fascinating insight into the country s first efforts to help newly freed slaves while also illustrating the many struggles and achievements of African Americans during the Civil War Novel Beginnings Patricia Meyer Spacks,2008-10-01 In this study intended for general readers eminent critic Patricia Meyer Spacks provides a fresh engaging account of the early history of the English novel Novel Beginnings departs from the traditional narrow focus on the development of the realistic novel to emphasize the many kinds of experimentation that marked the genre in the eighteenth century before its conventions were firmly established in the nineteenth Treating well known works like Tom Jones and Tristram Shandy in conjunction with less familiar texts such as Sarah Fielding s The Cry a kind of hybrid novel and play and Jane Barker s A Patch Work Screen for the Ladies a novel of adventure replete with sentimental verse and numerous subnarratives the book evokes the excitement of a multifaceted and unpredictable process of growth and change Investigating fiction throughout the 1700s Spacks delineates the individuality of specific texts while suggesting connections among novels She sketches a wide range of forms and themes including Providential narratives psychological thrillers romances clef sentimental parables political allegories Gothic romances and many others These multiple narrative experiments show the impossibility of thinking of eighteenth century fiction simply as a precursor to the nineteenth century novel Spacks shows Instead the vast variety of engagements with the problems of creating fiction demonstrates that literary history by no means inexorable might have taken quite a different course Disability Theory Tobin Siebers,2008-06-16 Boldly rethinks theoretical questions of the last thirty years from the vantage point of disability studies THE GREAT SEA ADVENTURE - Pirate Novels, Treasure-Hunt Tales & Maritime Stories Jules Verne,James Fenimore Cooper,Edgar Allan Poe,Jeffery Farnol,Randall Parrish,Jack London,Victor Hugo,Joseph Conrad,Herman Melville,Walter Scott,Ralph Henry Barbour,Daniel Defoe,Rudyard Kipling,Frederick Marryat,Rafael Sabatini,Charles Boardman Hawes,L.
