Batik Fabled Cloth Of Java:

Batik Inger McCabe Elliott, 2010-10-10 TEXTILE ARTS Batik Fabled Cloth of Java is a sumptuous classic book richly illustrated with color plates of the finest antique and contemporary batik from thirty museums and private collections around the world It includes historical photographs etchings engravings maps and photographs of modern Java Batik Inger McCabe Elliott, 1985-01-01 Batik. Traces through time Fiona Kerlogue, Dagmar Pospíšilová, 2021-01-01 The batik of Java has a special place in museum textile collections and aspects of the art of batik have been discussed at length in countless publications This study based on the batik collections of the N prstek Museum raises a number of questions which have been so far underexplored How strong is the evidence for the early manufacture of batik in Java How and when did batik making become widely practised there Was it made by village women for their own use How and why did batik develop into an industry employing thousands of people filling warehouses with stock to be distributed throughout the Indonesian archipelago What was the effect of the introduction of wax printing and of aniline dyes It is often asserted that batik carries deep meaning To what extent is this really the case When did batik depicting wayang or shadow puppet figures start to be made and who for What was the role of calligraphy batiks And what was it that drew European collectors to batik in the early 20th century What local circumstances governed their choices In a series of essays this volume explores these questions drawing on contemporary sources and providing a wealth of new insights Batik: From the Courts of Java and Sumatra Rudolf G. Smend, Brigitte Khan Majlis, Harmen C. Veldhuisen, 2013-02-12 With beautiful full color Batik cloths and extensive historical and cultural commentary Batik From the Courts of Java and Sumatra is a fundamental work in the field of Indonesian art and culture Batik occupies a special position in Indonesia The extraordinary photographs of cloths and prints in this book demonstrate why batik is the stuff of textile legend These 71 batik designs taken from the collection of famed dealer Rudolf G Smend date from 1880 1930 a time still considered batik s golden age Emanating from the provincial and stately courts of Yogyakarta and Surakarta in Central Java are hip chest shoulder and head cloths in controlled orderly geometric patterns in natural soga brown indigo blue black and cream Brighter colors and freer designs on the sarongs made in Cirebon Pekalongan Lasem and other towns along Java s commercial north coast eloquently attest to the blending of indigenous forms motifs and colors with outside influences Southern Sumatra with its Muslim heritage contributed large shoulder cloths and headscarves often bearing Koranic invocations Complementing these extraordinary cloths are 16 vintage photo prints from the Leo Haks collection which demonstrate how batik was worn at court and in other settings The Domestication of Desire Suzanne April Brenner, 2012-10-11 While doing fieldwork in the modernizing Javanese city of Solo during the late 1980s Suzanne Brenner came upon a neighborhood that seemed like a museum of a bygone era Laweyan a once thriving production center of batik textiles had embraced modernity under Dutch colonial rule only to fend off the modernizing forces of the Indonesian state during the late twentieth century Focusing on this community Brenner examines what she calls the making of the unmodern She portrays a merchant enclave clinging to its distinctive forms of social life and highlights the unique power of women in the marketplace and the home two domains closely linked to each other through local economies of production and exchange Against the social political and economic developments of late colonial and postcolonial Java Brenner describes how an innovative commercially successful lifestyle became an anachronism in Indonesian society thereby challenging the idea that tradition invariably gives way to modernity in an evolutionary progression Brenner s analysis centers on the importance of gender to processes of social transformation In Laweyan the base of economic and social power has shifted from families in which women were the main producers of wealth and cultural value to the Indonesian state which has worked to reorient families toward national political agendas How such attempts affect women s lives and the meaning of the family itself are key considerations as Brenner questions long held assumptions about the division between domestic and public spheres in modern society

Transboundary Heritage and Intellectual Property Law Patricia Covarrubia,2022-11-30 Since the Intangible Heritage Convention was adopted by UNESCO in 2003 intangible cultural heritage has increasingly been an important subject of debate in international forums As more countries implement the Intangible Heritage Convention national policymakers and communities of practice have been exploring the use of intellectual property protection to achieve intangible cultural heritage safeguarding outcomes This book examines diverse cultural heritage case studies from Indigenous communities and local communities in developing and industrialised countries to offer an interdisciplinary examination of topics at the intersection between heritage and property which present cross border challenges Analysing a range of case studies which provide examples of traditional knowledge traditional cultural expressions and genetic resources by a mixture of practitioners and scholars from different fields the book addresses guidelines and legislation as well as recent developments about shared heritage to identify a progressive trend that improves the understanding of intangible cultural heritage Considering all forms of intellectual property including patents copyright design rights trade marks geographical indications and sui generis rights the book explores problems and challenges for intangible cultural heritage in crossborder situations as well as highlighting positive relationships and collaborations among communities across geographical boundaries Transboundary Heritage and Intellectual Property Law Safeguarding Intangible Cultural Heritage will be an important resource for practitioners scholars and students engaged in studying intangible cultural heritage intellectual property law heritage studies and anthropology Globalization in Southeast Asia Shinji Yamashita, Jeremy Seymour Eades, 2003 The rapid postwar economic growth in the Southeast Asia region has led to a transformation of many of the societies there together with the development of new types of anthropological research in the region Local societies with originally quite different cultures have been incorporated into multi ethnic states with their own projects of nation building based on the creation of national cultures using these indigenous elements At the same time the expansion of international capitalism has led to increasing flows of money people languages and cultures across national boundaries resulting in new hybrid social structures and cultural forms This book examines the nature of these processes in contemporary Southeast Asia with detailed case studies drawn from countries across the region including Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand At the macro level these include studies of nation building and the incorporation of minorities At the micro level they range from studies of popular cultural forms such as music and textiles to the impact of new sects and the world religions on local religious practice Moving between the global and the local are the various streams of migrants within the region including labor migrants responding to the changing distribution of economic opportunities and ethnic minorities moving in response to natural disaster HIDDEN MESSAGES in Classic Batik Patterns Oetari Siswomihardjo-Prawirohardjo, 2025-07-01 Batik in Indonesia has experienced remarkable growth emerging as a valued commodity from a profound artistic tradition rich in spiritual values Through intricate symbols beautifully woven into a piece of batik our ancestors the original creators of these classic patterns conveyed hidden messages and life lessons to future generations This makes the classic batik designs not only aesthetically appealing but also profoundly meaningful However it is unfortunate that the development of batik has not been entirely comprehensive There is a growing concern that the younger generation lacks a deep understanding of these spiritual values inherent in these patterns The knowledge of the symbolic meanings behind classic batik patterns is not being adequately passed down to the present generation It is hoped that the explanations in this book to some extent can help pass down the spiritual values of classic batik particularly to future generations Batik, Traditional Textiles of Indonesia Rudolf Smend, Donald Harper, 2011-11-15 Batik occupies a special place in Indonesian culture Each fabric has a rich story to tell as a reflection of the nation's religious beliefs sophisticated court cultures and cosmopolitan history The extraordinary textiles in this book are from the collections of Rudolf Smend and Donald Harper Most date from the period 1880 to 1930 when the art of batik reached its apogee Having collected historical batik for over thirty years and published two books on the subject Rudolf Smend has invited his friend and fellow batik specialist Donald Harper to contribute his fine collection to this publication as well None of the batik in this book have been published before They represent an exquisite cross section of the batik production of Java the most important batik producing region in the world The cloths are complemented by vintage photographs from the first quarter of the 20th century demonstrating how the batik were worn at court and at home Three are from museums in Dresden and Cologne while three are from the private collection of Leo Haks The others have been collected over the past 30 years from private sources in Java The captions are by Maria Wronska Friend an ethnologist and batik expert who frequently visits Indonesian batik centers and has worked for many years as an anthropologist in Papua New Guinea Her contributions provide fundamental knowledge for lovers of this art form while at the same time providing new insights for experts Rudolf Smend has invited other batik aficionados of his generation to share their passion for batik in this book Inger McCabe Elliott author of the bestselling Batik Fabled Cloth of Java has contributed her lifelong experience Other authorities like Annegret Haake Brigitte Khan Majlis and Jonathan Hope share their views and expertise in these pages This book represents a labor of love and a lifetime of friendship for the two authors who hope it will provide inspiration to a whole new generation of batik lovers

Every Branch In Me: Essays On The Meanin Barry McDonald,2010-08-01 Every Branch in Me Essays on the Meaning of Man is a collection of articles by leading perennialist authors that are unified by a single theme nothing that is properly human can be separated from the intrinsically spiritual nature of man

Building on Batik Michael Hitchcock,Wiendu Nuryanti,2016-12-05 The word batik is possibly of Malay origin from the word tik meaning to drip or to drop The term is applied to a resist dye technique invented independently in locations as diverse as Ancient Egypt Japan and Turkestan Batik is a remarkably flexible textile technique and is suited to small scale methods of production but demand from the fashion and tourism industries is increasing This volume brings together the experiences and concerns of the international community of batik producers It gives voice to their suggestions for ensuring that the producers of this traditional craft are integrated into its increasingly global production rather than excluded from it Building on the work of batik designers and producers the book discusses the emergence of a global craft consciousness Batik producers report on innovative measures taken both individually and collectively to hold their market position while commercial producers frequently annex and mass produce traditional batik design The book concludes with a discussion of marketing and production innovations and tourism which enable the producers of batik to maintain the integrity of their designs whilst harnessing the benefits of new commercial forms
