Anti-Immigrantism in Western Democracies Roxanne Lynn Doty, 2003-09-02 This book critically examines the various practises of anti immigrantism in the US the UK and France within the context of globalisation and questions our understanding of the state Foreign Terrorists in America United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Technology, Terrorism, and Government Information, 1998

They're Not Listening Ryan James Girdusky, Harlan Hill, 2020-06-16 The election of Donald Trump in America and the referendum on European Union membership in the United Kingdom otherwise known as Brexit sent shockwaves throughout the world Cosmopolitan elites across the globe never saw this populist uprising coming and still do not understand it People across the globe have been increasingly voting for national populist politicians over the last twenty years The current nationalist populist revolt started long before Donald Trump came down his golden escalator and even before Prime Minister David Cameron agreed to hold a referendum vote on the EU It wasn't isolated to rundown towns in Northern England or the Midwest and it wasn't solely because of demographic changes ignorance intolerance or a whitelash It was occurring because the elites chose to ignore voters concerns when it came to globalism and neoliberalism Issues like mass immigration war economic inequality and national sovereignty were sacrosanct to neoliberals and ultimately their unwillingness to concede on these issues built discontent among millions of people

Mediterranean in Dis/order Rosita Di Peri, Daniel Meier, 2023-03-07

Mediterranean in Dis order reveals the connection between space and politics by examining the role that space has played in insurgencies conflicts uprisings and mobilities in the Mediterranean region With this approach the authors are able to challenge well established beliefs about the power structure of the state across different disciplines including political science history sociology geography and anthropology and its impact on the conception production and imagination of space in the broader Mediterranean Further they contribute to particular areas of studies such as migration political Islam mobilization and transition to democracy among others The book infusing critical theory unveils original and revelatory case studies in Tunisia Libya Lebanon Turkey Syria Morocco and the EU Mediterranean policy through a various set of actors and practices from refugees and migrations policies to Islamist or students movements architectural sites or movies This multidisciplinary perspective on space and power provides a valuable resource for practitioners interested in how space context and time interact to produce institutions political subjectivities and asymmetries of power particularly since the turning point of the Arab uprisings The book also helps readers understand the conditions under which the uprisings develop giving a clearer picture about various national regional and international dynamics

Migrants, Borders and Global

Capitalism Hannah Cross, 2013-04-17 People from West Africa are risking their lives and surrendering their citizenship rights to enter exploitative labour markets in Europe This book offers an explanation for this phenomenon that is based on close analysis of the contradictory economic and political agendas that create and constrain labour migration It shows how global capitalism regulates different stages of the process within an interconnected system of economic dispossession the construction of an illegal status border control labour exploitation and processes of underdevelopment This is summarised as a regime of unfree labour mobility Combined with structural and historical approaches this book is based on ethnographic research It incorporates those who are left behind those who decide to stay migrants who fail and those who are on the move alongside clustered migrant communities in Senegal Mauritania and Spain The book's panoramic approach shows how West African step wise journeys to Europe by land and sea sees competing territorial and economic policies regulating an unstable and unpredictable trajectory creating illegal labour through dual logics of border security and selective labour mobility This book demonstrates that the diverse channels through which people migrate in the modern era are mediated by European states and labour markets which utilise border regimes to control labour and be globally competitive The themes and patterns that emerge in their context of inter generational change present a challenge to the accepted wisdom about the individual and household dynamics of labour migration This book is of interest to students and scholars of migration transnationalism politics security development economics and sociology

A New Kind of Containment, 2009-01-01 This book addresses containment as it relates to interlocking discourses around the War on Terror as a global effort and its link to race and sexuality within the United States The project emerged from the recognition that the events of 11 September 2001 prompted new efforts at containment with both domestic and international implications

Asylum Weaponry Gatekeeper : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Asylum Weaponry Gatekeeper : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
