Business Ethics: Kant, Virtue, and the Nexus of Duty Richard M. Robinson, 2021-12-09 This book offers students a philosophical introduction to the ethical foundations of business management It combines lessons from Kant with virtue ethics and also touches upon additional approaches such as utilitarianism At the core of the book lies the concept of the nexus of imperfect managerial duty building and reinforcing the virtuous managerial team engaging in reasoned discourse among all stakeholders and diligently pursuing business responsibilities including the creative efforts necessary for modern organizations Case illustrations of these applications are presented throughout the book including chapter appendices Ancillary videos test and answer banks and sample syllabi are available online via the author s website

Imperfect Duties of Management Richard M. Robinson,2018-10-08 This book uses Kant's idea of imperfect duty to extend the theory of the firm Unlike perfect duty which is contractual or otherwise legally binding imperfect duty consists of those commitments of choice that pursue some moral value but that have practical limits to their pursuit The author presents a broad view of the imperfect duties of management defined as a nexus of all commitments to do good involving relations internal and external to the firm This nexus consists of three overlapping categories of i building a virtuous managerial community ii pursuing reasoned managerial discourse and iii diligent and reasoned pursuit of the body of routine managerial duties such as capital budgeting and internal controls Specific applications of the nexus theory for stakeholder relations via fair negotiation and for analysis of the effects on the managerial team of perquisite consumption are presented This book has major implications for research in business ethicsand allows critical insights into managerial decision making

Environmental Organizations and Reasoned Discourse Richard M. Robinson, 2021-07-05 This book explores the meaning and role of fair and reasoned discourse in the context of our institutions for environmental decision processes. The book reviews the roles of our environmental advocacy organizations such as The Sierra Club The Audubon Society the Environmental Defense Fund in providing and ensuring that our discourse and decisions are fair and reasoned according to the criteria of being i inclusive of input from all affected ii informed of relevant scientific and socio economic information iii uncorrupted by direct conflicts of interest and iv logical according robust review by uncorrupted judges. These organizations are described and examined as expressions of collective imperfect duty i e the coordinated duties with environmental direction The current state of our discourse is examined in light of this fairness criteria particularly in consideration of the cross border problems that threaten tragedies of the global commons Chomsky and Deconstruction C. Wise, 2011-01-31 This book offers a careful and measured response to Noam Chomsky's criticism against deconstructive theories of language The author reveals the connections between Chomsky's linguistic theories and politics by demonstrating their shared The Road from Eden John Barber, 2008 The Intentional Brain Michael R. Trimble, 2016-07-03 A philosophical basis tour de force an assessment of the culture of mind brain relations beginning with the ancients and ending in the present Edward Shorter PhD National Book Award finalist and author of A History of Psychiatry Neuropsychiatry has a distinguished history yet its ideals and principles fell out of fashion in the early twentieth century as neurology and psychiatry diverged into separate disciplines Later neuropsychiatry reemerged as the two disciplines moved closer again accelerated by advances in neuroanatomy neurochemistry and drugs that alter the functioning of the central nervous system But as neuropsychiatrist Michael R Trimble explains in The Intentional Brain the new neuropsychiatry has its own identity and is more than simply a borderland between two disparate clinical disciplines Looking at neuropsychiatry in the context of major cultural and artistic achievements Trimble explores changing views of the human brain and its relation to behavior and cognition over 2 500 years of Western civilization Beginning with the early Greek physicians and moving through the Middle Ages Enlightenment Romantic era World Wars and present day he explores understandings about the brain s integral role in determining movement motivation and mood Persuasively arguing that storytelling forms the backbone of human culture and individuality Trimble describes the dawn and development of artistic creativity and traces the conflicts between differing philosophical views of our world and our position in it A sweeping history of the branch of medicine concerned with both psychic and organic aspects of mental disorder the book reveals what scientists have learned about movement and emotion by studying people with such diseases as epilepsy syphilis hysteria psychosis movement disorders and melancholia The Intentional Brain is a marvelous and interdisciplinary look at the clinical interface between the mind and the brain Faith, Doubt, and Reason Brent A. R. Hege, 2020-02-05 Faith doubt and reason are universal human faculties yet they are frequently misunderstood denigrated and even abused What does it mean to have faith and what distinguishes faith from belief Can someone have faith without religious commitments What is doubt and what is its relationship to faith and belief How do we make sense of evil and suffering What roles does reason play in our lives What do we do when we have the sneaking suspicion that life is absurd What do we love and what do we fear How do faith doubt and reason interrelate Faith doubt and reason not only can work together they must work together if we are to live lives of meaning and purpose This book explores the significance of these three universal human faculties and the central role they play in our guest for the meaning of life Drawing on classic texts in theology philosophy literature and the Bible Faith Doubt and Reason invites readers to delve deeply into the quest for the meaning of life in all its ambiguity mystery and tragic beauty Environmental Advocacy and Local Restorations Richard M. Robinson, 2023-04-30 This book explores the leadership of state and federal environmental agencies and local environmental groups in restoring the degraded rivers that flow into North America's Great Lakes and other sites in the northeastern industrial corridor of the US Robinson examines twenty of the forty eight sites included in the Areas of Concern Program of the Great Lakes Water Quality Agreement between Canada and the US These twenty include heavily urbanized locales such as those along the River Rouge and Detroit River but also more pristine locales such as the St Louis River that flows through Duluth Additionally Robinson examines challenging river restorations within the northeastern industrial corridor which are led by effective local environmental advocacy organizations the Penobscot Nation of Indigenous People the Mystic River Watershed Association and the Housatonic River Valley Association All of these river restorations are led and managed by the environmental experts of i state and federal agencies ii academia and iii environmental NGOs Local restorations of industrially degraded water bodies now compose a significant segment of the environmental movement and ultimately Robinson demonstrates that local environmental advocacy organizations can help marshal state and local funding for those efforts Re-Presenting the Good Society Maeve Cooke, 2006-04-07 A proposal for negotiating the tension between an anti authoritarian impulse and a guiding idea of context transcending validity in critical social theory Contemporary critical social theories face the question of how to justify the ideas of the good society that guide their critical analyses Traditionally these more or less determinate ideas of the good society were held to be independent of their specific sociocultural context and historical epoch Today such a concept of context transcending validity is not easy to defend the linguistic turn of Western philosophy signals the widespread acceptance of the view that ideas of knowledge and validity are always mediated linguistically and that language is conditioned by history and context In Re Presenting the Good Society Maeve Cooke addresses the justificatory dilemma facing critical social theories how to maintain an idea of context transcending validity without violating anti authoritarian impulses In doing so she not only clarifies the issues and positions taken by other theorists including Richard Rorty J rgen Habermas Axel Honneth and Judith Butler but also offers her own original and thought provoking analysis of context transcending validity Because the tension between an anti authoritarian impulse and a guiding idea of context transcending validity is today an integral part of critical social theory Cooke argues that it should be negotiated rather than eliminated Her proposal for a concept of context transcending validity has as its central claim that we should conceive of the good society as re presented in particular constitutively inadequate representations of it These representations are Cooke argues provocatively regulative ideas that have an imaginary fictive character Alterity: The Experience of the Other Clive Hazell, 2009-07-29 The concept of alterity is fundamental to all psychological theories Most of these theories operate as if this concept is well understood and quite stable This book challenges that notion by examining ideas about alterity in several different fields It also offers an organizing template for the concept utilizing ideas from Lacan Levinas and Dabrowski Immigration and Settlement Harald Bauder, 2012 Immigration and Settlement Challenges Experiences and Opportunities draws on a selection of papers that were presented at the international Migration and the Global City conference at Ryerson University Toronto in October of 2010 Through the use of international and Canadian perspectives this book examines the contemporary challenges experiences and opportunities of immigration and settlement in global Canadian and Torontonian contexts In seventeen comprehensive chapters this text approaches immigration and settlement from various thematic angles including rights state and citizenship immigrants as labour communities and identities housing and residential contexts and emerging opportunities Immigration and Settlement will be of interest to academics researchers and students policy makers NGOs and settlement practitioners and activists and community organizers Restoring America's Rivers Richard M. Robinson, 2025-07-02 The undamming and restoration of rivers is a major component of our broader environmental movement There are ecological economic and social justice issues enveloped by initiatives involving river restorations and it s time to focus our attention on these concerns In this book Richard M Robinson reviews the removal of big concrete big earthen and low head dams along North America's larger and smaller rivers Chapters highlight issues and contradictions related to dam safety dam removals and river restoration The resulting book provides key insights into the economics and ecology of environmental restoration our water resource management and environmental justice The Right to Oblivion Lowry Pressly, 2024 Constant digital surveillance has inspired a heated but also limited privacy debate Lowry Pressly looks beyond the narrow discourse of rights and information to extol privacy as a tool for living Privacy he argues not only reinforces our capacities for play self discovery connection and trust but also is vital to the search for meaning Beyond the Pale Miguel A. De La Torre, Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, 2011-01-01 How should Augustine Aguinas Bonhoeffer Kant Nietzsche and Plato be read today in light of postcolonial theory and twenty first century understandings This book offers a reader friendly introduction to Christian liberationist ethics by having scholars from the margins explore how questions of race and gender should be brought to bear on twenty four classic ethicists and philosophers Each short chapter gives historical background for the thinker describes that thinker's most important contributions then raises issues of concern for women and persons of color Contributors include George Tink Tinker Asante U Todd Traci West Darryl Trimiew Ada Mar a Isasi D az Robyn Henderson Espinoza and many others Reasoning beyond Reason Jeff Sellars, 2011-01-01 There is a seeming dichotomy in C S Lewis s writing On the one hand we see the writer of argumentative works and on the other hand we have the imaginative poet Lewis also found this dichotomy within himself When he was a rationalist and atheist he found that these two sides of him were pulling in different directions he believed that his rationalist side could not be reconciled with his imaginative side Once he became a Christian he eventually found a means of marrying the two principally through story and myth Within C S Lewis studies there is also a common conception of Lewis as a modern rationalist philosopher i e a rationalist who thinks arguments and his arguments in particular are the last answer on the questions he undertakes Reasoning beyond Reason attempts to take this view to task by placing Lewis back into his pre modern context and showing that his sources and influences are classical ones. In this process Lewis is viewed through the idea that imagination and reason are connected in an intimate way they are different expressions of a single divine source of truth and there is an imagination already present upon which reason works. Lewis s transpositional view of imagination implicitly pushes towards a somewhat radical position the imagination is to be seen as theological in its reliance upon something more than the merely material it necessarily relies on a transcendent funding for its use and meaning In other words the imagination is a well source for what we might normally label rational Rethinking the Enlightenment Henry Martyn Lloyd, Geoff Boucher, 2017-12-29 One of the most persistent troubling and divisive of the ideological divisions within modernity is the struggle over the Enlightenment and its legacy Much of the difficulty is owed to a general failure among scholars to consider how history philosophy and politics work together Rethinking the Enlightenment bridges these disciplinary divides Recent work by historians has now called into question many of the clich's that still dominate scholarly understandings of the Enlightenment's literary philosophical and political culture Yet this work has so far had little impact on the reception of the Enlightenment its key players debates and ideas in the disciplines that most rely on its legacy namely philosophy and political science Edited by Geoff Boucher and Henry Martyn Lloyd Rethinking the Enlightenment makes the case for connecting new work in intellectual history with fresh understandings of Continental philosophy and political theory In doing so in this collection moves towards a critical self God Being Nothing Ray L. Hart, 2016-05-09 One of the most influential voices in understanding of the present contemporary theology delivers a deeply original meticulously written new approach to the way we think about God Jack Miles author of God A Biography In this long awaited work Ray L Hart offers a radical speculative theology that profoundly challenges classical understandings of the divine God Being Nothing contests the conclusions of numerous orthodoxies through a probing question How can thinking of God reach closure when the subjects of creation are themselves unfinished when God's self revelation in history is ongoing and when the active manifestation of God is still occurring A renowned theologist and author of the landmark text Unfinished Man and the Imagination Ray L Hart now asks us to imagine God perpetually in process an unfinished God being self created from nothingness Breaking away from the traditional focus on divine persons Hart reimagines the Trinity in terms of theogony cosmogony and anthropogony in order to reveal an ever emerging Godhead who encompasses all of temporal creation and within it human existence In Hart's stunning vision God's continual generation from nothing manifests the full actualization of freedom the freedom to create ex nihilo Public War, Private Conscience Andrew Fiala, 2010-07-01 A philosophical exploration of such subjects as terrorism just war and pacifism reflects on the moral demands that conflict makes on us especially its role in the struggle of public happiness versus private morality Original The SAGE Handbook of Critical Pedagogies Shirley R.
