Battles Of World War I:

Battles of World War II Mike Taylor, 1998 Describes the battles of World War II which show the early successes of the Axis powers and then the gradual triumph of the Allies The First Battle of First World War Karl Deuringer, Terence Zuber, 2014-09-01 Though not so famous as the battles of Tannenberg or the Marne the fight between the French and German armies at Alsace and Lorraine marks the first battle of World War I On August 7 1914 a week before the Battle of Tannenburg and two weeks before the Battle of the Marne the French army attacked the Germans at Mulhouse in Alsace Their objective was to recapture territory which had been lost after the Franco Prussian War of 1870 1871 which made it a matter of pride for the French However after initial success in capturing Mulhouse the Germans were able to reinforce more quickly and drove them back within three days After 43 years of peace this was the first test of strength between France and Germany In 1929 Karl Deuringer wrote the official history of the battle for the Bavarian Army an immensely detailed work of 890 pages World War I expert and former army officer Terence Zuber has translated this study and edited it down to more accessible length to produce the first account in English of the first major battle of the World War I Great Battles of World War 1 Renato Frost, 2015-06-24 World War I was a global war mostly centered in Europe that began on 28 July 1914 and lasted until 11 November 1918 More than 9 million combatants and 7 million civilians died as a result of the war a casualty rate exacerbated by the belligerents technological and industrial sophistication and tactical stalemate It was one of the deadliest conflicts in history paving the way for major political changes including revolutions in many of the nations involved This book gives a compilation of some of the most terrible and brutal battles fought during the Great War
